Pac-10 Year in Review

Four Pac-10 teams competed in the 2006 NCAA Championship, with Conference champion UCLA advancing to the College Cup for the fourth consecutive season, its fifth trip to the College Cup in the 14-year history of the program. Seeded as the No. 2 team in the region, UCLA captured its seventh Pac-10 women's soccer title with an 8-1-0 record in league play, 21-4-0 overall.

UCLA came just one win shy (21) of tying its own Conference record, as the 2005 Bruin squad set the Pac-10 bar for wins in a season (22), besting the 2002 Stanford team that put together 21 wins.

California, Stanford and USC also received bids to the NCAA Tournament. All four Pac-10 teams made it out of the first round as the Cardinal advanced to the third round where they dropped a 0-0 game to Clemson on penalty kicks (4-2).

The Golden Bears advanced to the second round following their 3-1 defeat of Auburn to open Tournament play. The three goals scored were the most the Bears have tallied in an NCAA Tournament game since a 3-0 triumph over UC Santa Barbara in the quarterfinals in 1987.

USC upset top-seeded Santa Clara in the first round, only to go up against Conference-foe Stanford in the second round, losing 2-0 to the Cardinal.

The Pac-10 posted a 73-35-10 (.661) record against Division I non-conference opponents this season, including post-season competition.

Oregon couldn't have had a better end to the regular season as it posted a 2-1 overtime upset of No. 3 UCLA, followed by a 3-1 win over USC. The Ducks finished in second place in the Pac-10 with a 6-1-2 record, 12-6-2 overall, narrowly missing the NCAA Tournament, their first such legitimate consideration.

Senior forward Nicole Garbin recorded six points on the season-ending weekend, breaking her own single-season records for goals (12), game-winning goals (8), points (25) and shots (84). She scored the game-winning goal in each of Oregon's six Pac-10 victories in 2006.

Garbin was honored as the 2006 Pac-10 Player of the Year award, while head coach Tara Erickson was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year by her fellow comrades.
