

of the night as he defeated Bryce Cooper, 7-6 (3), 7-6 (5).

Francisco Gallardo was the only other Duck to be tested, rallying from a second set loss to win the super tie-breaker, 1-8 and take the match 6-2, 4-6 (8)

Freshman transfer Ric Motera once again led the charge for the Ducks, finishing off Roman Dojczak in easy fashion, 6-0, 6-2. The Portland, Oregon native once again dazzled in expedient fashion, completing his match in under an hour.

Mike Myrhed, one of two returners in the singles lineup on the evening, picked off the next member of the Bulldogs in convincing fashion as well, dispensing with Marco Antonio Pineda, 6-1, 6-2.

The other experienced Duck, Eric Pickard, was the next off the court, defeating Zach Radetzky, 6-0, 6-4.

Belgian newcomer Alexander Cornelissen rolled along comfortably as well, beating Brett Womack 6-0, 6-2.

The Ducks also swept the doubles point as Gallardo and Myrhed won the most tightly contested match against Adams and Pineda in a tiebreak, 8-7 (4).

Linfield Recap: The University of Oregon men's tennis team swept Linfield 7-0 in a lopsided win for the Ducks as in only two matches did the Wildcats move into crooked numbers as they totaled only 15 total game wins on the day.

With lots of zeros and ones on the scoreboard for the Wildcats it was easy to see that the Ducks controlled the pace of the match throughout, with three of Oregon's starting six ending their matches in under 45 minutes.

Ric Mortera was the first Duck to get on the scoreboard in singles, dispatching Cole Shelton, 6-1, 6-0, but Alexander Cornelissen was quick to follow with a 6-0, 6-1 victory of his own over Ian McGrath.

Not to be outdone by the freshmen newcomers, senior Eric Pickard finished off his opponent less than a minute after Cornelissen dispatched his. The Portland, Ore. native defeated Luke Rembold 6-1, 6-0.

Freshman Geoff Embry was the last Duck off the court, but he also picked up the 6-1, 6-0 victory.

The only Ducks to allow their opponents to win more than one game were Francisco Gallardo and Mikeal Myrhed, but they both won as convincingly as their peers, with Myrhed picking up the 6-3, 6-1 victory over Nick Ruess and Gallardo defeating Wesley Gabrielsen 6-1, 6-2.

The Ducks also picked up the doubles point as Mortera and Stephen Wiechert led the way with an 8-0 win over Jed Rembold and Tal Edman.
