Opened in September 2000, the Student Tennis Center at the University of Oregon was a tremendous step forward in solidifying the presence of Duck Tennis as a major component of the university's athletic culture.

The $2.1 million facility hosts both the men's and women's varsity tennis programs, as well as club tennis, physical education classes and student recreation. The project was the result of a combined effort fundraising effort from Physical Activities and Recreation Services (PARS) Department, the Athletics Department and the efforts of former Oregon men's tennis coach Chris Russell and former women's coach Jack Griffin.

The entire facility received a new playing surface and improved lighting prior to the 2008-2009 season.

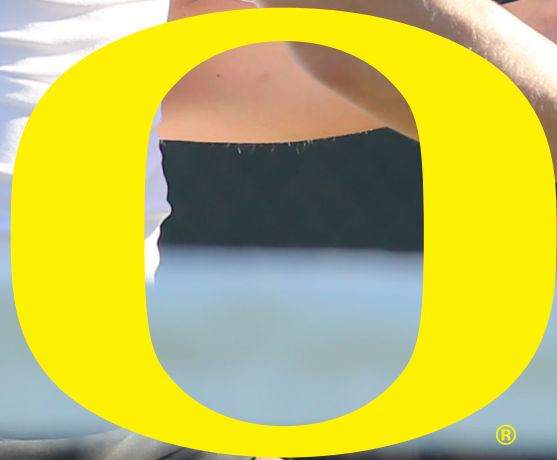

On Nov. 9, 2013, the indoor center court on the north side of the Student Tennis Center was annointed the Alex Rovello Court in honor of former men's tennis player Alex Rovello. Rovello passed away following his junior season in a diving accident.

"It is very important to honor the legacy of Alex Rovello and to make sure that it lives on," said head men's tennis coach Nils Schyllander. Rovello posted a career 60 wins in singles play and notched 53 doubles victories in three season at UO.

The women of Oregon went 11-5 last year in 2013, the most wins at home since the Ducks went 9-2 during the 2008-09 campaign. In 2011-12, the Ducks won seven out of their final eight home matches, including a pair of Pac-12 wins over 43rd-ranked Utah, 4-3, April 6, 2012 and Colorado, 7-0, on April 7, 2012.

The Ducks are 96-52 in matches played at the Oregon Student Tennis Center since its inaugural season (2000-01). In 2009, Oregon put together a 9-2 home season. In 2004, the Oregon women's squad were 8-2 at home. That same year, the Ducks defeated New Mexico in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to advance to the second round before falling to conference-rival Washington, 4-3, to end the season.

HISTORY

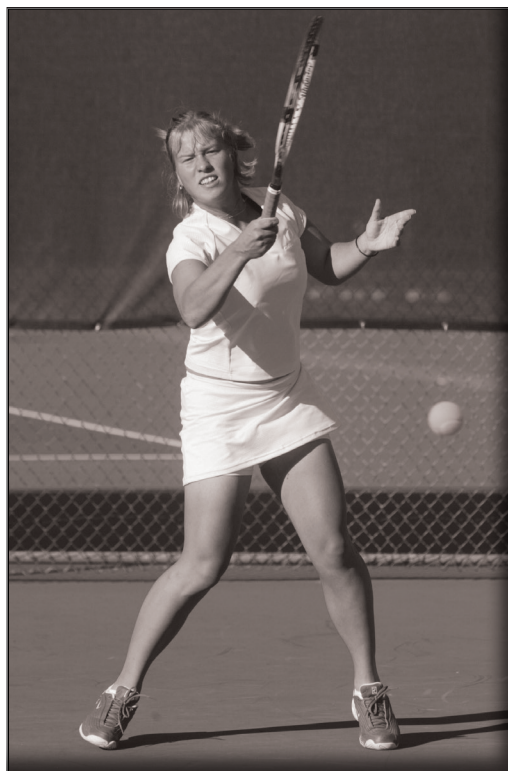

Daria Panova

2003 All-American (Singles, Doubles)

2004 All-American (Singles)

Daria Panova is Oregon's all-time career leader in singles victories, posting a 94-50 (.653) record from 2001-05. She was a member of two Oregon NCAA Tournament teams (2002, 2004) and helped the Ducks advance to the second round in both of those years. Panova set the school's single-season record for most singles wins in 2003, going 32-15 (.680). As a junior in 2004, she matched her 2003 mark, finishing the season 32-14 (.695). Panova also went 18-12 with doubles partner Courtney Nagle in 2003. Panova and Nagle's 32-25 doubles mark between 2002-04 ranks third in school history.

Panova was the 2003 Pac-10 Tournament Individual Champion and advanced to the third round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament in singles play and to the quarterfinals in doubles (with Nagle). She was a first team All-Pac-10 selection and earned All-American honors as both a singles and doubles player in 2003. Panova garnered first team All-Pac-10 honors and All-American accolades in singles during the 2004 season but was defeated in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. As a senior in 2005, Panova was named second team All-Pac-10 and went 23-12 with doubles partner Dominika Dieskova, which ranks second in Oregon tennis history.

Courtney Nagle

2003 All-American (Doubles)

Courtney Nagle won 65 singles matches from 2000-04 and ranks fourth all-time in career singles victories. She won 32 doubles matches with fellow All-American Daria Panova from 2002-04, which ranks third all-time in Oregon history. Her 18-12 mark with Panova in 2003 ranks ninth in school history.

Nagle helped the University of Oregon to two of its three alltime NCAA Tournament team victories as a sophomore in 2002 and senior in 2004. Individually, Nagle advanced to the first round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament and teamed with Panova to advance to the quarterfinals in doubles play the same year. She earned All-American accolades in doubles for her efforts during the 2003 NCAA Tournament.

Nagle won the University of Oregon's "Most Improved Player" award after her freshman and junior seasons in 2001 and 2003, respectively.

Rob Mullens
Director of Athletics
Sixth year
West Virginia University, 1991,
'93

Rob Mullens has presided over one of the most successful eras in the University of Oregon's history with Duck student-athletes setting milestone records both on the field and in the classroom. He has guided

Oregon to its best finish ever in the Directors' Cup, a national assessment of an athletic department's overall achievements. At the same time, Mullens has improved the Ducks' academic standards to where the University now averages more than 100 academic all-conference selections annually.

And just as important as the athletic and academic success, Oregon's philosophy of fiscal efficiency during Mullens' tenure has been recognized nationwide. The University is one of only a handful of institutions across the country that is self-sufficient as the Oregon brand continues to grow.

Those three pillars – student-athlete experience, academic excellence and broad-based competitive excellence – comprise the foundation of Mullens' core beliefs as he oversees nearly 500 student-athletes and a budget of close to $98 million. Yet Mullens himself would tell you that it is the talented student-athletes, coaches and staff at the University of Oregon that are the department's most valuable assets.

Mullens was named the University's 12th director of intercollegiate athletics on July 15, 2010, after arriving from the University of Kentucky, where he served as deputy director of athletics and managed day-to-day operations for Kentucky's 22-sport athletics department, with an annual operating budget of $79 million.

Since Mullens' arrival in Eugene, the Duck football team has claimed three conference championships in five seasons and played in the inaugural College Football Playoff Championship Game. The 2015 season saw the coronation of the University's first-ever Heisman Trophy winner, Marcus Mariota, as the Ducks won the Pac-12 title and then defeated undefeated Florida State in the Rose Bowl semifinal game.

Spurred by national championships in men's indoor and outdoor track and field, and women's indoor track and field, as well as top 10 national finishes by softball, football, men's and women's cross country and women's indoor track and field, the Ducks placed 13th in the 2014-15 Directors' Cup final standings, an all-time high for Oregon.

In the history of the Directors' Cup, Oregon is the only program with 18 or fewer NCAA sports to place among the top 15 nationally, a feat the Ducks have done four times. Oregon also ranked among the top 25 for a sixth time in seven years. Ten of the University's 27 all-time national championships have been won in the last five years.

Off the field, Mullens saw three-quarters of UO student-athletes earn degrees, and three garner Capitol One Academic All-America awards. All told, more than 100 student-athletes won academic all-conference awards. Since the opening of the John E. Jaqua Academic Center for Student Athletes in 2010, 29 UO student-athletes have earned Academic All-America honors.

Other highlights of Mullens' tenure include three Women's College World Series appearances for the softball team, a trip to the NCAA championship game in volleyball, three consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament for men's basketball and a combined total of 10 national championships won by the Duck track and field and cross country squads.

Mullens arrived in Eugene as the Ducks opened their spectacular Matthew Knight Arena, which plays host to the school's men's and women's basketball teams, women's volleyball and acrobatics and tumbling, in addition to benefitting the entire Eugene-Springfield communities as a state-of-the-art venue for concerts, cultural forums and world-class entertainment. Other recent facilities include the Jaqua Center, the Hatfield-Dowling Football Complex and Pape' Field. In 2016, the softball team will open the brand new Jane Sanders Stadium.

Mullens' background is in accounting and auditing, and he promoted sound fiscal management and self-sufficiency at the University of Kentucky. During his total of eight years at Kentucky, the athletic department's operating budget expanded by nearly 70 percent. Fundraising for the department hit record levels each of the past seven years prior to his departure.

Prior to being named deputy director of athletics at Kentucky in 2006, Mullens began as the university's executive associate director of athletics in 2002. He served at the University of Maryland from 1996 to 2002, starting as assistant director of athletics for business and ultimately as executive senior associate director of athletics and chief of staff.

The West Virginia native was senior athletics business manager at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1994 to 1996, and prior to that he was an accountant/auditor at Ernst & Young in Raleigh, N.C.

The 46-year-old Mullens earned a bachelor's degree in business
