GRU Augusta Senior Alex Wennstam Advances To NCAA Regional

Lone Jaguar senior earns berth as an alternate to compete as an individual

AUGUSTA, Ga. – GRU Augusta men’s golf senior Alex Wennstam has earned a berth as an alternate to compete as an individual in the 2014 NCAA Division I Men’s Golf regional at Eugene Country Club in Eugene, Ore., May 15-17.

Six 54-hole regional tournaments will be conducted from May 15-17. Thirteen teams and ten individuals not on those teams will compete at each of three regionals while the other three regionals will have 14 teams and five individuals not on those teams.

The low five teams and the low individual not on those teams from each regional will advance to the finals. The finals will be conducted May 23-28 at Prairie Dunes Country Club in Hutchinson, Kansas. Wichita State University is the host institution for the 2014 championships.

Wennstam played in 10 tournaments in the 2013-14 season with a 73.76 scoring average. He shot par or better 12 times, while posting three rounds in the 60s with a 66 being his low round for the year. Wennstam posted five top-25 finishes as a Jaguar this year – highlighted by his eighth-place spot at the Hootie at Bulls Bay Intercollegiate. On May 4th, Wennstam received the Most Valuable Player award for the men’s golf team.

Alabama won the 2013 NCAA Division I Men’s Golf Championship. The Crimson Tide defeated Illinois, 4-1 in the final round of match play competition in 2013. Max Homa of California was the individual medalist. Homa posted a 9-under par 201 in three rounds of stroke play to win by three shots against a group of six players who were tied for second. He was California’s first individual champion. The tournament was held at The Capital City Club, Crabapple Course in Atlanta, Georgia, with Georgia Tech serving as the host.
