Hard-working and hard-tackling defender will challenge for minutes at outside back. One of her strengths is her ability to serve a long high ball. Strong in the air.

2007: Played in all 20 games at defense, starting 13. Lone assist of the season came on Teresa Bowns' score versus Arizona. Attempted seven shots, with a high of two at Washington State.

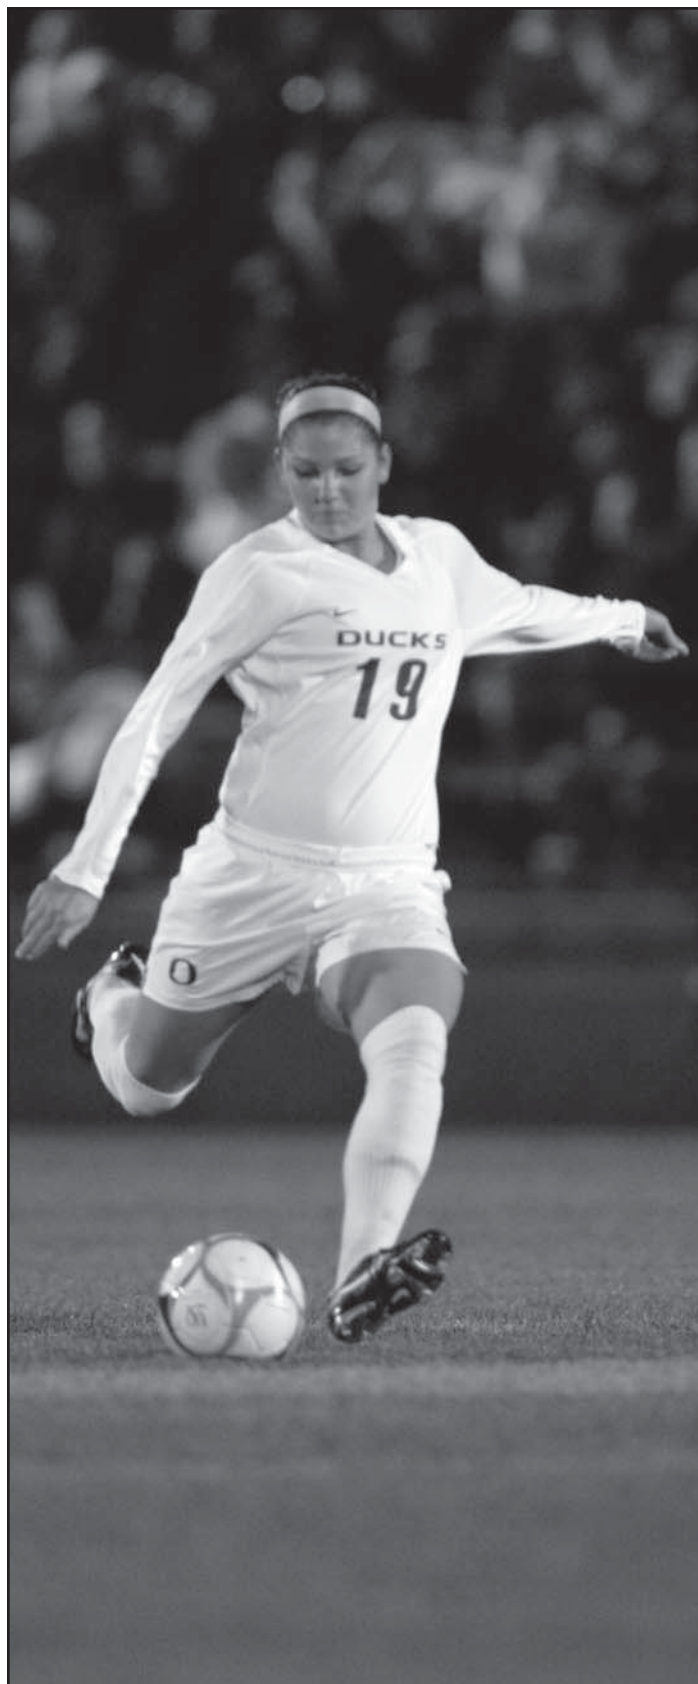

2006: Saw action in 13 games with two starts, playing mostly defense. One goal and one assist on the season. Attempted four shots. Helped Oregon rally for a 3-2 win against Iona when she scored the game-tying goal on a long cross that found the net and then assisted on Leigh Quinlan's game-winner just 64 seconds later. Earned starting assignments versus Idaho and Portland State. Was named to the OSU Soccer Classic all-tournament team.

High School: Led St. Francis High School to three consecutive sectional championships. Named a Soccer Buzz Top-100 Recruit. Also lettered in volleyball. Led club team Pleasanton Rage to the 2004 U.S. Club Soccer National Cup semifinals. An Olympic Development Program national pool player, as well as being on ODP state and regional teams. Played club soccer with fellow UO freshmen Danielle Sweeney.

Personal: Born Barbara Marie-Adele Blocker on Feb. 16, 1988, in Sacramento, Calif. Parents are Patrick Blocker and Penelope Payne. One older sister and three brothers. Grandfather Thomas Payne played football at Santa Clara and was on the Broncos' 1950 Orange Bowl team under Len Casanova, who would later become Oregon's legendary football coach and athletics director. Cousins Chris and Sam Henderson played collegiate soccer at UCLA and later in the MLS. Major is undecided; interested in journalism.

Last season's returning point-scorer opens season as the starter at forward. Creative and sublime attacker serves as a nice complement to power game of Jen Stoltenberg. Can also drop back to attacking midfielder.

Career Notes: Tied for fifth in career assists with eight.

2007: Led Oregon in scoring 16 points (5 G, 6 A) while playing in all 20 matches (17 starts). Tied for the team lead in goals. Her six assists was tops for the Ducks and was tied for eighth in the Pac-10. Led team in shots with 54 (eighth in the Pac-10). Half of her attempts (27) were on net. Had big games in wins versus Illinois State and Gonzaga. Netted two goals with an assist in 5-1 win versus the Redbirds, where she also attempted a career-high eight shots. Had one score and a school-record tying three assists against Gonzaga. Also recorded goals against Portland State and Arizona. Assisted on Jen Cameron's game-winner against UC Riverside. Also assisted on Jill Jensen's score at Illinois State. Against Gonzaga, her three assists came on scores by Dani Oster, Danielle Sweeney and Darcie Gardner. Also assisted on Jensen's score at Oregon State.

2006: Played in all 20 games, starting nine. Two assists for two points and 18 shots on the season. Assisted on Allison Newton's goal versus Iona and Nicole Garbin's score against Nevada. Four shot attempts against Portland State. Three shot attempts at Portland.

High School: KingCo MVP as a senior at Redmond High School. Also named to the all-state team. Three-time all KingCo first team selection. Played club soccer for Maple Valley Marauders. Led her U-15 Olympic Development Program team to regional and national championships.

Personal: Born Teresa Ann Bowns on April 16, 1988, in Fort Campbell, Ky. Parents are Nick and Maureen Bowns. One of eight siblings, has two brothers and five sisters. Oregon's all-time leader in wins and shutouts suffered career-ending knee injury (torn right ACL) during a workout in July. Will remain with the team to mentor the younger goalkeepers.

Career Notes: Finishes career as Oregon's all-time leader in wins with 25, shutouts with 16 and goals allowed average at 1.34 per game. Also ranks third in saves with 233. Has three of the top six goals goals allowed seasons in school history.

2007: Started all 20 games at goalkeeper, playing a school-record 1,862 minutes in net. Had 8-8-3 record. Ranked second in the Pac-10 with 76 saves and ninth with a 1.40 goals allowed average, which ranked second only to her school record 0.82 from 2006. Had four shutouts on the season. Had seven five-plus save games. Opened season with back-to-back shutouts of Nevada (1-0) and Boise State (3-0). Made six saves in a 1-0 loss to eventual NCAA national champion USC. Had five stops in 1-0 victory against Arizona State. Registered nine saves in 1-1 tie at Washington State. matched career high with 12 saves in 0-0 tie with No. 5 Stanford. Named to the Pac-10 all-academic first team and the the CoSIDA District 8 all-academic third team.

2006: Despite missing five games with a broken right hand, set school record with a 0.82 goals against average and posted a 6-1-2 mark in Pac-10 games. Was sixth in the league in goals against average and fourth in both save percentage (.824) and saves per game (4.07). After getting off to an 0-3 start, went 8-2-2 in her last 12 games. Made season-high nine saves in 1-0 loss at UC Riverside. Shut out New Hampshire 1-0 on only two saves, but suffered a broken hand late in that contest which sidelined her for the next five. Came back to shut out Portland State 1-0 in double overtime (two saves). Blanked Arizona State 1-0 on a pair of saves. Played both Washington State and California to scoreless draws; had six stops versus the Cougars and four against Cal. Blanking of the Golden Bears gave her the school record for career shutouts with her 12th. Simply brilliant in 2-1 victory over No. 3 UCLA where she made three saves and the Bruins' lone score was an own goal. Had four stops in season-ending 3-1 win over USC. Named to the CoSIDA District 8 all-academic second team and Pac-10 all-academic first team. Voted the team's most inspirational player following her comeback from injury. Won the 2006 Oregon club championship with Oregon United Soccer Academy (OUSA), playing with UO teammates Nicole Dobrzynski, Darcie Gardner, Adriana Montes, Allison Newton and Rianna Mansfield.

2005: Earned Pac-10 all-freshman and all-Pac-10 honorable mention honors following a rookie campaign that saw her set a school season record with seven shutouts. Started all 19 games in net and tied a school record with nine wins. Ranked second in the Pac-10 in saves per game (5.05), tied for fifth in shutouts with seven and 10th in goals against average (1.71). Her 96 saves ranked sixth on the UO single-season list. Also established UO records by recording three consecutive shutouts and forged the longest scoreless streak ever at Oregon, going 355:47 over the course of five games in September without allowing a goal. Opened the season with shutouts of Eastern Washington (1-0) and Louisiana State (2-0) to earn defensive MVP of the Oregon Classic. Held three consecutive opponents scoreless in mid-September, blanking Elon 2-0, North Carolina State 1-0 and South Dakota State 2-0. Earned Pac-10 player of the week honors following that run of games. Got another pair of wins against Nevada (2-1) and Wyoming (1-0) to earn MVP honors at the UniWyo Shootout. Made 11 saves in a tough 2-1 loss to USC. Stopped nine shots in Oregon's 1-0 victory against Washington that was the Ducks' first-ever win over the Huskies. Made season-high 12 saves against California, which ranks fifth on the Oregon single-game list.

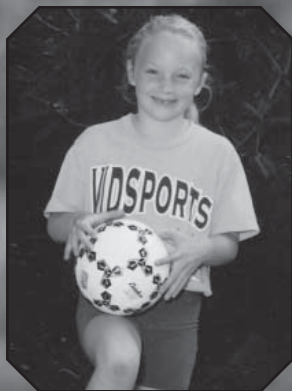

High School: Two-time team captain led Churchill High School to the 2002 Midwestern League title along with fellow signee Allison Newton. Was all-MWL second team and team MVP as a senior. Four-time state tournament qualifier. Played for Oregon United Soccer Academy (OUSA) club that won the 2004 and 2006 state titles (plus four consecutive trips to the final four) and the 2003 Beaverton Cup. Also ran track for two years at Churchill and was a member of the cheer squad. Class valedictorian and National Honor Society member with a 4.0 GPA.

10 shots that were on goal, six found the net. Scored Oregon's first goal of the season at Loyola Marymount. Started Oregon's comeback win against Iona (3-2 win) with the Ducks' first goal of the game. Assisted Nicole Garbin's score versus Nevada. Tallied a pair of assists against Idaho, including Garbin's game-winner and Megan Watson's late insurance score. Scored the first goal in Oregon's 3-1 win over Washington. Recorded the game-tying goal in the 67th minute against Oregon State, a game the Ducks won 2-1 in overtime. Memorable performance in 2-1 upset of No. 3 UCLA, when she scored in the 63rd minute on a difficult angle from the left corner, and then got the assist when her throw in helped Garbin beat her defender and score the golden goal game-winner with less than three minutes remaining in double overtime. Also scored Oregon's first goal in season-ending 3-1 defeat of USC. Named Pac-10 all-academic honorable mention. Won the 2006 Oregon club championship with Oregon United Soccer Academy (OUSA), playing with UO teammates Jessie Chatfield, Nicole Dobrzynski, Darcie Gardner, Adriana Montes and Rianna Mansfield.

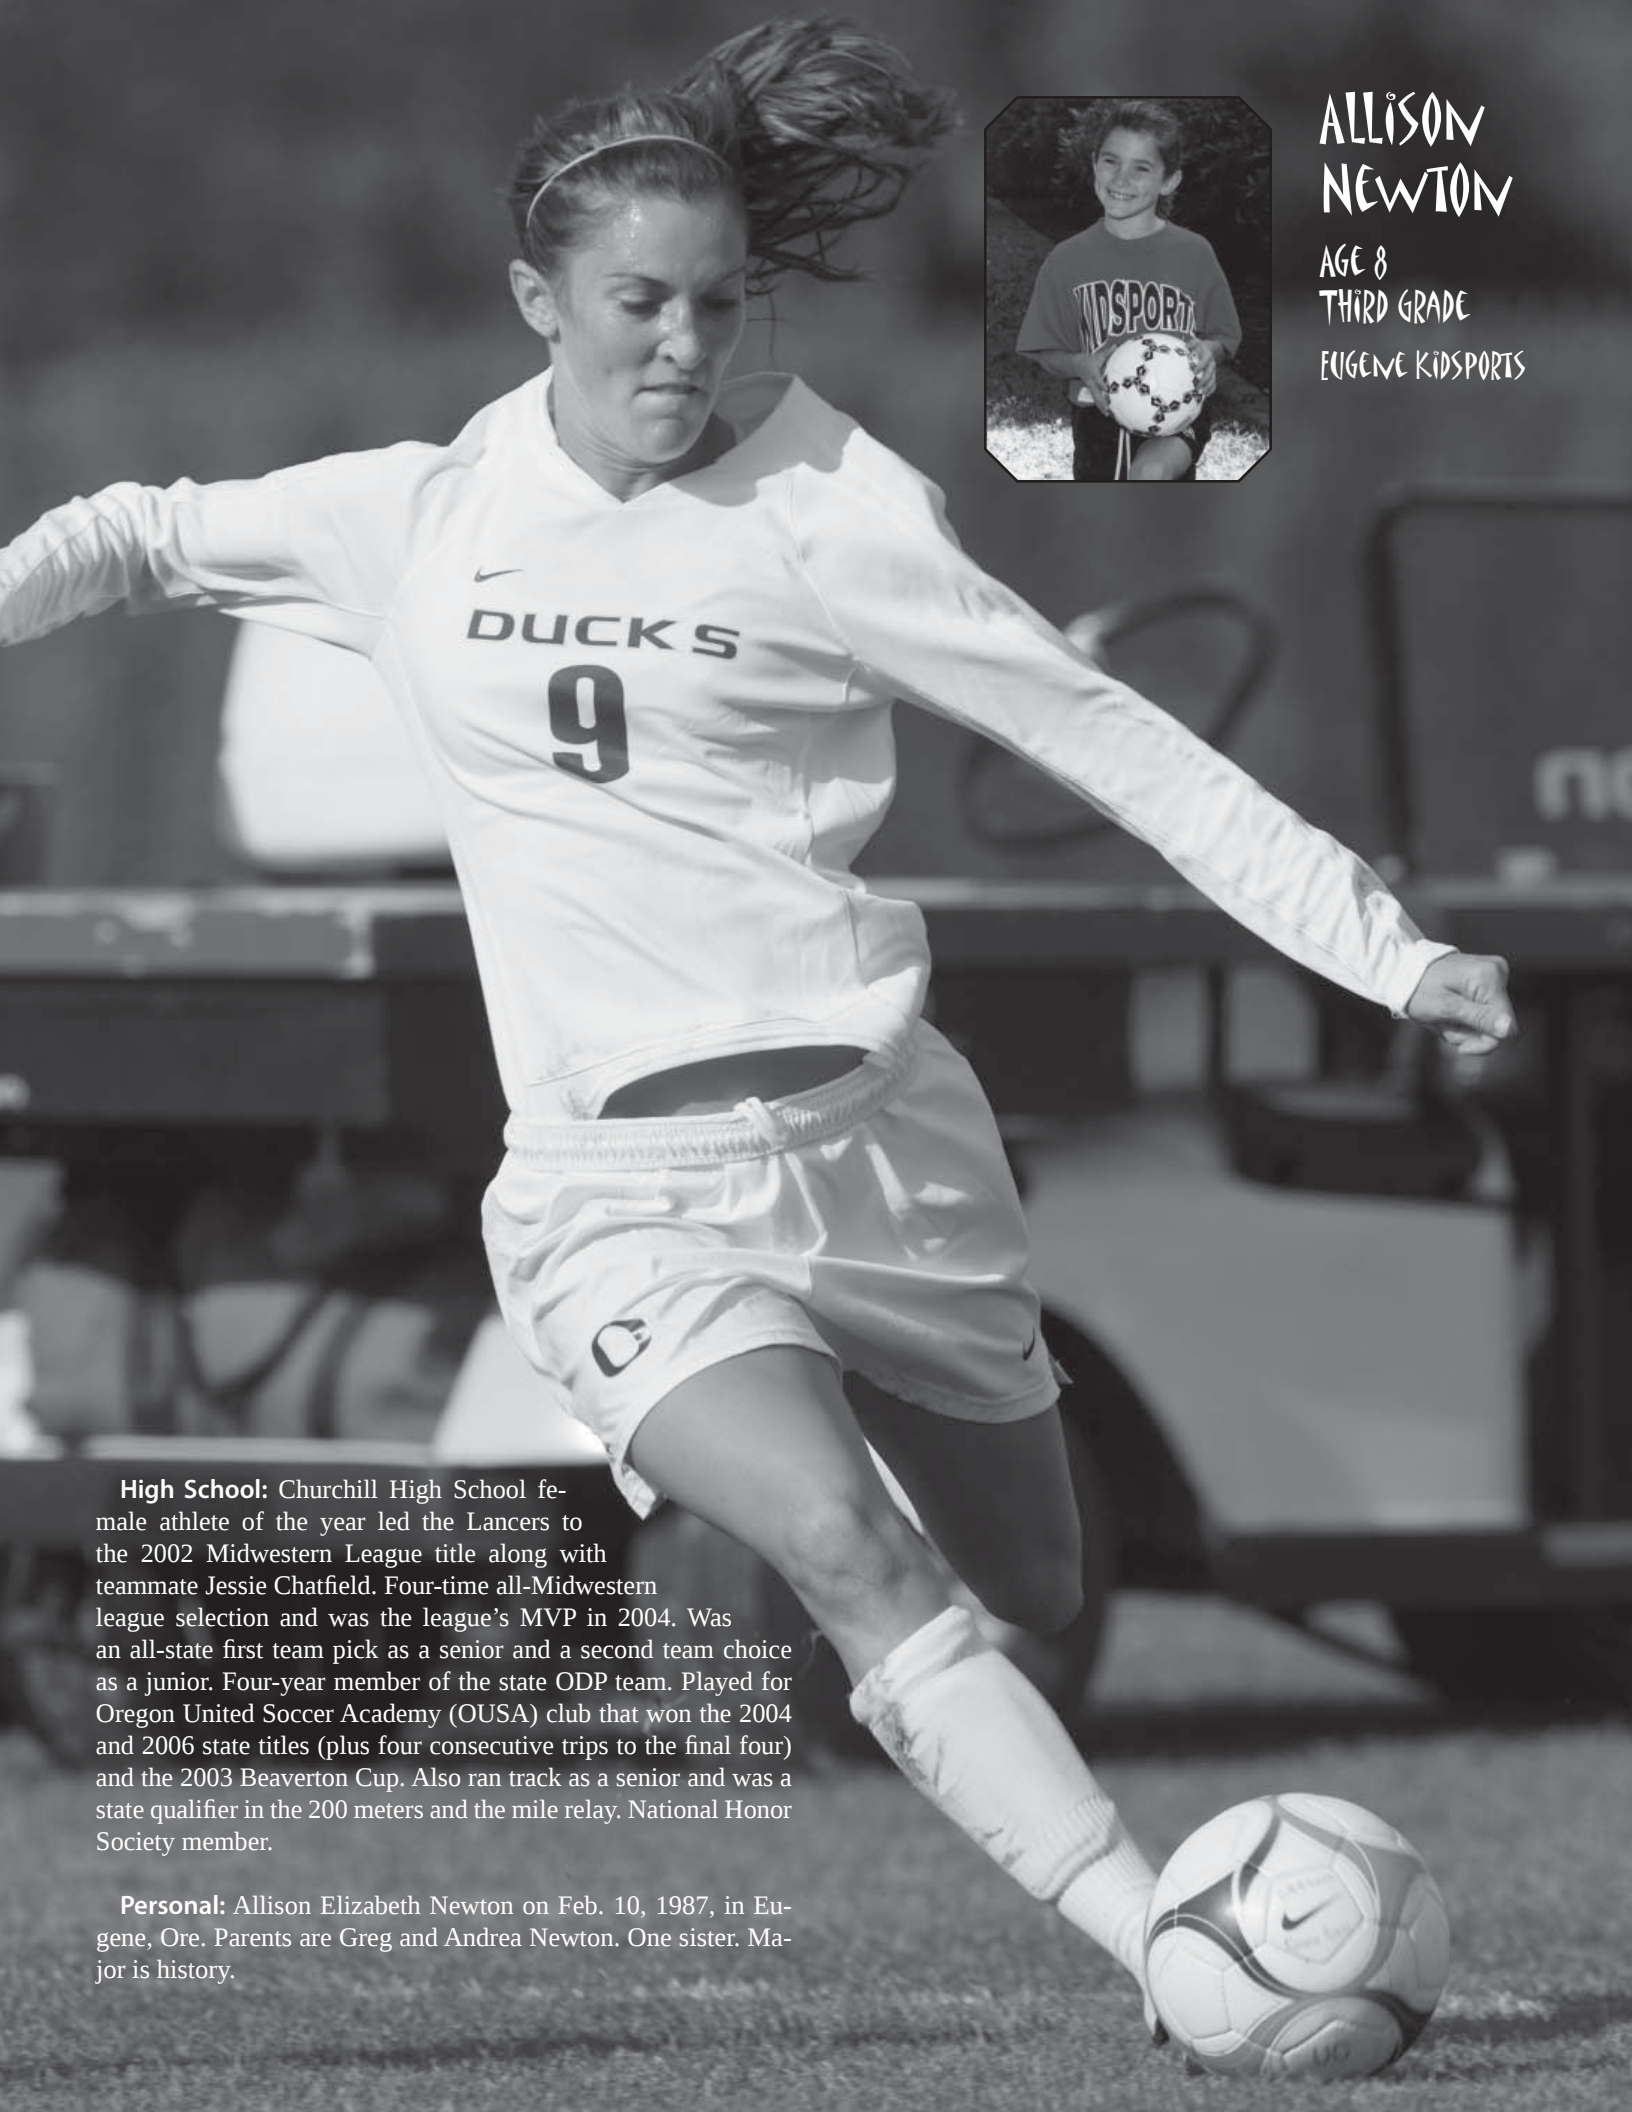

2005: One of two true freshmen from Churchill High School to start all 19 games for the Ducks (goalkeeper Jessie Chatfield was the other). Showed off offensive ability with a pair of assists on the season. Assisted on Caitlin Gamble's late score versus South Dakota State. Also had an assist on an Andrea Valadez goal versus Nevada. Attempted nine shots. Key member of a defense that recorded a school season-record seven shutouts. Also helped Oregon record three shutouts in a row in September and garner a school-record scoreless streak that reached 355:47.
