MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Mark Helfrich will be available to all media via a weekly press conference every Tuesday beginning at 11:30 a.m. (PT). Participants may take part in the media availability in person at a site to be determined. To gather more information on the availability or notify the Office of Athletic Communications of your intent to take part, please call (541) 346-5488.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interview requests for players and coaches must be submitted by 5 p.m. PT the day prior and must go through the Athletic Communications Office. Interviews will take place during a 15-minute window at the conclusion of each practice. No player interviews will be granted on the day before a game.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for press box and photo credentials for all games at Autzen Stadium must be made as far in advance as possible to the Director of Football Communications. E-mail requests must be submitted to diw@uoregon.edu. When time permits, credentials will be mailed. Otherwise, credentials will be left at Will Call, located at the ticket booth near the South Gate. Defined priority for receiving credentials will be as follows: (1) Representatives of outlets requiring daily deadlines, commercial television stations, OSN affiliate radio stations, nationally circulated publications and outlets who regularly cover the visiting team; (2) Area weekly and periodical publications, radio stations not affiliated with the OSN and additional campus outlets. Outlets that regularly cover the Ducks will receive a higher priority. Visiting representatives also are encouraged to inform their local SID of pending coverage.

PARKING

A limited number of parking passes will be made available through the Oregon Athletic Communications Office. Access to parking (Lots 8 and 9) may be obtained via Leo Harris Parkway directly south of the stadium press box.

TELEPHONES & INTERNET

Oregon will have telephones in the press box for use with third-party, collect or credit card calls only. Access instructions for wireless internet can be obtained outside the Athletic Communications workroom.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must check out a photo vest prior to kickoff at the Athletic Communications workroom in the press box. Credentialed personnel working the sidelines must obey the NCAA rules pertaining to sideline boundaries. Photographers are to be no closer than six feet to the playing field and must be outside the 25-yard lines at each end of the field. Photographers are not allowed inside the team boxes. Passes and vests must be worn in an easily visible manner by all photographers in all weather conditions. A work area to send digital photos is located underneath the stands in the east end zone.

LOCKER ROOMS

Oregon's locker room is located in the Hatfield-Dowlin Complex west of the Casanova Center. The visitor's locker room is located at the east end of Autzen Stadium. The home locker room is closed following the game, but Oregon's postgame interviews are conducted in the Media Center on the third floor of the Football Operations Center. For the visiting team's postgame interview policy, contact the visiting team's SID.

OREGON SPORTS NETWORK

The Oregon Sports Network, now under the oversight of Oregon IMG Sports Marketing, begins its 28th season of operation within the athletics department, continuing to broadcast all Oregon football, men's and women's basketball contests and coaches shows exclusively along its state-wide affiliate network.

Veteran Oregon sportscaster Jerry Allen, now in his 28th year as the Ducks' popular radio play-by-play voice, is joined by former UO quarterback Mike Jorgensen for his 25th season.

The cornerstones of the Oregon Sports Network are Cumulus Broadcasting (KUGN, 590-AM) in Eugene/Springfield and Alpha Broadcasting (750 The Game [AM]) in Portland. KUGN has been the Eugene broadcast partner for the last 20 years, while KXL has been part of the network since its inception.

PAC-12 NETWORKS

Select Oregon football games will be televised live on Pac-12 Networks, including home games vs. Eastern Washington (Sept. 5) and Georgia State (Sept. 19). The conference's full-time linear television networks is in its third year of operation.

2015 OREGON SEASON PREVIEW

College football provides scant time for celebrating laurels, and no time at all for resting on them.

The 2014 Oregon football team might have collected a Pac-12 championship, Rose Bowl title and the first Heisman Trophy in school history, won by quarterback Marcus Mariota. But the next challenge is constantly looming on the horizon, and an intriguing 2015 season is about to dawn.

With Mariota off to the NFL but very few holes elsewhere on the roster, the Ducks enter this fall with a new identity but the same goals as always – contend for championships. “It’s a new day in Oregon football,” offensive coordinator Scott Frost said.

OFFENSE

With the quarterback position in flux, Frost can at least be comforted by the amount of talent Oregon can field everywhere else on offense. The Ducks return three of their four leading rushers from last season, all four of their most productive receivers and potentially five offensive linemen with significant starting experience.

Remarkably, a year after Mariota won the first Heisman Trophy in school history, sophomore Royce Freeman could be the Ducks’ second legitimate candidate in as many years. He ran for a team-high 1,365 yards and 18 touchdowns as a true freshman.

Freeman’s emergence allowed the Ducks to shift Byron Marshall to receiver for 2014, accounting for the loss of Bralon Addison to a knee injury last spring.

Marshall responded by piling up 1,003 receiving yards. Coupled with his 1,038 rushing yards from 2013, he returns as the only player in conference history to ever reach those numbers in both categories.

He returns to lead a receiving corps that also includes the likes of Dwayne Stanford, Charles Nelson, Devon Allen and Darren Carrington, along with a healthy Addison.

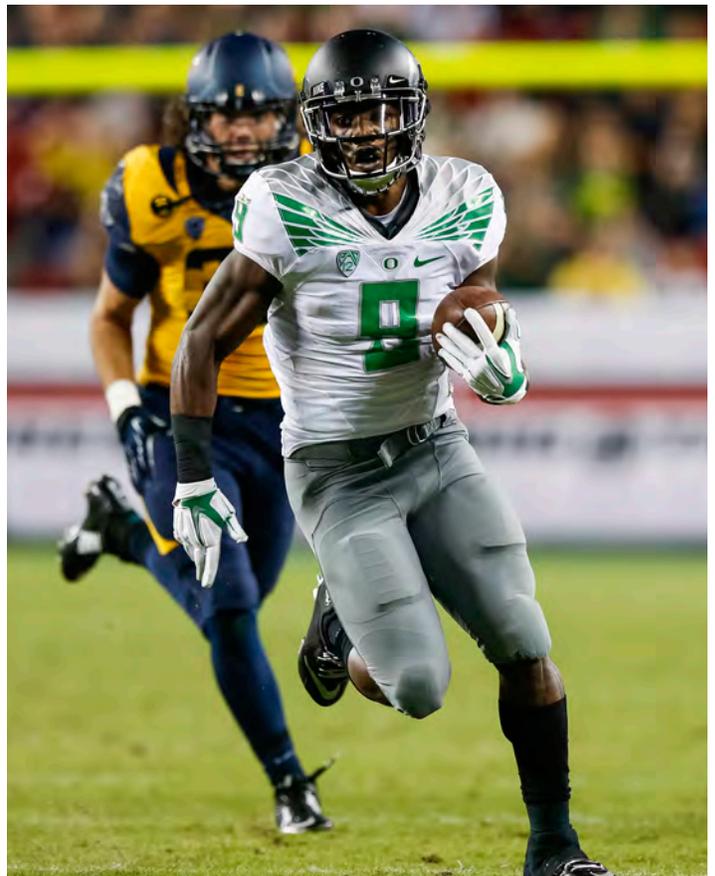

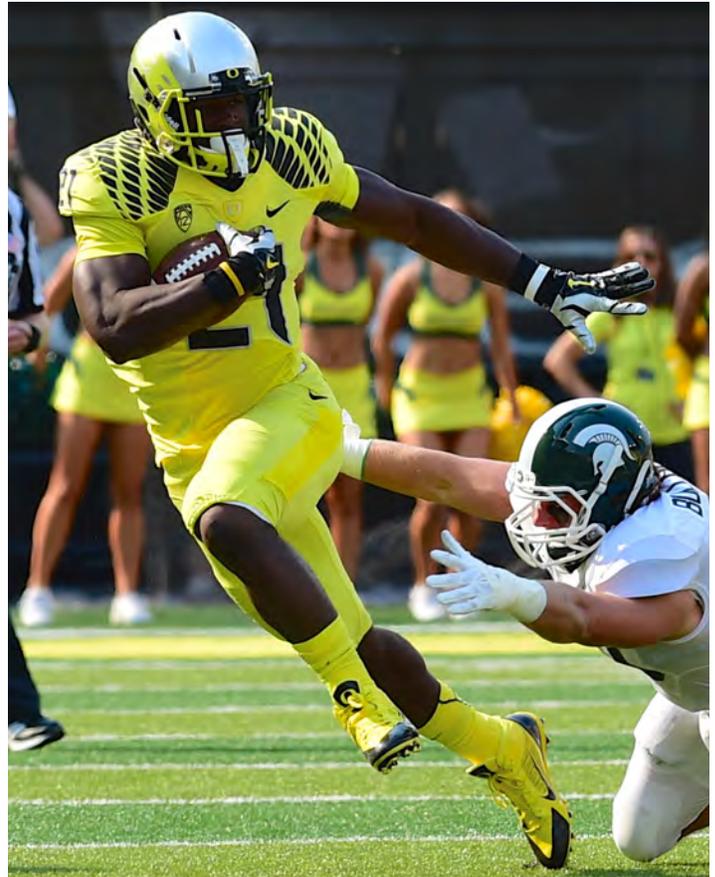

At tight end, the short-term future for Pharaoh Brown remains uncertain due to the devastating knee injury he suffered last season at Utah.

But Evan Baylis has been quietly productive when called upon, catching 11 balls for 98 yards in the Rose Bowl and College Football Playoff National Championship game. And Johnny Mundt will look to put together a consistent season after teasing fans with his talents the past two years.

The offensive line lost two NFL draft picks, in center Hroniss Grasu and left tackle Jake Fisher. But the Ducks are in the enviable position of having experienced veterans to replace them, with Tyler Johnstone back from injury at tackle and transfer Matt Hegarty set to take over at center. Guard Cameron Hunt, tackle Tyrell Crosby and the versatile Matt Pierson also are on hand, giving the Ducks more experience up front than a team should rightfully expect to field after losing the likes of Fisher and Grasu.

Thus new starting quarterback Vernon Adams will be taking the wheel of a well-oiled machine in 2015, simply looking to keep it on track. Adams, a two-time runner-up for the Walter Payton Award - the FCS version of the Heisman - at Eastern Washington, has a capable backup in junior Jeff Lockie, who pushed hard for the starting spot throughout the offseason.

Lockie played sparingly behind Mariota the last two years, but knows the offense inside and out and exploded for 223 yards and three touchdowns on just nine attempts in the spring game, all completions.

DEFENSE

Recent tradition has seen the UO defense rely on a heavy rotation of players on the defensive line. The Ducks broke from that in 2014, leaning largely on DeForest Buckner, Alex Balducci and Arik Armstead, but 2015 could feature a return to form. Armstead passed up his senior season to enter the NFL draft, creating one opening in the starting lineup, and the Ducks feature several talented young players whose abilities could encourage coaches to expand the rotation.

For starters, Henry Mondeaux, Austin Maloata and Tui Talia all flashed potential as newcomers to the team in 2014. And the Ducks added more talent in 2015 freshmen Canton Kaumatule, Rex Manu and Gary Baker. That trio averages over 300 pounds, providing size to complement Oregon's athleticism elsewhere on defense.

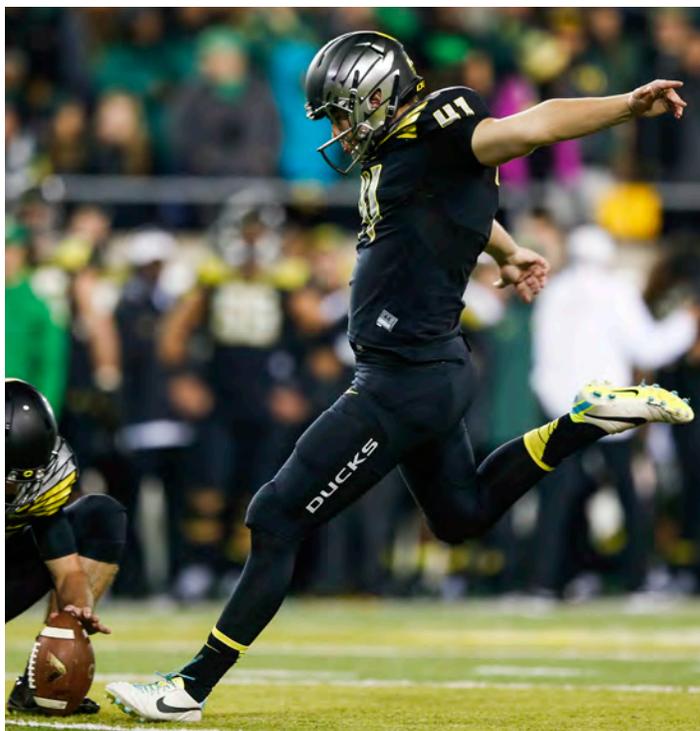

At linebacker, it's a similar story: Experienced projected starters, backed up by talented young up-and-comers. Senior inside linebackers Rodney Hardrick and Joe Walker could be bracketed by fellow seniors Tyson Coleman and Christian French on the outside. With the likes of Torrodney Prevot, Johnny Ragin III, Danny Mattingly and Jimmie Swain also on hand, linebacker sets up as another position where coordinator Don Pellum will be able to substitute liberally.

The biggest question mark defensively is at cornerback. Ifo Ekpre-Olomu and Troy Hill both must be replaced, and there's scant experience on the roster. An exception is sophomore Chris Seisay, who stepped in for Ekpre-Olomu in the 2014 postseason and performed capably. He'll try to provide a veteran presence for a cast of new faces that includes sophomore Arrion Springs, freshman Ugo Amadi and sophomore Ty Griffin, a converted quarterback who possesses elite speed.

The young corners will have a solid safety net, at least. Junior Reggie Daniels was a steady, underrated presence in 2014, finishing third on the team with 83 tackles as a 15-game starter, and looms as the program's top returning tackler. The Ducks lost playmaker and leading tackler Erick Dargan, but sophomore Tyree Robinson is another big-play safety who will try to provide a level of consistency as well in replacing Dargan.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Among the unlikeliest of contributors last season was Aidan Schneider, a walk-on from Portland who took up football late in his youth, then won the Ducks' placekicking job as a true freshman. He made 11-of-12 field goals in 2014, and will try to hold off Matt Wogan for the job again in 2015. Punter Ian Wheeler was another walk-on thrust into a big role on special teams as a freshman, and likewise wants to progress as a sophomore. In the return game, the likes of Nelson, Addison, Allen and Marshall give coordinator Tom Osborne a host of options.

Game 1 - Aug. 30

#3 OREGON 62

Eugene, Ore. (57,388)
Autzen Stadium
67 degrees, partly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon's 2014 regular season got off to a rousing start with a 62-13 win over visiting South Dakota before 57,388 fans in Autzen Stadium.

Stadium.

How it Happened: The Ducks had little trouble scoring, piling up 466 first-half yards on the way to a 41-13 halftime lead. UO coach Mark Helfrich's ire was drawn when a careless play took points off the board, along with five early penalties and some porous run defense. But Oregon was able to work nearly every available player onto the field, valuable experience for a team that brought 40 newcomers into preseason camp.

Who Stood Out: Quarterback Marcus Mariota took advantage of an array of new offensive weapons, including the Pac-12's top returning rusher Byron Marshall in a new all-purpose role and freshman running back Royce Freeman. Mariota played the first half and finished 14-of-20 passing for 267 yards and three touchdowns, adding six rushes for 43 yards and a score. Marshall caught six of those passes for 117 yards and two touchdowns in the first half, and rushed twice for 58 yards, though he also cost the Ducks six points by dropping the ball just short of the goal line at the end of a long run. Freeman had touchdowns on two of his first three carries, backing up the considerable hype he generated in preseason camp.

What it Means: The Ducks certainly looked like a top-five team in the nation when they had the ball, with Thomas Tyner getting the bulk of the carries and Mariota spreading it around to the likes of Marshall and Darren Carrington. South Dakota's 20 first-half rushes for 120 yards were troubling, especially with mighty Michigan State coming to town next, but some of that was against backup Duck defenders, making it tough to completely assess how things will look under new coordinator Don Pellum.

Odds and Ends: Ten true freshmen saw the field, a number that the Ducks haven't exceeded in any of the last four full seasons. The ten were long snapper Tanner Carew, kicker Aidan Schneider, offensive lineman Tyrell Crosby, receiver Charles Nelson, defensive linemen Austin Maloata and Henry Mondeaux, linebackers Justin Hollins and Jimmie Swain, cornerback Arrion Springs and Freeman. Nelson returned a third-quarter punt for a touchdown. ... At positions where the Ducks hadn't previously announced starters, the first reps went to Dwayne Stanford at receiver, Pharaoh Brown at tight end, Jake Pisarcik at right guard, Reggie Daniels at safety and Thomas Tyner at running back ... Mariota set UO career records for total touchdowns (82) and passing touchdowns (66), tying Darron Thomas in the latter category.

Game 2 - Sept. 6

#7 MICHIGAN STATE 27
#3 OREGON 46

Eugene, Ore. (59,456)
Autzen Stadium
91 degrees, overcast

EUGENE, Ore. — The first non-conference matchup of top-10 teams in Autzen Stadium history lived up to every bit of the hype, as No. 3 Oregon jumped out to a lead, withstood a furious comeback by No. 7 Michigan State and recovered to win 46-27.

How it Happened: The Spartans all but shut down Oregon's vaunted run game, survived a couple big plays by the Ducks early on and then got the momentum going squarely in their favor. The Ducks used an Erick Dargan interception to set up the game's first touchdown, and a 70-yard touchdown pass to Devon Allen made it 18-7. But the Spartans then scored the game's next 20 points to build a 27-18 lead. The Ducks then flipped the switch on both sides of the ball, shutting down MSU's offense and getting third-quarter touchdown passes from Marcus Mariota to Allen again and then Keanon Lowe for a 32-27 lead. A Royce Freeman touchdown run made it 39-27 early in the fourth quarter. The big freshman capped the Oregon effort with a 14-yard score on a fourth-and-two carry, completing a crushing 11-play, 96-yard drive that ticked off 6:31 of the final 7:56.

Who Stood Out: Mariota finished the day 17-of-28 for 318 yards and three touchdowns through the air. He also had two huge third-down conversions in the third quarter, one on each UO scoring drive. He flipped a shovel pass on the run to Freeman to convert a third-and-11, and ran it himself on third-and-nine. Defensively, linebacker Joe Walker entered the starting lineup and finished the game with nine tackles. Defensive lineman DeForest Buckner followed up his six-tackle performance against South Dakota in the opener with seven on Saturday. MSU quarterback Connor Cook was outstanding as well, passing for 343 yards and two scores.

What it Means: The Ducks now figure to be a favorite to make the inaugural College Football Playoff, though the entire Pac-12 schedule looms. One of the Ducks' chief rivals for the Pac-12 North title, Stanford, dropped its conference opener to USC on Saturday.

Odds and ends: Mariota passed Bill Musgrave to become Oregon's career leader in total offense in the first quarter, and threw his school-record 67th career touchdown pass in the second quarter. ... Cameron Hunt returned to the starting lineup at right guard. ... True freshman Tyrell Crosby played nearly the entire second half at right tackle after Andre Yrurettagoyena was carted off.

Game 3 - Sept. 13

WYOMING 14
#2 OREGON 48

Eugene, Ore. (56,533)
Autzen Stadium
66 degrees, mostly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — The second-ranked Oregon Ducks shook off a sluggish start to overcome an early deficit and wrap up nonconference play unbeaten after a 48-14 victory over Wyoming in Autzen Stadium.

How it Happened: A Pac-12 Networks telecast necessitated an 11 a.m. PT kickoff time, and for a spell it seemed like Oregon had decided to sleep in. The Cowboys converted 5-of-6 third-down attempts on their first two possessions, sandwiched around the Ducks failing to score from their own 2-yard line. That helped Wyoming take an early 7-0 lead, but order soon was restored and the Ducks scored the next 41 points unanswered.

Who Stood Out: Marcus Mariota threw for two touchdowns and ran for two others, including a leaping, somersaulting effort in the second quarter to put the Ducks ahead 20-7. He was on the move several times throughout the game, as the offensive line adjusted to the early loss of left tackle Jake Fisher due to injury. That put walk-on junior Matt Pierson in at left tackle, on a day when true freshman Tyrell Crosby made his first career start at right tackle. Defensively, safety Erick Dargan had two more interceptions, the first of which set up Mariota's acrobatic touchdown.

What it Means: The Ducks (3-0) remained unbeaten through non-conference play, knocking off South Dakota, Michigan State and Wyoming. The red flag entering the Pac-12 gantlet will be depth at offensive tackle, as the Ducks were without Fisher, Tyler Johnstone, Andre Yruretagoyena and Elijah George due to leg injuries as of Saturday.

Odds and ends: Mariota threw a touchdown pass for the 29th straight game, every appearance of his career. ... Redshirt freshman Chris Seisay made his first career start. Senior Troy Hill suited up but did not appear, after playing through a knee issue last week against the Spartans. ... The crowd of 56,533 gave Oregon its 99th consecutive sellout.

Game 4 - Sept. 20

#2 OREGON 38
WASHINGTON STATE 31

Pullman, Wash. (32,952)
Martin Stadium
78 degrees, clear

PULLMAN, Wash. — Oregon survived behind a patchwork offensive line thanks to another big night from Marcus Mariota, outscoring Washington State in the second half to win 38-31 in Martin Stadium.

How it Happened: Mariota was sacked five times in the first half as the Cougars fought to a 21-21 halftime tie. The Ducks shored things up just enough in the second half, getting a go-ahead touchdown pass to Pharaoh Brown late in the third quarter from Mariota, his fourth of five in the game. A pass breakup by Dior Mathis and sack on fourth down by Tony Washington denied Washington State on its final attempt to tie the game in the fourth quarter.

Who Stood Out: Mariota finished 21-of-25 passing for 329 yards and the five touchdowns, shrugging off the pressure put on Oregon's inexperienced offensive line. Left tackle Tyrell Crosby and right tackle Matt Pierson each made his first career start at those respective positions, and the Ducks struggled with protection and penalties all night. The tide shifted when DeForest Buckner forced a fumble and Arik Armstead recovered it in the third quarter, setting the stage for Brown's go-ahead touchdown. Keanon Lowe had a career-high 104 receiving yards and two touchdowns - the first coming on a 57-yard reception to tie the game at 14-14 and the second proving to be the game-winning score with 5:33 to play in the final quarter.

What it Means: The second-ranked Ducks survived their first conference road trip with a victory, and now have a bye week in which to try and get healthier and shore up the offensive line. Oregon improved to 4-0 and is now 1-0 in Pac-12 play.

Odds and ends: Devon Allen scored two touchdowns, giving him five for the season, tied for the UO lead this season with Royce Freeman. ... Freeman started the game, becoming Oregon's second true freshman starter at running back in as many seasons, joining Thomas Tyner, who started the final regular season game in 2013. Prior to Tyner, the last UO true frosh to start at running back was Derek Loville in 1986. ... Mariota had never been sacked more than three times in a single game. ... Mariota has now suffered 12 sacks in his career at the hands of the Cougars - twice as many as any other opponent. ... Mariota's passing efficiency rating of 260.5 was the highest of his career. ... The game marked the second time Oregon's QB had more touchdown passes than incompletions.

Game 5 - Oct. 2

ARIZONA 31
#2 OREGON 24

Eugene, Ore. (56,032)
Autzen Stadium
65 degrees, clear

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon suffered its first home defeat at Autzen Stadium since 2012 as Arizona scored four touchdowns in the second half and forced a UO fumble in the final minutes to secure a 31-24 victory.

How it Happened: Arizona's Nick Wilson scored the first of his three third-quarter touchdowns on the Wildcats' opening drive after half-time, giving UA a 10-7 lead. The Ducks responded with a six-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota to Devon Allen to reclaim the lead, but the Wildcats put together back-to-back scoring drives of 93 and 80 yards for a 24-14 edge heading into the final quarter. A Matt Wogan field goal and Keanon Lowe touchdown catch tied the game for Oregon with 8:21 to play before Arizona chewed up more than five minutes on a 15-play, 71-yard drive that ended in a 1-yard plunge by Teris Jones-Grigsby. Prior to what proved to be the eventual game-winning touchdown, Tony Washington sacked UA quarterback Anu Solomon for a 9-yard loss on third-and-goal from the 7-yard line, but the Ducks were flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct giving the Wildcats a fresh set of downs. Oregon picked up three quick first downs on its final drive before Mariota was sacked and stripped of the ball at the Ducks' 35-yard line with 2:11 to play.

Who Stood Out: Mariota was able to shake off a slow start throwing the ball to finish 20-of-32 passing for 276 yards and two touchdowns. He also caught the second touchdown of his career, bulging his way into the end zone on a 26-yard pass from Royce Freeman. The true freshman tailback also led the Ducks in rushing, toting the ball 19 times for 85 yards. Devon Allen found the end zone for the fourth straight game, giving him six touchdowns over that stretch. Dwayne Stanford had four receptions for a career-high 74 yards. Defensively, Reggie Daniels made six solo tackles and notched his first career interception on an acrobatic, diving play in the first quarter. Washington finished with a pair of tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

What it Means: The Ducks will surely drop from their No. 2 ranking as they leave the ranks of the unbeaten. Every team in the Pac-12 North Division now has at least one loss as the Ducks' record moves to 4-1 overall and 1-1 in conference play.

Odds and ends: The Ducks were flagged for 10 penalties for the second straight game - five directly resulting in Arizona first downs. ... Oregon failed to score a rushing touchdown for the second straight game. ... The game marked the 100th consecutive sellout at Autzen Stadium and only the 16th home defeat for the Ducks during that stretch, dating to 1999.

Game 6 - Oct. 11

#12 OREGON 42
#18 UCLA 30

Pasadena, Calif. (80,139)
The Rose Bowl
78 degrees, hazy

PASADENA, Calif. — The No. 12 Ducks rebounded from their loss to Arizona and avoided losing back-to-back games for the first time since 2007 by jumping out to an early lead and going on to a 42-30 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

How It Happened: The Ducks got on the board first with a Marcus Mariota touchdown run and a two-point conversion in the first quarter. A tipped pass by Tony Washington helped keep the Bruins to a field goal on their first score, and Oregon made it 21-3 on touchdowns by Thomas Tyner and Pharaoh Brown in the second quarter. UCLA quarterback Brett Hundley gave the Ducks trouble all day as a runner, including on a TD run just before halftime. But Mariota answered with his second scoring run of the game early in the third quarter for a 28-10 advantage, and Royce Freeman scored just 1:07 later after a turnover.

Who Stood Out: Mariota surpassed 100 touchdowns for his career and also threw for a touchdown in his 32nd straight game, every appearance of his career so far. The offensive line got a major boost from the return of left tackle Jake Fisher, who returned from a two-game absence and helped Oregon rush for 255 yards. Ifo Ekpre-Olomu had an interception to set up Freeman's touchdown in the third quarter, coming up big after leaving briefly in the first half to have his ankle re-taped.

What It Means: This game was billed essentially as a loser-out game for the College Football Playoff, after both teams lost a week earlier. Oregon improved to 5-1 overall and 2-1 in the Pac-12, and could crawl back into the top 10 of the polls based on results from around the country.

Odds and ends: With Fisher back on the offensive line, Matt Pierson remained the starter at right tackle and Tyrell Crosby backed up both tackle spots. ... Crosby had to leave at one point when his helmet came off, converted defensive lineman Stetson Bair entered at left tackle and on the next play Freeman ran for his TD in the third quarter. ... Defensive end Arik Armstead was not in pads after missing the second half of the Arizona game. ... Keanon Lowe started at receiver but left in the first quarter and did not return. ... Freeman became the first UO player to rush for 100 yards since Mariota in the Alamo Bowl, and the first running back since Tyner in the Civil War.

Game 7 - Oct. 18

WASHINGTON 20
#9 OREGON 45

Eugene, Ore. (57,858)
Autzen Stadium
77 degrees, mostly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon extended its winning streak over long-time rival Washington to 11 games, the longest by either team in the history of the series, as the No. 9 Ducks beat the Huskies 45-20 in Autzen Stadium.

How It Happened: Freshman Royce Freeman ran for three first-half touchdowns as the Ducks built a 28-6 halftime lead. Washington's vaunted defensive front seven couldn't contain the Oregon rushing attack as the Ducks ran for 218 yards, and the UO offensive line allowed just three sacks. The UO defense limited Washington to 317 yards of offense, including 27 rushing yards in the first half. The Huskies got their two field goals in the first quarter, staying within 7-6 before the Ducks blew it open in the second.

Who Stood Out: Freeman surpassed 100 rushing yards for the second week in a row, after the Ducks went the first five games of the season without a 100-yard rusher. The freshman finished with 29 carries for 169 yards and four touchdowns. Marcus Mariota completed 24-of-33 passes for 336 yards and two touchdowns. Freshman Darren Carrington had season-highs of five receptions and 79 yards. Defensively, Erick Dargan came up with his fourth interception of the year, tied for fourth in the FBS, and Christian French has a career-high two sacks and forced a key second-half fumble.

What It Means: Oregon improved to 6-1 overall and 3-1 in the Pac-12, retaining a share of first place in the North Division. Washington fell to 5-2 overall and 1-2 in conference play.

Odds and Ends: Mariota threw a touchdown pass for the 33rd straight game, every appearance of his career. ... Oregon improved to 1-2 against former UO assistant Chris Petersen, the UW head coach who led Boise State to two wins over the Ducks. ... Matt Wogan missed a 33-yard field-goal attempt in the second half. ... Defensive end Arik Armstead started the game after not playing at UCLA.

Game 8 - Oct. 24

#6 OREGON 59
CALIFORNIA 41

Santa Clara, Calif. (55,575)
Levi's Stadium
64 degrees, clear

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — The No. 6 Oregon football team broke open the game after halftime to beat California, 59-41, in the first college football game hosted by the new home of the NFL's San Francisco 49ers, Levi's Stadium.

How It Happened: The battle of two of the country's most explosive offenses began in fitting fashion as the teams traded touchdowns early, before the Ducks used 24 points in the second quarter to break out to a 38-28 halftime lead. The Golden Bears took advantage of two UO turnovers to stay within striking distance in the period, but Oregon scored twice to open the second half and widen the gap again.

Who Stood Out: Marcus Mariota became Oregon's all-time leading passer in the course of a night on which he completed 18-of-30 passes for 326 yards with five touchdowns. Mariota had 8,299 career passing yards entering the night, and passed Bill Musgrave to become the Ducks' career leader. He also threw a touchdown pass for the 34th straight game, every appearance of his career. Royce Freeman led the Ducks in rushing again with 112 yards and two touchdowns, breaking Thomas Tyner's year-old record for rushing yards by a UO true freshman in the process. Another true freshman, Charles Nelson, had an electric 58-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter, making several defenders miss tackles along the way. Defensively, the Golden Bears threw away from UO all-American cornerback Ifo Ekpre-Olomu all night, and Troy Hill responded with four pass breakups. Christian French recorded a sack, giving him a team-high 4.5 this season.

What It Means: Oregon improved to 7-1 overall and 4-1 in the Pac-12, maintaining its lead in the Pac-12's North Division. The Ducks have won three straight since their lone loss of the season.

Odds and Ends: For the second straight year, Mariota's first interception of the year was tipped twice before being picked off. In the second quarter, one Cal defender tipped a pass that another tried to intercept yet couldn't, deflecting it to a third Golden Bear who hauled it in. ... The turnover ended a streak of 253 passes without an interception, the second-longest streak in Pac-12 history. Mariota is also first with a streak of 353. ... Earlier in the quarter, Cal scored after recovering a UO fumble, the first points off a turnover the Ducks allowed in 2014. ... Nelson's punt return was Oregon's longest of the year, as was Devon Allen's kickoff return of 45 in the first half, after UO coach Mark Helfrich said the return game was an area for improvement this week.

Game 9 - Nov. 1

STANFORD 16
#5 OREGON 45

Eugene, Ore. (58,794)
Autzen Stadium
56 degrees, mostly cloudy

EUGENE, Ore. — Fifth-ranked Oregon won its fourth straight and rebounded from two losses to Stanford by beating the Cardinal 45-16 before 58,794 in Autzen Stadium.

How It Happened: After failing to score until the fourth quarter in a loss at Stanford in 2013, the Ducks scored on their first four possessions Saturday — and the first three were touchdowns. Oregon by that point had become just the second team this season to score as many as 20 points on the Cardinal defense, which had been allowing 12.5 points per game, second-fewest in the country. The Cardinal's first touchdown got it within 24-13 at halftime, and Stanford received the second-half kickoff. But after driving his team past midfield, Kevin Hogan provided the game's first turnover, an interception by Erick Dargan at the UO 1-yard line. Marcus Mariota answered with an interception of his own, however, and Stanford drove to a field goal. The Ducks quickly responded with another touchdown, however, the second of the game for Thomas Tyner on a beautiful spin move, taking a 31-16 lead into the fourth quarter and ending Stanford's 31-game streak holding opponents under 30 points. Mariota added a rushing touchdown early in the fourth quarter to break the game open, 38-16, and later threw a TD pass to Darren Carrington.

Who Stood Out: On a night when Mariota wasn't particularly sharp, completing 19-of-30 passes for 258 yards, the Ducks pounded away in the running game. Oregon rushed 46 times for 267 yards, averaging 5.8 yards per carry after averaging 2.6 against Stanford a year earlier. Royce Freeman nearly had his fourth straight 100-yard effort, finishing with 98 yards, and Tyner added 63 yards with two touchdowns. Defensively, Dargan added a forced fumble to set up Mariota's rushing touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Dargan also led the Ducks with 12 tackles.

What It Means: Oregon (8-1, 5-1 Pac-12) took a two-game lead over Stanford (5-4, 3-3) in the race for the Pac-12 North title, with three games remaining for each. The Ducks also remained in the thick of the race for the College Football Playoff field, on a night when No. 3 Auburn beat No. 4 Mississippi in the SEC.

Odds and Ends: Tyner, Arik Armstead and Matt Wogan all returned to the lineup after not traveling to California the week before. Armstead had two tackles in the first half, and Wogan handled kickoffs. ... Keanon Lowe returned to the starting lineup after a two-game absence and had two catches for 31 yards. ... Aidan Schneider's 40-yard field goal in the first half was Oregon's longest in either of the past two seasons. ... The sellout was the 102nd in a row at Autzen Stadium.

Game 10 - Nov. 8

#5 OREGON 51
#20 UTAH 27

Salt Lake City, Utah (47,528)
Rice-Eccles Stadium
52 degrees, partly cloudy

SALT LAKE CITY — One of the craziest plays in recent UO football history, a 100-yard fumble return for a touchdown after a Utes receiver fumbled while crossing the goal line, sparked the fifth-ranked Ducks (No. 4 CFP) to a 51-27 victory over No. 17 Utah before 47,528 fans in Rice-Eccles Stadium. The win clinched the Pac-12 North for Oregon, putting the Ducks into the Pac-12 title game.

How it Happened: Utah scored on its first possession, with athletic quarterback Kendal Thompson directing the offense, while Oregon's only offense early on was the running of Marcus Mariota. Thompson left the game with an apparent injury, and replacement Travis Wilson threw a long pass that was poised to put the Utes up two touchdowns — until Kaelin Clay fumbled at the end of a potential 79-yard touchdown reception, dropping the ball prematurely as he crossed the goal line. Erick Dargan picked it up, and Joe Walker eventually ended up with the ball before returning it 100 yards for the game-tying touchdown.

That 14-point swing on one play completely changed the game's momentum. Utah didn't score again until a field goal at the halftime gun, ending a run of 24 straight points for Oregon. The Ducks countered the Utes' high-pressure front seven by using quick passes to drive to touchdowns by Dwayne Stanford and Pharaoh Brown, and Aidan Schneider kicked a 39-yard field goal.

Early in the second half, the Utes converted a Mariota fumble into a field goal to get within 24-13. The Ducks matched it with Schneider's second of the night for a 27-13 advantage. Schneider answered a Utah touchdown with a 42-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, and Oregon's lead was 30-20. Utah again responded to a UO field goal with a touchdown to make it 30-27, using prolific running back Devontae Booker well in the passing game. But the Ducks drove to Stanford's second scoring reception of the night for a 37-27 edge.

Who Stood Out: It was an historic night for Mariota, who became the first UO quarterback ever to pass for 9,000 yards in his career, completing 17-of-29 on the night for 239 yards and three touchdowns. Stanford had two touchdowns for the second time in the last three games. Walker made another big play in the fourth quarter with Oregon up 37-27, stopping Booker for no gain on a screen pass that forced Utah to settle for a field-goal attempt that his the upright.

What It Means: Oregon will play in the Pac-12 title game on Dec. 5 in Santa Clara, Calif. The opponent will be the winner of the Pac-12 South, at this point projected to be any one of four teams. Nationally, on a night when No. 3 Auburn lost to Texas A&M, the fourth-ranked Ducks held serve on the road to also remain in the thick of the race for a College Football Playoff berth.

Odds and Ends: Mariota's first TD pass, to Stanford on a fourth-down play in the second quarter, gave him one in all 36 games of his career, matching the third-longest streak in NCAA history. ... Chris Seisay and Troy Hill were Oregon's cornerbacks for the second half.

... Tyree Robinson made the start at safety, but Dargan entered on the Utes' first drive after being slow to get up following the opening kickoff. ... Tyrell Crosby made his fourth start of the season at offensive tackle, in place of Matt Pierson, who didn't make the trip.

Game 11 - Nov. 22

COLORADO 10
#3 OREGON 55

Eugene, Ore. (55,891)
Autzen Stadium
52 degrees, mostly cloudy

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon celebrated senior day in style, beating Colorado 44-10 at Autzen Stadium in another record-setting day for junior quarterback Marcus Mariota.

How It Happened: The Ducks put together perhaps their most dominating performance of the season, rolling up 597 yards of offense and allowing just 226. Touchdowns on four of Oregon's first five drives put the game out of reach early, with Royce Freeman rushing for two first-half touchdowns and Mariota adding a rushing touchdown and a passing TD, to Charles Nelson. The Buffs were 1-of-2 on field-goal attempts in the first half, and Oregon closed the half with a Matt Wogan field goal to lead 30-3.

In the third quarter, new starting tight end Evan Baylis — a Colorado native — had his first career touchdown reception. That was the 41st touchdown play Mariota was involved in on the season, tying Matt Barkley's Pac-12 record, and Mariota broke it later in the quarter with another scoring pass to Nelson. With the Ducks up 44-10, Mariota took the field for their first snap of the fourth quarter, handed off and then was pulled from the game for backup Jeff Lockie. Mariota was noncommittal after the game about his future, but the junior conceded that, "If this was my last game at Autzen, it was truly special."

Who Stood Out: Mariota accounted for 396 yards of offense and four touchdowns, in the process becoming just the sixth player in major college history with 9,000 career passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards. Freeman extended his UO true freshman rushing record, surpassing 1,000 yards for the season with 105 on Saturday. Erick Dargan led the dominating defensive performance with seven tackles, while Joe Walker and Arik Armstead each posted a sack. Hamani Stevens filled in for Hroniss Grasu at center and kept the offense moving at a rapid tempo.

What It Means: Oregon (10-1, 7-1 Pac-12) maintained momentum after having previously clinched the Pac-12 North title. The Ducks won a 10th game for the seventh straight season, improving to 21-3 under coach Mark Helfrich. Colorado fell to 2-9 overall, 0-8 in conference.

Odds and Ends: With Stevens at center, Doug Brenner entered the starting lineup at left guard, though Jake Pizarick played a considerable amount of reps at that spot, too. ... Junior offensive tackle Andre Yruretagoyena rotated at right tackle with Tyrell Crosby, taking the field for the first time since September. ... Long snapper Devin Melendez became the 11th true freshman to play in 2014. ... Running back Thomas Tyner did not play. ... Oregon was a phenomenal 9-of-15 on third down. ... Neither team had a turnover.

#3 OREGON 47
OREGON STATE 19

Corvallis, Ore. (45,722)
Reser Stadium
40 degrees, clear

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Oregon dominated its rival to maintain its position in the thick of the national championship race, beating Oregon State 47-19 before 45,722 in Reser Stadium.

How It Happened: The Ducks scored early and often, with Marcus Mariota accounting for four touchdowns in the first half alone and six for the game, bolstering his case as a Heisman Trophy candidate. Charles Nelson caught a 29-yard TD pass on a wheel route just minutes into the game, Royce Freeman showed off soft hands to haul in a 12-yard screen pass for a score and Byron Marshall shrugged off a defender for a 77-yard TD reception from Mariota, all in the first half as the Ducks built a 30-3 halftime lead.

Oregon dominated the line of scrimmage on both sides, with the defense making two stops on fourth-and-one in the first half, and the offensive line providing huge holes in the run game and ample time for Mariota in the passing game. The second half was played nearly even, with the Ducks outscoring the Beavers 17-16. Mariota had his second rushing touchdown in the third quarter, and his second TD pass of the night to Nelson in the fourth quarter.

Who Stood Out: Mariota finished the night 19-of-25 passing for 367 and four touchdowns, a level of efficiency approaching his performance earlier in the season at Washington State. He also ran for 39 yards, surpassing 4,000 yards of total offense for the season; that's the second time Mariota has done so in his career, the only two times it's happened at Oregon. Freeman surpassed 100 rushing yards for the fifth time, running for 135 on the night. Marshall caught six passes for 131 yards and a score, giving him 56 receptions for the season, in the top 10 at Oregon for a single season. Matt Wogan made two field goals, and Derrick Malone Jr. had seven tackles to lead a balanced defensive effort.

What It Means: The Ducks completed an 11-1 regular season, winning 11 regular-season games for the third time in school history, all in the last five years. Oregon heads to the Pac-12 title game next week needing to win to solidify a spot in the inaugural College Football Playoff.

Odds and Ends: Freeman became the 12th different UO player to catch a touchdown pass this season, tied for most in the country with Mississippi State. ... Mariota threw a touchdown in his 38th straight game, the most by any player in FBS history to start his career. ... Offensive lineman Matt Pierson returned to action after a two-game absence. Tanner Carew returned after missing the Colorado game and snapped for placekicks Saturday, with Devin Melendez handling punts. ... The Ducks ran a gadget play several times that involved Nelson taking a direct snap and handing off to Mariota, who threw a pass on one of them. ... Regulars Hroniss Grasu, Keanon Lowe and Thomas Tyner were on the sideline but did not participate.

Game 13 - Dec. 5

#8 ARIZONA 13
#3 OREGON 51

Santa Clara, Calif. (45,618)
Levi's Stadium
60 degrees, showers

SANTA CLARA, Ore. — Behind an inspired defensive effort and a balanced offense, Oregon brought home its first Pac-12 championship in three years and avenged consecutive losses to Arizona with a 51-13 win over the Wildcats in the conference title game at Levi's Stadium. The victory all but assured the Ducks' place in the inaugural College Football Playoff field on New Year's Day.

How It Happened: The UO offense struggled with penalties and settled for field goals early, but Oregon's defense opened with what has to be considered one of the greatest halves of football in school history. The Ducks held Arizona to 25 yards in the first half, including minus-nine rushing. They took a 23-0 lead into halftime, the third straight game Oregon led at least 20-0. Marcus Mariota rushed for two touchdowns and Aidan Schneider was 3-of-4 on field-goal attempts, more than enough to back a defense that forced six straight three-and-outs to end the half, on which Arizona netted a total of minus-two yards.

Mariota extended his FBS record streak of 39 straight games with a TD pass to start his career early in the second half, hitting Devon Allen for the redshirt freshman's first receiving score since the Arizona game in the regular season. The UO defense lost its shutout on a busted coverage moments later, Arizona scoring on a long touchdown pass by backup quarterback Jesse Scroggins when the Ducks had a miscommunication that left a receiver wide open. But ultimately the Wildcats couldn't sustain anything on what was an impressive night for the Oregon defense. The Ducks, meanwhile, kept rolling, with another Mariota rushing touchdown and a TD reception by Darren Carrington in the third quarter for a 44-7 lead.

Who Stood Out: Arizona came into the game averaging nearly 500 yards of offense, but the Wildcats finished Friday with just 224, including 111 rushing. Mariota accounted for five touchdowns, rushing for three in a single game for the first time in his career. Royce Freeman exceeded 100 rushing yards for the third straight game and sixth time overall, and Charles Nelson had 199 all-purpose yards. Carrington started at wideout and led the Ducks with seven catches for 126 yards, with a touchdown.

Shop Championship GearWhat It Means: Oregon (12-1) extended its winning streak to eight games, and is a win away from establishing a school record of 13 victories. The Ducks entered the evening ranked No. 2 by the College Football Playoff selection committee, and will watch Saturday's SEC and ACC title games to see if they have a chance to enter the postseason at No. 1 in the country.

Odds and Ends: Mariota reached 12,000 yards of total offense, 10,000 career passing yards and 100 career passing touchdowns over the course of the evening. He extended his own school records in all three categories. ... Carrington started in place of Dwayne Stanford at receiver. Stanford was in uniform but didn't see the field. ... Matt Pierson made his first career start at guard. ... Johnathan Lloyd was the first-string punt returner. ... The Ducks survived a rash of penalties, including at least one on each starting offensive lineman in the first half.

Game 14 - Jan. 1

#2 FLORIDA STATE 20
#3 OREGON 59

Pasadena, Calif. (91,322)
Rose Bowl Stadium
57 degrees, sunny

PASADENA, Calif — Arguably the greatest season in Oregon football history continued Thursday evening at the Rose Bowl, where the No. 2 Ducks knocked off defending national champion and third-ranked Florida State, 59-20, to advance to the College Football Playoff championship game.

How It Happened: The Ducks (13-1) led nearly wire-to-wire, after Florida State opened the game with a field goal. Oregon took the lead on a Royce Freeman touchdown, made a goal-line stand to keep the Seminoles from answering and then went up 11-3 on an Aidan Schneider field goal. Florida State responded with another field goal, and then the teams traded touchdowns prior to halftime as the Ducks took an 18-13 lead into the break.

Oregon broke the game open in the third quarter by scoring three times off turnovers. Senior linebacker Derrick Malone Jr. stripped a ballcarrier to set up Freeman's second rushing touchdown, and though the Seminoles answered it, the Ducks scored again on a 56-yard touchdown pass from Marcus Mariota to Darren Carrington. Florida State turned it over again, with Erick Dargan forcing a fumble that Reggie Daniels recovered, and two plays later Mariota connected with Carrington again, a 30-yard touchdown play that gave Oregon a 39-20 lead. On FSU's next possession, Jameis Winston dropped back under pressure, lost the handle while cocking back to throw and watched Tony Washington return the fumble 58 yards for a touchdown.

Incredibly, the Ducks forced yet another turnover early in the fourth quarter, when Dargan collected a pass tipped by DeForest Buckner and muffed by a receiver. Six plays later, Mariota used a brilliant ball fake to spring himself for a 23-yard touchdown run that put Oregon in front 52-20. Yet another FSU fumble gave the ball back to the Ducks, setting up Thomas Tyner's second touchdown run of the game for a 59-20 lead.

What It Means: The Ducks advanced to their second national title game in five years, joining Alabama and Auburn as the three teams to do so in that time frame. Oregon won its school-record 13th game of the season, and will play a 15-game schedule for the first time ever.

Odds and Ends: Center Hroniss Grasu and receiver Keanon Lowe were game captains and returned to the starting lineup, after each missing multiple starts. Mariota and Buckner also were captains. ... Bralon Addison went through warmups in full pads but was in sweats for the game. He remains on track to redshirt this season. ... Chris Seisay made his second start of the season, after also being in the opening lineup against Wyoming. ... Seisay started in place of the injured Ifo Ekpre-Olomu, who attend the game and was on the sideline along with injured tight end Pharaoh Brown.

Game 15 - Jan. 12

#4 OHIO STATE 42
#2 OREGON 20

Arlington, Texas (85,689)
AT&T Stadium
72 degrees, indoors

ARLINGTON, Texas — Oregon's second trip to the national championship game in five years ended in similarly frustrating fashion, as the Ducks fell to Ohio State 42-20 in the inaugural College Football Playoff final before 85,689 at AT&T Stadium.

How It Happened: The Ducks set the tone early, blazing to an 11-play touchdown drive after receiving the opening kick, then forcing a punt. But the Buckeyes scored the next 21 points — despite two turnovers — and while Oregon forced two more turnovers in the third quarter, they yielded just 10 points. Ohio State, meanwhile, leaned on the powerful running of quarterback Cardale Jones and running back Ezekiel Elliott to grind out the win.

Oregon fell into an early hole despite taking the 7-0 lead, dropping third-down passes on its next two possessions. Elliott and Jones each ran for touchdowns before the Ducks scored again, and Jones also threw for a TD in just his third career start. Oregon hit a field goal just before halftime, and trailed 21-10 at the break.

In the second half, Oregon finally turned a turnover into points, on a quick-strike reception of 70 yards by Byron Marshall from Marcus Mariota. Schneider added another field goal off a Danny Mattingly interception to get the Ducks within 21-20, but Elliott answered with another scoring run and the Buckeyes forced a quick three-and-out. Elliott tacked on his third rushing touchdown early in the fourth quarter and another in the final minute.

Who Stood Out: Mariota was outstanding as usual in possibly his last UO appearance, completing 24-of-37 passes for 333 yards and two touchdowns. Marshall caught eight passes for 169 yards, becoming the first player in school history with 1,000 yards rushing in a single season — last fall — and also 1,000 yards receiving in one year. Defensively, Reggie Daniels and Arik Armstead led the Ducks with nine tackles.

What It Means: Oregon won a school-record 13 games to go along with two losses in the 2014 season, claiming Pac-12 Conference and Rose Bowl titles. The College Football Playoff National Championship was the final game for a sterling group of UO seniors including Hroniss Grasu, Keanon Lowe, Tony Washington, Derrick Malone Jr., Troy Hill and Erick Dargan.

Odds and Ends: Former UO coach Chip Kelly was in attendance for the game. ... Receiver Bralon Addison was in sweats throughout, after warming up for the Rose Bowl in uniform. Addison thus officially sat out the 2014 season as a redshirt, and will be a junior again in 2015. ... Eight players started all 15 games this season: Mariota, Hamani Stevens, Alex Balducci, DeForest Buckner, Tony Washington, Rodney Hardrick, Tyson Coleman and Daniels. ... Stetson Bair, whose wife was expecting the couple's first child this weekend, was in uniform Monday night.

COACHING STAFF

MARK HELFRICH

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

 head coach
 third year
 seventh season at Oregon
 Southern Oregon University, 1996

Oregon Head Coach Mark Helfrich knew the comparisons would be inevitable – how do you replace arguably the most successful football coach in school history? His answer was simple – by being Mark Helfrich.

There is no question the formula has proven to be widely successful. In guiding the Ducks to a first-year mark of 11-2 and a 30-7 Alamo Bowl triumph over Texas in 2013, the number of wins equaled three others for the conference record for success by a rookie head coach as well as surpassed his predecessor Chip Kelly's previous Oregon pinnacle for most wins by a first-year mentor. In addition, Helfrich joined Ducks' alum John Robinson as the league's only other coach to win a bowl games in his inaugural season (USC in 1976).

But 2014 resulted in an entirely different standard of success. While becoming only the school's second football coach ever to lead the program to a National Championship appearance, he guided Oregon to more single-season victories (13) than any other school in conference history. In the process he elevated his Pac-12 record to 15-3, avenged his only regular-season loss of the year to Arizona with a convincing 51-13 win in the conference championship game, handed defending national champion Florida State its only setback in two seasons, and benefitted from the play of the school's first Heisman Trophy winner ever.

Only one other squad in school history had ever won as many as 11 football games in a single season (2001) prior to his arrival as offensive coordinator in 2009 – Helfrich now has been a part of five teams to do so – three as an Oregon assistant (2010, 2011, 2012) and two others in a head coaching capacity.

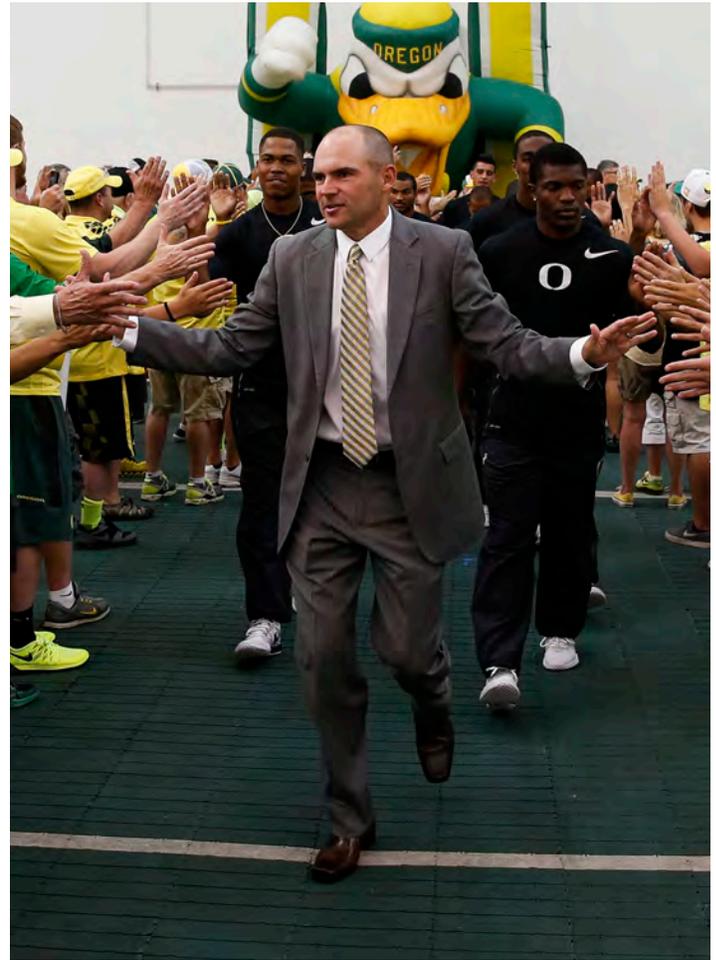

Stability of the Oregon football program has certainly played a major role in the continued success of an operation that has won more games (147-45) than any of its conference counterparts since the turn of the century. Six of the assistant coaches who have played key roles in the program's quartet of conference championships in the past six years remain, as do three of the assistants who have called Eugene home for more than two decades. But Helfrich has certainly put his own stamp on the school's success. Only one other football head coach in conference history (Pappy Waldorf, California, 26-2, 1947-49) has won more games in his first 28 outings than the Southern Oregon native.

Following last season, the Ducks' former graduate assistant coach (1997) was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach-of-the-Year Award as well as the Maxwell Football Club Coach-of-the-Year honors.

He helped orchestrate the continuation of the program's offensive firepower a year ago as the Ducks led the league in total offense (3rd in the country) for the fifth year in a row, in scoring offense (4th in the nation) for the eighth straight season, and in rushing (20th nationally) for the ninth time in many years.

Under Helfrich's tutelage, Oregon eclipsed no fewer than 20 team and individual season records in 2014 while equaling or surpassing more than 35 single-game and season individual and team standards over the course of his two-year heading coaching tenure.

The 41-year-old Helfrich was appointed the school's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 20, 2013, following a quartet of seasons as the Ducks' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the program's most prolific era in school history. Oregon tallied a 46-7 ledger and four BCS bowl appearances from 2009-12.

Only one other squad in school history had ever won as many as 11 football games in a single season (2001) prior to his arrival as offensive coordinator in 2009 - Helfrich now has been a part of five teams to do so . . . . .

He had accumulated three seasons as an offensive coordinator and 11 years coaching quarterbacks prior to his return to Eugene.

The first native Oregonian to head the university's football program in 71 years was named the program's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach following three seasons in the same capacity at Colorado (2006-08), five years as quarterbacks coach at Arizona State (2001-05) - which included his final three campaigns in Tempe, Ariz., as passing game coordinator - and three seasons as quarterbacks coach at Boise State (1998-2000).

It didn't take long for Helfrich to be recognized for his impact on the Ducks' offensive success as he was named by FootballScoop as its National Quarterbacks Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2012, in addition to being one of three finalists as its national offensive coordinator of the year honor.

He played a significant role in the development of Darron Thomas, who went on to lead Oregon to the 2011 BCS National Championship Game as a first-year starter, as well as the 2012 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin. Thomas became the school's first signal-caller ever to complete more than 30 touchdowns in a single season on two separate occasions, finishing his collegiate career with a then school-record 66 scoring strikes.

Helfrich then tutored Pac-12 Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year and three-time first-team all-conference choice Marcus Mariota, who not only quarterbacked the Ducks to a 35-17 win over Kansas State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl but became the circuit's first freshman to earn first-team all-league honors since 1989. Mariota completed his first collegiate season throwing for a freshman school and conference record 32 TDs, and found himself two scoring passes short of Oregon's one-season ledger.

But that was only the beginning as Mariota completed his collegiate career as the Ducks' third unanimous first-team All-American in school history as well as their first Heisman Trophy winner ever. He proceeded to become the second overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft and the most decorated football player in the program's annals.

Over the course of his last 15 seasons, Helfrich has played a role with offenses that have ranked among the nation's top-eight teams in scoring offense eight times, the upper seven contingents in passing efficiency in five instances, the top six in rushing on four occasions, and the elite five in total offense six times.

Mariota established the Ducks' freshman record for passing efficiency in 2012 (163.23), finishing seventh in the country as the Pac-12's leader in each of his first two seasons (167.7 in 2013), while Thomas was 11th nationally in 2011 and second in the league in 2010. The Hawaiian junior became the second Helfrich-coached quarterback to lead the country in passing efficiency in 2014, joining Arizona State's Rudy Carpenter, who led the nation in passing efficiency in 2005 after the Sun Devils' Andrew Walter was second in the Pac-10 in total offense and third in passing efficiency in 2004.

Walter completed 2002 third in the conference in total offense and passing efficiency while Jeff Krohn led the league in passing efficiency in 2001.

Walter set Arizona State records for both career (85) and single-season touchdowns (30) in addition to shattering the previous Pac-10 record for career TD passes, previously set by Stanford's John Elway (77). The third-round NFL draft pick finished his collegiate career as the school's career record holder in nearly every passing category.

... Helfrich has played a role with offenses that have ranked among the nation's top-eight teams in scoring offense eight times, the upper seven contingents in passing efficiency in five instances, the top six in rushing on four occasions, and the elite five in total offense six times.

Ranking as the youngest offensive coordinator in the nation at a BCS school at Colorado in 2006, Helfrich's offenses were marked by improvement each of his first two seasons in Boulder.

His first Colorado offense averaged 4.5 yards per carry and featured three different players rushing for 500 yards or more for just the 10th time in school history. His 2007 team was just the third in school history to gain 1,000 yards on offense more than the previous season in the same number of games, and scored 30 or more points five times.

During his five-year Arizona State stint, the program blossomed into one of the top passing teams in the country. In his final season there, the Sun Devils finished third in the NCAA and led the Pac-10 in passing yards per game (373.9 avg.) as well as second in the country in passing efficiency. ASU posted a school-record 4,481 yards passing that season to elevate its five-year total to 18,686 yards (306.3 avg.).

While at Boise State, Helfrich tutored one of school's all-time greats in Bart Hendricks, the 1999 and 2000 Big West Conference Player of the Year. In 2000, the Broncos led the country in scoring (44.9 ppg) and passing efficiency (168.9) while finishing fifth in passing offense (321.6 avg.).

Born in Medford, Ore., the 1992 Marshfield (Coos Bay) High School graduate turned down an opportunity to walk on at Oregon in favor of attending Southern Oregon University, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in biology in 1996. The NAIA Scholar-Athlete (1993) led the nation in total offense while earning NAIA honorable mention All-America accolades and first-team Columbia Football Association honors as a senior. That season, he accumulated single-season school records in passing yards (2,712), total offense (3,196) and touchdown passes (23), topping the 400-yard mark in single-game total offense three times.

He was inducted into his alma mater's Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2012.

He began his coaching career as running backs coach at his alma mater in 1996 before playing and coaching (offensive coordinator) in Europe with the Vienna (Austria) Vikings in the winter of 1997.

Mark and his wife, Megan, are the parents of one son, Max (8), and one daughter, Maggie (4).

Scott Frost

offensive coordinator | quarterbacks
seventh season at Oregon
University of Nebraska, 1997

Scott Frost, who instilled a toughness in the Ducks' wide receivers corps for four years, has incorporated that same mentality at a position where he was one of the nation's best while quarterbacking his alma mater to the 1997 National Championship.

But just as important was the understanding he accrued coordinating the program's offense for the first time two years ago that continues to breed success.

Frost has gained a wealth of experience as a standout at the collegiate and professional levels, as well as from a coaching perspective. It certainly didn't hurt that he benefitted from having one of the best quarterbacks in the country at his disposal the past three seasons. Oregon has averaged better than 500 yards of total offense in each of the past five years and it hasn't mattered whether he has engineered the game plan from a quarterback's perspective or working from the receiver's point of view - the results have remained the same. Oregon's 312.5 passing yards-per-game in 2014 represented the second-highest output in school history (and the best since 1998), while the 547.0 average of total offense was second only to the school record from his first year as offensive coordinator.

The 40-year-old Lincoln, Neb., native has helped orchestrate offenses that led the country in passing efficiency last season as well as ranked third in total offense, fourth in scoring (45.4) and 10th in passing. In 2013 the Ducks finished second in the country in total offense (565.0), fourth in scoring (45.5) and ninth in rushing (273.5).

Frost would be the first to credit the outstanding talent he has worked with such as a Heisman Trophy winner, two 1,000-yard rushers as well as a pair of 1,000-yard receivers. However not to be discounted is the ingenuity that led to utilizing that talent, shifting the emphasis of 1,000-yard rusher Byron Marshall into a 1,000-yard receiver.

Prior to initially joining the Oregon staff as its wide receivers coach in January 2009, Frost had served one year as defensive coordinator at the University of Northern Iowa (2008) and two seasons as the Panthers' linebackers coach (2007-08).

He possesses a unique array of experience as a standout collegiate quarterback who also has a coaching background encompassing the defensive side of the ball and special teams. He quarterbacked the University of Nebraska to the 1997 national championship over Tennessee, 42-17, with the two-year starter leading the Cornhuskers to a 24-2 record after lettering two years at Stanford.

As a player, Frost was tutored by some of the legendary football coaching minds of all time - Stanford's Bill Walsh and Nebraska's Tom Osborne, as well as the New York Jets' Bill Parcells in the NFL.

His expertise as a collegiate standout and coach, as well as a six-year NFL veteran, has been vital to Oregon's unprecedented success during his Eugene tenure. Among his contributions has been the implementation of a mentality instilled as a defender as well as the moxie of a national championship competitor. He was instrumental in instituting a toughness among his receivers that enhanced their ability as downfield blockers, which has contributed to the success of the Ducks' running game that has paced the conference in rushing each of the past nine seasons.

He has displayed the versatility to adapt to situations that run the gamut from refining the talents of proven commodities to tutoring less experienced pupils. Despite Oregon ranking third in the country in rushing in 2012 while averaging better than 300 yards per game on the ground for the first time in the program's history (315.2 avg.), 18 players accumulated more catches (250) that year than in the previous six seasons.

Three years ago, the Ducks' wide receivers hauled in 150 catches compared with 115 receptions in 2011.

His first year at Oregon (2009), he inherited one of the Ducks' most inexperienced units and enhanced its development into a reliable corps, helping Jeff Maehl and D.J. Davis develop into NFL players who could be relied upon to make plays both catching the football and blocking downfield.

While Oregon returned a trio of starting wide receivers heading into the 2010 season, Frost played a vital role in improving their production catching the football while further honing their blocking skills. One result was a breakout year for Maehl, who became a first-team all-conference choice, set the Ducks' single-season record with 12 touchdown catches, led the single-season mark with 77 receptions and finished as the program's first 1,000-yard receiver in five seasons.

However he successfully navigated one of his more challenging situations in 2011. Molding a wide receiver contingent that boasted of only two players who had accumulated as many as 10 career catches at the Division I level, he helped devise schemes that would result in the Ducks accounting for 30 or more touchdowns through the air for only the fourth time in school history.

After quarterbacking Nebraska to an unblemished 13-0 record in 1997 and enjoying a six-year NFL playing career, the second-team all-Big 12 Conference standout broke into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 2002 before filling the same role at Kansas State in 2006. He then initiated a two-year stint at Northern Iowa in 2007, where the school finished sixth in the country against the run (91.0 avg.) and seventh in scoring defense (16.9 avg.).

The Panthers tied for third in the Football Championship Subdivision in takeaways (40) and ninth in the country in scoring defense (17.7 ppg) in his final year at the school, dropping a 21-20 decision to Richmond in the national championship semifinals.

As a Nebraska standout, the 1997 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist completed 192 of 359 passes for 2,677 yards and 18 touchdowns. Included was a senior season in which he became only the 10th player in college football history to both run (1,095 yds.) and pass (1,237 yds.) for 1,000 yards in a single season.

His 2,332 yards of total offense fell one yard shy of what was then the school's single-season record set in 1971.

Following his collegiate career, Frost was selected in the third round (67th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft by the New York Jets, where he played safety and special teams from 1998-2000. His professional football career included stops in Cleveland (2001), Green Bay (2001-02) and Tampa Bay (2004).

The second-team Academic All-American and two-time first-team academic all-conference choice graduated with a B.A. degree in finance from Nebraska in 1997.

Don Pellum

defensive coordinator |
inside linebackers
23rd season at Oregon
University of Oregon, 1985

Few coaches have been more familiar with Oregon's defensive philosophy than Don Pellum, who has accumulated 32 seasons with his alma mater as a player, administrator and assistant coach, which contributed to him being elevated to defensive coordinator in January 2014.

Pellum, who begins his 23rd year as the Ducks' full-time assistant, has spent time overseeing almost all phases of the program's defenders, tutoring its linebacker for 17 years (2000-present; 1997-98), as well as its outside linebackers (1993-95), safeties (1996) and defensive line (1999).

And if his first year overseeing Oregon's defense is any indication, his troops will only get better as time wears on.

While the Ducks ranked 30th in the country in scoring defense a year ago (23.6), they allowed more than 20 points in only one of the last six contests prior to their CFP National Championship setback to Ohio State.

In addition, Pellum has continued the program's emphasis on making "big plays" as the Ducks led the country in turnover margin in 2014 (+23).

Yet just as important has been his success developing talent as he continually has provided a steadying influence on a program spanning four head coaching tenures.

That point could not have been more apparent than two years ago. Charged with replacing the Ducks' top two tacklers from the previous season, Pellum utilized a cast possessing of only two career starting assignments. Highlighting the transition was Derrick Malone, whose team-high 105 tackles in 2013 was surpassed only once over the previous six years after he had accumulated 56 tackles over the course of his previous two campaigns.

Possessing 35 years of expertise in the realm of collegiate athletics, he completed his playing career with the Ducks in 1984. The former starting linebacker continued his association with his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach the following year and has remained at Oregon ever since, with the exception of a one-year stint as defensive line coach, strength coach and academic coordinator at Willamette University (1987), as well as three years coordinating the recruiting efforts and serving as assistant athletic director for student services at the University of California (1990-92).

The lure of responsibilities on the field became too much to resist and Oregon couldn't be happier. No team was better against the run in conference games during the Ducks' 2009 Rose Bowl run, thanks in part to a group of linebackers. Pac-10 foes averaged only 118.6 rushing yards per contest in addition to Oregon's league-best total defense in Pac-10 play (316.0 avg.).

His pupils have been instrumental in the program's recent post-season success as witnessed by former linebackers Kiko Alonso and Michael Clay voted as the games' defensive MVP in the 2012 Rose and 2013 Fiesta bowls, respectively. In addition, no fewer than six of his players over the past five seasons are competing to be on NFL rosters this fall.

Linebackers have finished the year leading Oregon in tackles three times in the last five seasons. His group was instrumental in Oregon ranking 12th in the country in scoring defense (18.69 ppg) during its BCS National Championship Game run encompassing the 2010 season, as well as 13th nationally (20.5) in 2013.

In 2012, Clay and Alonso ranked as the team's top two tacklers and earned second-team all-conference plaudits. Clay was named co-recipient of the team's Most Outstanding Player award and Alonso led the Ducks in tackles-for-loss (12) while tying for team-high honors in interceptions (4) and fumble recoveries (2).

Clay finished 2011 second in the Pac-12 in tackles (9.3 avg.), and again paced the team in stops in 2012.

Pellum has developed a knack for bringing out the best from his players while concerning himself with their development aside from the playing field as well. His players have led Oregon's defense in quarterback sacks eight times, including 26 of the Ducks' 38 sacks in 1999 by the defensive front four.

Yet few of his accomplishments could be any more rewarding than in 2005 when he transformed a unit which included only one returnee with any significant line-of-scrimmage experience at the major college level. What resulted was a group that helped Oregon lead the Pac-10 Conference in total defense and pass defense, in addition to finishing third in scoring defense. While his trio of 2005 starters began the season accumulating only 89 tackles during their Oregon careers, they tallied 207 among them that year alone.

Included was second-team all-conference outside linebacker Anthony Trucks, who led the team with 99 tackles en route to pacing the Pac-10 in quarterback sacks (11, tied for 8th in the nation), tackles for loss (15.5) and forced fumbles (5, tied for 7th nationally). In all, Pellum has been credited with much of the development for 27 Pac-10 all-league honorees in the last 20 seasons.

One of Oregon's most popular former players, Pellum returned to coaching on a full-time basis in 1993 following six years as a recruiting coordinator in the Pac-10.

Pellum was responsible for assembling outstanding recruiting classes with Oregon and California, and has been credited with directing some of the Ducks' best recruiting efforts in school history since his return. His recruiting efforts helped land him on the list among the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com after Oregon's 2007 recruiting class was ranked 11th in the country.

The 53-year-old Banning, Calif., native was a graduate assistant at Oregon for two years while completing an advanced degree in telecommunications and film, coaching the tight ends, and assembling the scout teams. He also has completed work toward his Ph.D.

Tom Osborne

special teams coordinator | tight ends
15th season at Oregon
Washington State, 1983

One of the constants of Oregon's football program remains its special team's production thanks to Tom Osborne, who is in his ninth consecutive year as the program's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Since returning to the Ducks prior to the 2007 season, Osborne has quickly restored the levels of productivity and energy of his areas to that prior to his six-year hiatus.

The 34-year collegiate coaching veteran has encountered success throughout his career, tutoring special teams units which have led the conference on no fewer than 13 occasions and have ranked among the top 15 in the country a minimum of 18 times in the past 21 years. In addition, he has mentored no fewer than 10 tight ends who have made their way into the NFL within the last 20 years.

It didn't take long for "Coach Oz" to make his presence felt, lifting Oregon's units on special teams out of the bottom ranks of the Pac-10 statistical standings in the first year of his return.

Throughout his career, the Washington native has been instrumental in the development of 17 All-Americans, 18 first-team all-conference standouts and 16 second-team all-league honorees. He was one of three finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator of the Year award in 2010 and was honored as the national Special Teams Coordinator of the Year in 2003.

Yet his role tutoring tight ends has not taken a back seat, as evidenced by CBSSports.com naming him one of the top five tight end coaches in the country heading into the 2008 season.

Osborne has coached three first-team all-conference tight ends at Oregon over the past eight seasons, including 2014 honoree Pharaoh Brown. He also oversaw the development of 2009 first-team all-league tight end Ed Dickson, who became Oregon's all-time leader in receptions (124) and yards (1,557) at the position prior to his selection in the third round of the 2010 NFL Draft. Osborne followed that up by tutoring tight end David Paulson into becoming a first-team all-conference choice in his first year as Dickson's successor.

As a sophomore, Dickson was the team's second-leading receiver with 43 receptions, 453 yards and three touchdowns. He improved his productivity as a junior with 508 receiving yards, while he accumulated 42 catches for 551 yards and six TDs in his final year.

Paulson led the Ducks with a 14.1 yards-per-catch average among teammates who posted 10 or more catches in 2011.

Under Osborne, the Ducks' special teams success has been a constant. A year ago, Oregon ranked 12th in the country in punt returns, averaging 12.5 yards per runback. In 2013 Oregon led the Pac-12 and was ninth in the country in punt coverage (3.25 avg.) and ranked second in the conference (19th nationally) in punt returns (12.4). In addition, no other school in the league returned both kickoffs and punts for touchdowns as did only 16 other FBS schools in the nation.

In 2012, Oregon led the Pac-12 in fewest punt return yards allowed (8th nationally, 3.24-yard avg.) and punt returns (12th, 13.5-yard avg.). In 2011, Oregon led the nation in punting (41.5 avg.) and also finished 11th in the country in kickoff returns (24.9 avg.) - with De'Anthony Thomas ranking 10th individually (27.3 avg.) - while the Ducks were 25th nationally in kickoff return coverage.

In the first season following his return, the Ducks placed second in the conference in kickoff returns (23.96 avg., 14th nationally), fourth in kickoff coverage (42.9 net avg.) and ranked fifth in net punting (36.69 avg.). Andiel Brown led the Pac-10 in punt returns (10.41 avg.) and Jonathan Stewart was third in kick returns (26.70 avg.).

In 2009, Oregon finished 10th nationally in kickoff returns (24.9 avg.), and 2010 saw significant performances by nearly every phase of special teams play. The Ducks finished second in the nation in punt returns (16.98 avg.) and ranked 12th in the country in kickoff coverage (19.28 avg.). Individually, Cliff Harris rated second in the country in punt returns (18.83 avg.), while Jackson Rice improved his punting average from 40.5 yards per kick to 42.28 from his freshman year to the next. The '10 punt return team produced five touchdowns, including four by Harris.

Before returning to Eugene for a second stint, Osborne had spent six seasons as the assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Arizona State, after coordinating Oregon's special teams and tutoring its tight ends from 1995 through 2000. During his tenure with the Sun Devils, Osborne's units blocked 11 punts.

Osborne was named the Division IA National Special Teams Coordinator of the Year by American Football Coaches Monthly Magazine following the 2003 season.

His Sun Devils led the Pac-10 in kickoff coverage (16th nationally) in 2004 and ranked No. 2 in the country in kickoff returns in 2006. ASU also ranked among the top 27 in the nation in net punting four of his six seasons.

At ASU, Zach Miller earned first-team All-America honors in 2006 after catching 50 passes for 484 yards and four touchdowns. Over three seasons, ASU's all-time receptions leader at the position caught more passes (144) than any other tight end in the country while his yardage (1,512) was second nationally during that span.

Under Osborne's supervision, Oregon's special teams play during his first tour of duty was arguably the best in the Pac-10, if not the country. The Ducks ranked either first or second in the Pac-10 in kickoff coverage each of his six seasons, among the top three in kickoff returns five of six years and among the top three in net punting on four occasions. Before departing Eugene in 2000, Oregon led the league in kickoff coverage (17.04 avg.), kickoff returns (22.5 avg.) and net punting (37.7 avg.).

From a statistical standpoint, Osborne also coached Oregon's top three tight ends of all time (Josh Wilcox - 103 receptions, Blake Spence - 92 catches, and Dickson). During his first six years, the Ducks' tight ends annually averaged close to 50 catches for 700 yards and seven touchdowns. Wilcox, Spence, Jed Weaver and Justin Peelle each received all-conference and All-America attention in addition to spending time on NFL rosters.

Prior to joining the Oregon staff, Osborne coached running backs and tight ends at Boise State for two seasons (1993-94) and coached at Portland State from 1986-92.

The 1983 Washington State graduate and former wide receiver served as a student coach for the Cougars (1981-82) as well as a graduate assistant (1983-85) at his alma mater.

Ron Aiken

third season Oregon
North Carolina A&T, 1977

Ron Aiken wasted little time in fortifying the interior trenches of Oregon's defense after bringing with him 23 years of experience as a defensive assistant at the Division I and professional levels.

The six-year NFL veteran assistant utilized a subtle demeanor to excel as a technician to bring out the best among a group of returnees in his first season, with all three of his departed headliners earning invitations into NFL camps.

Arik Armstead became Aiken's latest student to benefit from his expertise as he progressed throughout last year to emerge as a first-round pick in the 2015 NFL Draft. Armstead posted nine tackles in the CFP National Championship game vs. Ohio State.

Taylor Hart finished fourth on the team in tackles in 2013, with his 75 stops representing the program's most by an interior lineman in more than two decades. A fifth-round NFL draft choice by Philadelphia, the second-team all-league choice was joined by teammate Wade Keliikipi among those who received all-conference attention.

Those numbers were bettered last year by returnee DeForest Buckner, who accumulated 81 takedowns, including 13 tackles for loss.

Oregon's interior line helped account for the program's defenders improving to third in the Pac-12 in total defense (37th nationally) in 2013 after ranking sixth in 2012, as well as tied for fourth in opponents' first downs compared with seventh the previous year.

The 59-year-old South Carolina native joined the Ducks following six seasons as defensive line coach with the Arizona Cardinals of the National Football League (2007-12) and eight years tutoring the defensive line at the University of Iowa (1999-2006).

During his NFL tenure, he played a role in the development of three-time All-Pro defensive tackle Darnell Dockett, who led the league's interior linemen in quarterback sacks in 2007 (9) and 2009 (7), and tied the franchise record for most sacks in a single season by a defensive tackle the former year. Aiken also aided in the emergence of defensive end Calais Campbell, who led or shared the team lead in QB takedowns in 2011 (8), 2010 (6) and 2009 (7) before pacing all Arizona linemen in 2012 (6.5).

The Cardinals tied for 11th in the NFL with 38 sacks and were 12th in total defense (337.8 avg.) in 2012. They ranked in the upper half of the league in quarterback sacks in five of his six campaigns in Phoenix, including sixth and seventh in the NFL in 2009 (43) and 2011 (42), respectively.

At Iowa, Aiken was honored as the Division I Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association in 2002, helping the Hawkeyes to six straight postseason appearances from 2001-06. The program ranked among the nation's top eight teams against the run from 2002-04, allowing opponents fewer than 100 yards per game rushing each year, and rated among the top three programs in the Big Ten Conference in rushing defense from 2001-2005.

Iowa ranked fifth in the country in rushing defense in 2002 (81.9 avg.) and 2004 (92.5 avg.), seventh in scoring defense (16.2 avg.) and 16th in total defense (314.5 avg.) in 2003, along with 11th in total defense (293.8 avg.) and 16th in scoring defense (17.6 avg.) in '04.

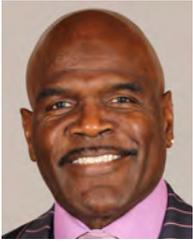

During his Iowa City stint he tutored a quintet of future NFL players, including two-time (2006-07) Pro Bowl pick Aaron Kampman (Green Bay) and Jonathan Babineaux, who ranked second in the country in tackles for loss (25) as a collegian in 2004. In addition, he coached one All-American and seven first-team Big Ten all-conference selections in his eight seasons there.

Prior to joining the Hawkeyes, Aiken coached linebackers at San Diego State in 1998, where all three of his linebackers earned all-conference accolades; tutored the defensive tackles at Texas in 1997; worked with the defensive line at Vanderbilt in 1995 and '96; and oversaw the linebackers and defensive ends at New Mexico from 1990-94.

The 1977 graduate of North Carolina A&T broke into the profession as an offensive line coach at Boiling Springs (S.C.) High School that fall before becoming head coach at Greensville County (Va.) High School in 1979. He migrated to the collegiate ranks as offensive line and special teams coach at Bethany (Kan.) College in 1980 prior to becoming the offensive coordinator at Tarkio (Mo.) College in 1982, spent one season as special team's coordinator at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (N.Y.) in 1985, and then served as head coach at Langston (Okla.) University from 1986-89.

Aiken was an all-conference offensive lineman and 1976 team captain at North Carolina A&T, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history before receiving a masters in secondary education from The Citadel in 1982.

Gary Campbell

running backs

33rd season at Oregon

UCLA, 1973

Oregon's longest-tenured football coach in school history also is unsurpassed among the nation's Bowl Championship Subdivision active coaches with the longest continuous full-time service at one school. But of more importance than Gary Campbell's longevity has been his true passion for the players he mentors on and off the field.

The result has been the most prolific rushing attacks in school history as he is in his fourth decade tutoring the Ducks' running backs after first joining the school's coaching staff in 1983.

His thorough comprehension of the running game in an age where throwing the football has become more fashionable has been vital to Oregon's unprecedented success as it has led the conference in rushing each of the last nine years. Furthermore, it has finished the season ranked among the top six in the country in rushing six times within the last eight years while setting school single-season records four times in the last seven seasons.

He was named the Bowl Subdivision Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association following the 2014 season.

Four of his disciples began this season in the NFL, including De'Anthony Thomas, who Kansas City utilizes in a multitude of roles.

The Ducks ranked second in the country in rushing with 3,641 yards in 2008 (280.1 avg.) before setting the new school standard with 3,721 in 2010 (286.2 avg.). That was surpassed in 2011, with the program's stable of running backs tallying 4,189 yards. Oregon's rushing average from 2012 was third in the country (315.2) to eclipse the previous standard from '11 (299.2 avg.).

In addition, Oregon tied for the nation's lead in rushing touchdowns in 2012 with 48 while it has accumulated 40 or more TDs on the ground six times within the last seven years.

Two of his latest pupils - Kenjon Barner and LaMichael James - each departed as consensus first-team All-Americans while returnee Royce Freeman became the Ducks' ninth 1,000-yard rusher in the last eight seasons a year ago.

Freeman became Oregon's second running back in six years to be named the Pac-12's Freshman Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2010, Campbell was named as one of the top 10 recruiters in the Pac-10 by Rivals.com.

Among the school's 17 players with at least one season of 1,000 or more rushing yards, Campbell has coached 15 of them. Included is James, who completed his career as Oregon's most prolific ball carrier in school history in 2011. The school's first freshman ever to eclipse the 1,000-yard plateau (2009) and the only three-time 1,000-yard rusher completed his career holding the Ducks' one-season (1,805) and career (5,082) rushing records.

While it was Jonathan Stewart, who broke the school's 10-year-old single-season rushing mark with 1,722 yards in 2007, "Coach Cam" oversaw James' sophomore season in 2010, when the Heisman Trophy finalist broke Stewart's UO record with 1,731 yards of his own. That standard has since been surpassed twice in the last three seasons.

James became the first player in conference history to eclipse 1,500 yards in three separate campaigns.

In addition, Campbell twice has tutored a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in the same season since 2001, as well as three conference rushing champions in James (2010 and 2011), Stewart (2007) and Saladin McCullough (1997).

James not only became Oregon's first NCAA rushing champion (144.3 avg.) in 2010, he became the school's first Doak Walker Award winner as the nation's top running back and finished third in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

After spending the off-season prior to 2007 administering innovative vision drills with Stewart, his prize pupil shattered the former single-season rushing record by nearly 400 yards and featured two games of more than 250 yards - the second and third highest single-game totals in school history at that time. The junior also became the first Duck to surpass 2,000 all-purpose yards in a season, finishing with 2,481.

But Campbell has prided himself in the expansion of his pupils' talents beyond that of just running with the football. His players tend to develop versatility, as evidenced by a pair of his 1,000-yard rushers tallying more than 50 receptions in one year. No better example of that flexibility can be offered than Terrence Whitehead. In 2004, Whitehead rushed for 1,144 yards, good for second in the Pac-10. The following season, his talents as a receiver were utilized as an extension of the Ducks' running game as the program's fifth-leading rusher of all time caught 52 passes for 490 yards to complement his 679 yards on the ground. He became only the second player in school history to accumulate 100 or more yards rushing and receiving in the same game, doing so at Arizona State in 2005.

Campbell's tutelage helped Maurice Morris become the school's first back-to-back 1,000-yard rusher in school history (2000-01), followed by Onterrio Smith (2001-02) and James (2009-10-11).

The Ennis, Texas, native's efforts have been extremely visible in the school's record books as 19 of the Ducks' top-21 single-season rushing totals have been recorded by Campbell protégés. Campbell's backs also own Oregon's top eight career rushing marks.

A proponent of the importance of developing running backs' all-around game, he successfully tutored the school's first conference rushing champion in 26 years in McCullough. One of the Ducks' best tailbacks also established a school record by rushing for 15 TDs in only seven games in 1996.

The former standard was bettered in 2008 (LeGarrette Blount, 17 TDs), as well as again in 2010 (James, 21) and 2012 (Barner, 21). Barner also equaled the league's single-game record for rushing TDs (5).

In 1998, he honed the talents of Reuben Droughns into becoming the first player in school history to rush for better than 200 yards in more than one game in the same season.

A former starting fullback at UCLA, the 64-year-old Campbell came to Oregon in 1983 after one season at Pacific. In addition to his playing days at UCLA in the early 1970s, where he scored two touchdowns while on the losing end of one of Oregon's biggest victories to that point in time (41-40 in 1970), he was a graduate assistant for the Bruins in 1976-78.

Erik Chinander outside linebackers second season at Oregon University of Iowa, 2003

Erik Chinander, who has been associated with football programs that have accrued a record of 117-38 at the junior college, FBS, FCS and professional levels, is in his second season as the Ducks' outside linebackers coach.

The 35-year-old Iowa native served as assistant defensive line coach for the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2013 season following three years as an intern (2010) and graduate assistant (2011-12) for the Ducks under former head coach Chip Kelly.

He has made an immediate impact on the defense's success both on and off the field. The tireless recruiter helped elevate the game of Tony Washington, who graduated second on the team in tackles for loss (11.5-76 yds.) and quarterback sacks (6.0-63 yds.) in addition to tying for third in the Pac-12 in forced fumbles (3). In addition he molded Tyson Coleman into a 15-game starter in addition molding the Ducks' depth along the perimeter.

Among the mentors for the energetic Chinander was the Ducks' former defensive line coach Jerry Azzinaro, who also worked alongside Oregon's newest assistant coach in the NFL.

He contributed to defensive efforts that finished third in the Pac-12 Conference in scoring defense and fourth against the run in 2012, as well as led the league in quarterback sacks in 2011.

Philadelphia completed the 2013 regular season 10th in the league in rushing defense.

While taking into account his previous stops at Northern Iowa (2004-09) and Ellsworth (Iowa) Community College (2003), he has contributed to the success of programs that advanced to postseason play on 13 occasions within his last 14 years in the game.

Included among his pupils during his previous Oregon stint were all-conference standouts Kenny Rowe, Brandon Bair and Dion Jordan, who was the No. 3 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

With the Eagles, he served as assistant defensive line coach and was involved in assisting with the development of defensive game and practice plans, coordinating the scout teams and the evaluation of current and future personnel.

The Ducks made three BCS bowl appearances during his tenure, including the 2011 BCS National Championship and wins in the 2012 Rose and 2013 Fiesta bowls, in addition to claiming a pair of conference championships.

Prior to his previous Oregon stay, Chinander coached slotbacks and tight ends at Northern Iowa, where he coached alongside the Ducks' offensive coordinator Scott Frost in 2007 and 2008. In addition, he assisted with the defensive and special teams scout units.

His tight ends made major strides throughout his tenure in Cedar Falls while he also gained the reputation as a tireless recruiter. He tutored the Missouri Valley Football Conference's second-team all-league honorees in 2008 and '09 while Ross Hannam was second on the team in receptions (22) in 2006. Several of his players were invited into NFL camps following their collegiate careers while UNI stepped up a level of competition to defeat Iowa State, 24-13, in 2007 before dropping a 17-16 decision at Iowa in 2009.

UNI won three league titles and played for the FCS national championship in 2005 while the Panthers advanced to the FCS semifinals in 2008. They completed that season with a 12-3 record after posting a 12-1 mark the previous year.

Chinander was in charge of both the offensive and defensive lines at Ellsworth (Iowa) Community College in 2003 as the program finished second in the region. In his lone year there, he coached a trio of first-team and one honorable mention all-region standouts, in addition to coordinating strength and conditioning programs for the football and men's and women's basketball teams.

The former offensive line walk-on at the University of Iowa (1998-2002) played on teams that won the 2001 Alamo Bowl and participated in the 2003 Orange Bowl as Big 10 Conference champions. His playing career coincided with the assistant coaching tenure of the Ducks' second-year defensive line coach Ron Aiken, who served as the defensive line coach in Iowa City from 1999-2006.

Chinander was honored with the Hawkeyes' Offensive Team Leader award following his senior season (2002).

The first-team all-state prep standout and son of a high school football coach earned a bachelor's degrees from Iowa in health leisure and sports studies, as well as history, in 2003.

Steve Greatwood
 running game coordinator |
 offensive line
 29th season at Oregon
 University of Oregon, 1980

One individual whose contributions have been overshadowed in Oregon's offensive success has been Steve Greatwood, who is in his 24th season coaching Oregon's offensive line, as well as his 29th year on the Ducks' coaching staff.

The 33-year coaching veteran and Eugene native, who has logged 34 years at his alma mater as a player and coach, returned to Oregon as its defensive line coach prior to the 2000 season following a five-year hiatus - two of which he spent coaching in the NFL.

The 57-year-old Greatwood was an integral part of Oregon's coaching staff for the first 13 seasons of his career that concluded with a berth in the 1995 Rose Bowl, concentrating his efforts on the offensive line from 1982-94.

It has been no different since he resumed his role with the offensive line in 2005 and was elevated to running game coordinator in 2009. During that span, Oregon has claimed nine consecutive conference rushing titles, has ranked in the top 10 in the country in rushing seven of the past eight seasons, and established school rushing records in four of the past seven campaigns.

From a statistical standpoint, it could be argued that Greatwood's offensive fronts from the past half-decade were among the best in school history. Oregon ranked fourth nationally in rushing (286.2 avg.) in 2010, thanks to a school-record 3,721 yards. In addition, the Ducks allowed a meager 10 sacks in 13 games (0.77 avg.) that year, which ranked seventh in the nation.

In 2012, Oregon averaged better than 300 yards per game running with the football for the first time in school history (315.2), ranking third in the country.

While its rushing attack has been characterized by some as a finesse style in the past, Greatwood has transformed the mentality into a power game. Oregon tied for the nation's lead in rushing touchdowns (48) in 2012, eclipsed 4,000 yards rushing for the second time in as many years and set the school record for most first downs on the ground (204).

In 2011, his charges performed at peak efficiency. Replacing three starters in the trenches, the Ducks surpassed previous outputs, following up with 4,189 yards on the ground (299.2 avg.) to finish fifth in the country while allowing only 14 quarterback sacks in 14 games.

The 2008 interior line wasn't too shabby either, ranking second nationally in rushing (280.1 avg.), leading the Pac-10 for the third time in as many years and setting a team standard with 3,641 yards on the ground.

For his efforts, Greatwood was singled out as the nation's college football Assistant Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com, in addition to previously being praised as one the top assistant coaches in the country by Rivals.com.

Yet 2014 had to be considered among his most gratifying efforts. Injuries along the trenches tested Oregon's depth to its limits as he was forced to insert 10 separate players into eight different starting lineups.

One of the nation's most underrated technicians, the former Oregon standout tutored two-time All-American Max Unger, with the second round 2009 NFL draft choice earning NFL All-Pro accolades in 2012 and 2013. He also nurtured the careers of All-Americans Jake Fisher and Hroniss Grasu.

Greatwood has tutored seven offensive linemen who were drafted into the NFL over the past eight years, including 2013 first-round pick Kyle Long.

In addition to the Ducks setting a single-season rushing record in 2007, they established a single-game record 465 yards on the ground at Washington, which was later eclipsed with 528 rushing yards vs. Portland State in 2010.

During the 2006 season, the Ducks allowed only 16 sacks to place second in the league in fewest sacks allowed, as his unit played a big part in Oregon leading the league in rushing (182.2 avg.) for the first time since 1955.

His return to the offensive line in 2005 paid immediate dividends as he molded a relatively inexperienced group that included only two returning starters into one that was forced to quickly adapt to a new scheme. The result was a spread offense that improved from 10th in the Pac-10 Conference to third in quarterback sacks allowed (20) as well as ranked among the top 20 in the country in three of four major categories.

While overseeing the defensive line in 2004, the Ducks held their opponents to 122.1 yards per game on the ground - the fifth consecutive season under Greatwood the UO defensive line had helped hold its opponents under 125 yards per game rushing.

In 2003, the Duck defensive line helped post a No. 16 national ranking against the run (107.1 ypg.), highlighted by a trio of all-league defensive linemen. Both Igor Olshansky and Junior Siavii were drafted in the second round of the 2004 NFL draft.

Greatwood's defensive lines held opponents to negative rushing yards on four occasions in the five seasons, including -3 net yards by No. 3 Michigan in 2003, and limited a Colorado team that came into the 2002 Fiesta Bowl ranked eighth in the country in rushing (228.5 avg.) to only 49 yards.

Following the 1994 season and Oregon's Pacific-10 Conference championship, Greatwood departed with former Ducks' head coach Rich Brooks to coach the offensive line and tight ends with the St. Louis Rams. He rejoined the collegiate ranks in 1997 at Maryland before returning to the West Coast the following year and heading the offensive line at USC for two seasons.

In addition to his various coaching duties along the offensive line, Greatwood spent all but one year of his previous stint as a full-time Oregon assistant also tutoring the team's tight ends.

Receiving his sociology degree from Oregon in 1980, Greatwood initiated his coaching career as the Ducks' defensive graduate assistant for two years before he was elevated to offensive line/tight ends coach in 1982.

Matt Lubick

wide receivers
third season at Oregon
Colorado State, 1995

Matt Lubick possesses a perspective that resonates from 18 years of collegiate coaching experience in no fewer than four different conferences, which paid immediate dividends in Oregon's 2013 and 2014 success.

He was added to the Ducks' coaching staff on Jan. 28, 2013 as the program's passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach and continued the transformation of Oregon's receiving corps' mindset with an aggression that emphasizes attacking the football in addition to being crucial to the success of its running game.

Lubick came to Eugene following three seasons in a similar capacity while also serving as recruiting coordinator at Duke University, culminating his tenure there by being named the nation's 2012 Wide Receivers Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com.

A former Pac-10 assistant at Arizona State and Oregon State who also has drawn from his ties in the ACC, SEC and Mountain West conferences, inherited a group of veteran receivers but played a major role in elevating their talents to a new level. He assumes a lot of the credit for the Ducks' Josh Huff and Bralon Addison emerging as the school's best receiving tandem in a decade, with Huff's numbers (62 catches, 1,140 yards, 12 TDs) surpassing a 33-year-old school record for receiving yards and equaling the mark for most scoring catches in one year.

The numbers put up through the air were unprecedented in 2014. The Ducks posted school-records for passing yards (4,687), completions (326), and first downs passing (198) while bringing in a conference all-time best 44 touchdown catches.

Seven different receivers hauled in 20 passes or more for the second time in three seasons, however few were more impressive than Byron Marshall. After rushing for 1,038 yards in 2013, Lubick was key to Marshall's transformation that led him lead the team in receiving with 74 catches for 1,003 yards.

Receivers combined for nine games of more than 100 yards through the air in 2013 – Oregon's third-most on record – while the 3,789 yards represented the program's best in 15 years as well as the third-most in school history. They also were key components in hauling in the fourth-most single-season catches (256) in Oregon annals as well as a 291.5-yard avg. in receiving yards, representing the highest output in eight seasons.

At Duke, Lubick earned national position coach accolades after guiding all-Atlantic Coast Conference wide outs Jamison Crowder and Conner Vernon to record-setting seasons. Crowder caught 76 passes for 1,074 yards and eight touchdowns while Vernon carded a school single-season record 85 catches for 1,074 yards and eight TDs. The pair established an ACC record for most combined receptions by a duo and became just the second tandem in conference history to post over 1,000 receiving yards each in the same year.

Also In 2012, Lubick coached three receivers - Crowder, Desmond Scott and Vernon - who formed the only trio nationally to have 65-plus pass receptions apiece. The group combined for 227 catches for 2,814 yards and 18 touchdowns while helping the Blue Devils to post-season play for the first time since 1994. In addition, Vernon - a three-time all-ACC pick - closed his career as the ACC's all-time leader in both pass receptions (283) and receiving yards (3,749).

As a result, the 44-year-old Lubick was one of three finalists for the AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year award and one of 29 nominees for the Broyles Award, an honor presented annually to the top assistant coach in the nation.

In 2011, the Blue Devils ranked second in the ACC in passing offense while Vernon became the first player in league history to post multiple seasons with 70-plus receptions. In addition, wide-out Donovan Varner eclipsed the school's all-time catch record, closing his career with 207 receptions - matching the fourth-highest total in ACC history.

Following Lubick's arrival at Durham in February of 2010, Vernon enjoyed a terrific season with 73 receptions for 973 yards and four touchdowns. The all-ACC choice paced the conference in receptions per game (6.08) while his 73 catches fell one short of the school single-season record. In addition, Vernon coupled with Varner (60 receptions, 736 yards) and Austin Kelly (47 receptions, 486 yards) to form the most prolific pass-catching trio in school history with a combined 180 grabs for 2,195 yards.

Prior to elevating the Blue Devils' passing game and recruiting, Lubick spent three seasons (2007-09) on the staff at Arizona State. With the Sun Devils, Lubick served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator while coaching the safeties.

Lubick is credited with signing former Ole Miss standout Dexter McCluster while on staff in Oxford. McCluster was an all-SEC pick in 2009 after becoming the first player in league history to amass over 1,000 rushing yards and over 500 receiving yards in the same season.

In 1995, Lubick got his start in coaching as a student assistant coach and academic supervisor under his father, Sonny, at Colorado State University. He then coached one season (1996) at Cal State Northridge and two campaigns (1997-98) at San Jose State. From 1999-00, Lubick was on the staff at Oregon State where he coached the defensive backs while helping coordinate the Beavers' recruiting efforts.

A 1995 graduate of Colorado State, Lubick returned to his alma mater for a four-year stint on the coaching staff from 2001-04. Coaching the Rams' wide receivers, he helped Colorado State to the 2002 Mountain West Conference championship as well as three straight bowl games in 2001 (New Orleans), 2002 (Liberty) and 2003 (San Francisco). Lubick then served two years (2005-06) on the staff at Ole Miss, coaching the wide receivers.

A native of Bozeman, Mont., Lubick attended Western Montana College where he earned four varsity letters as a defensive back on the football team and earned all-conference and NAIA All-America honors as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from Colorado State in 1995.

John Neal
 passing game coordinator |
 defensive secondary
 13th season at Oregon
 Brigham Young University, 1980

John Neal, who has accumulated 33 years of experience tutoring defensive secondaries in the Pac-10/12, SEC, Conference USA and WAC, is now beginning his 13th season at Oregon.

The personable Mountain View, Calif., native has fostered an aggressive mentality amongst his players at every level he has coached that is conducive to his defenders focusing on the football as much as opponents' receivers. The result has been the building of secondaries that have been among the nation's leaders in interceptions while producing numerous NFL draft picks, including seven over the past seven seasons. One of those picks - Jairus Byrd - led the NFL with nine interceptions as a rookie with the Buffalo Bills in 2009.

Neal was rewarded with the additional responsibilities of the defense's passing game coordinator following last season.

That penchant for concentrating on the football reached a pinnacle in 2012, with the Ducks completing the year leading the country in interceptions with a school-record 26 picks. In addition, cornerback Ifo Ekpre-Olomu led the Pac-12 (7th nationally) that season in passes defended (1.54 avg.).

Ekpre-Olomu completed his career a year ago as a three-time first-team Pac-12 all-conference honoree while both Erick Dargan and Troy Hill earned second-team all-league accolades.

In 2013, three of Oregon's top five tacklers resided in the secondary, with Ekpre-Olomu looming second on the team in take downs (84). Junior cornerback Terrance Mitchell tied for fifth in the Pac-12 in interceptions (5) and ranked seventh in the league in passes defended (12) for a unit which ranked seventh in the country in pass efficiency defense.

Last year, two of the Ducks' top three tacklers were defensive backs, led by safety Erick Dargan's team-leading 95 stops.

During Oregon's BCS National Championship Game run in 2010, the Ducks ranked sixth in the country with 21 interceptions as secondary mates John Boyett (5) and Cliff Harris (6) combined for 11. Harris led the Pac-10 in picks and also paced the country in passes defended (23) while earning second-team All-America honors at cornerback. UO's other corner, Talmadge Jackson III, was named first-team all-conference.

It was Neal's expertise that assisted the conversion of Eddie Pleasant from outside linebacker to a first-team all-conference choice at rover in 2011, as well as aided the progression of Boyett, who led the Ducks in tackles twice within his first three years.

Neal's 2010 charges also played a large role in Oregon ranking seventh nationally in pass efficiency defense (104.00), 12th in scoring defense (18.69) and 20th in opponent 3rd down conversions (35.07%).

The Ducks led the Pac-12 in pass efficiency defense in 2012 and 2013.

What made 2009 remarkable in Eugene was the fact Neal had to develop a secondary without two of its top three expectant stalwarts at cornerback with the season-ending injuries to Walter Thurmond III and Willie Glasper in the first half of the season. Yet Jackson tied for fourth in the Pac-10 in interceptions (4) and sixth in passes defended (0.83 avg.).

Neal has been instrumental in teaching the art of the takeaways and has the numbers to prove it. Oregon's defense has finished among the top three in the conference in interceptions six of the past 10 years while ranking third or better in the league in pass efficiency defense nine times during that same span.

The Ducks' 20 interceptions in 2007 were the second-most among Pac-10 schools and tied for 10th in the nation, while Byrd tied for ninth (0.54 avg.) among individuals. Neal's defensive backs were a large factor in UO's top Pac-10 ranking in turnover margin (0.69 avg., 18th nationally), after a second-to-last finish in that statistic in 2006.

Oregon finished second in the country with 23 interceptions in 2005, marking the program's most thefts in 37 years, as well as the Pac-10 Conference's runner-up in pass efficiency defense (26th nationally). Neal played a major role in the Ducks leading the league in total defense for the first time since 1958 as well as pass defense for the second straight year in 2006.

He has been credited with much of the development of his players as well, with at least 11 members of the secondary earning all-conference honors in the past 10 seasons. Byrd and Patrick Chung were both named first-team Pac-10 all-conference choices in 2008 - the first time in 14 years the Ducks have been accorded more than one first-team league honoree in the secondary in the same season. Chung attracted All-America attention in each of his final two seasons, as did Ekpre-Olomu each of his last three seasons.

Prior to arriving at Oregon during the spring of 2003, the 58-year-old Neal spent eight seasons coaching the defensive backs at Alabama-Birmingham. He served as defensive coordinator his last two seasons at UAB, where the Blazers ranked fifth in the country in total defense in 2001 (265.9 avg.).

Helping UAB upgrade from the NCAA FCS level to full FBS status in Conference USA, Neal assisted in building the Blazers' program in many ways aside from his work on the field. He volunteered to be the team's recruiting coordinator, a position he held for six years. He also assumed duties with UAB's special teams, instructing punters, the punt return team and kick return team at some point during his eight-year tenure.

Before moving to UAB in 1995, Neal served as secondary coach at Mississippi from 1992-94. His 1993 squad led the nation in total defense (234.5 avg.) and ranked third against the pass while allowing the fewest touchdown passes in the country (5). The Rebels finished sixth nationally in pass defense while leading the SEC in 1994.

Neal sandwiched a pair of stints as defensive coordinator at Pacific (1990-91) and East Tennessee State (1986) around a three-year tenure as defensive backs coach at Oregon State (1987-89). The Beavers ranked second in the Pac-10 in pass defense in 1987 (183.3 avg.).

The 1980 Brigham Young graduate earned all-WAC honors at defensive back as a senior in 1979. He transferred to BYU after playing two seasons at Foothill Junior College (Los Altos Hills, Calif.).

He broke into the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in the spring of 1980 before moving to New Mexico to coach the Lobos' junior varsity team that fall. Neal was elevated to full-time assistant coach at New Mexico in 1981, where he coached linebackers and defensive backs through the 1985 campaign.

Jim Radcliffe
strength & conditioning
31st season at Oregon
Pacific University, 1980

One of the most overlooked elements in the success of Oregon's student-athletes is Jim Radcliffe, now in his 29th year as the school's head strength and conditioning coach and 31st overall. He not only plays a significant role in the Ducks' football program as the designer of the year-round conditioning calendar but also has been quick to aid the athletic development of athletes in the sports of baseball as well as men's and women's track & field.

While he has long been one of the integral components to the program's success – as often credited by both past and present Oregon student-athletes – his work and innovation are now recognized as one of the overwhelming contributions to the fast pace the football team has employed the past five years.

During his tenure as the longest among his counterparts within the Pac-12 Conference, he has established himself as a highly-respected teacher, coach and author. An active clinician throughout the country, he is widely recognized as one of the leading authorities regarding exercise for the development of strength, speed and agility.

In addition to overseeing a strength and conditioning program that was named one of the top 10 in the country in 2013 by Bleacher Report, Radcliffe was included on a list of the 65 most influential strength coaches of all time by another 2012 website, as well as one of three national finalists for FootballScoop's Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award in 2010.

Radcliffe, who guided the receivers during much of the 1999 fall camp, furnishes the student-athletes with a wide variety of exercise through weight training and lifting systems, and is a noted authority in the field of exercises dealing with the improvement of speed and quickness.

The 57-year-old McCloud, Calif., native became assistant strength coach at Oregon in 1985, a position he held for two years before assuming the direction over his specialty.

Radcliffe taught and coached a variety of sports and was the athletic trainer for four years at Aloha (OR) High School from 1980-83.

He then did graduate study at Colorado and worked in private business prior to joining the Ducks' staff. Graduating from Pacific (OR) with a degree in physical education and health in 1980, he played four seasons at defensive back and was captain of the special teams. Radcliffe earned his Master's in biomechanics from Oregon in 1992.

Radcliffe is active in national organizations surrounding his profession and is certified by the United States Weightlifting Federation. He also has written books, been published in numerous professional journals and produced videos on plyometrics, one of the most effective exercise techniques.

Joe Bernardi
offensive graduate assistant
third year
Fresno State, 2010

Joe Bernardi is in his third season at Oregon after working with Tennessee's offensive line as a quality control assistant for two seasons. A four-year starting center at Fresno State, the 2010 communications graduate was named to the Rimington Award watch list prior to his junior and senior seasons. His father, Gary, is a 34-year Division I collegiate coaching veteran, including stops at Colorado (third year), Arizona, UCLA and USC.

Kwame Agyeman
defensive graduate assistant
first year
Oregon, 2008

The former Oregon linebacker (2004-07) and two-year starter returns following a seven-year absence after receiving his undergraduate degree in political science at Oregon in 2008. The Illinois native played in the Arena Football League for three seasons while breaking into the coaching ranks as a volunteer assistant at Springfield's (OR) Thurston High School. He returned home to teach and coach at his prep alma mater - Lake Park (IL) High School (2010-13) - before initiating his career in collegiate athletics at Northwestern (2013 recruiting assistant; 2014 special teams quality control assistant coach).

Nate Costa
offensive graduate assistant
third year
Oregon, 2010

A former Oregon quarterback from 2006-10, Nate Costa endured an injury-plagued career to complete 50 of 71 passes for 556 yards and two touchdowns during the Ducks' 2009 Rose Bowl run and 2010 BCS National Championship Game campaign. The sociology graduate was voted his team's most inspirational player following a senior season highlighted by his completing 75.8 percent of his passes and running for 138 yards and two scores in nine appearances in 2010.

Matt Noyer
offensive intern
third year
Oregon, 2012

Matt Noyer served as a student assistant in the equipment room for three years before receiving his undergraduate degree in general social science from Oregon in the spring of 2012. He then volunteered in the athletics department in the areas of player development and on-campus recruiting until his current appointment.

TJ Paganetti
defensive graduate assistant
first year
Oregon, 2012

The former Oregon football student intern returns to Eugene following a two-year absence after serving as an analyst for the football staff with the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2013 and '14 seasons. The Bedford, Mass., native broke into the collegiate football ranks with the Ducks as an undergraduate intern in 2007 while earning his degree in political science from Oregon in 2012. Following his graduation, he was then elevated to the position of offensive intern during the program's successful Fiesta Bowl run in 2012.

Shawn Young
defensive intern
third year
Oregon, 2012

Shawn Young enters his third season as a defensive line and special teams intern for Oregon. Prior to being an intern, Young assisted with the football program as an undergraduate from 2009-13 and earned a B.S. in economics with a minor in business administration. He played his college football at Fresno State and also competed in Namibia's Professional Rugby League from 2001-04.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON TEAM AWARDS

Oregon Football Awards

Skeie's Award (fka Hoffman Award)
Presented to the team's outstanding player in a vote of team members.

Gonyea Award

The Joe Gonyea family presents the Wil Gonyea Award to the members of the football team to honor the squad's most inspirational player.

Casanova Award

Originated by Oregon's former head football coach and athletics director, is given to a first-year player who best exemplifies the ideal of competitiveness, team inspiration and outstanding performance.

Clarke Trophy

Selected as the most improved by the coaching staff, the award was inaugurated in honor of Dudley Clarke, captain of Oregon's 1909 team.

Ed Moshofsky Award

Oregon's top offensive lineman is the recipient of the Ed Moshofsky Award, which is a culmination of a year-long series of weekly citations voted by the Oregon Club of Portland's membership.

Joe Schaffeld Trophy

Named after Oregon's 24-year veteran assistant coach and former player, is awarded to the team's top defensive lineman.

Gordon E. Wilson Award

Given to Oregon's top performer on special teams, it is named on behalf of a former Oregon football letterman (1923-24) and given by the Glass family of Eugene and Portland.

Bob Officer Award

Presented to a player who has made a major contribution toward the success of the football program despite physical adversity, and is named after the Ducks's former head trainer.

Senior Academic/Attitude Award

Is given to the senior with a high academic average who has shown an exemplary attitude. (also known as Sahlstrom Award)

Duane Cargill Award

Named in honor of the former Oregon letterman (1960-62), is awarded to the team's player who made a significant impact.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON ATHLETICS HONORS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
ATHLETICS AWARDSEmerald Athletic Trophy

Sponsored jointly by the athletic department and the Oregon Daily Emerald, it is awarded to a senior student based on outstanding achievement in the fields of athletics, scholarship and citizenship.

Higdon Trophy

It is awarded to a sophomore athletically for excellence in athletics, scholarship and citizenship. The honor is named after a former football and track standout who was killed prior to his junior year at Oregon.

Leo Harris Award

The Alumni Athletic Award was originated by the late Leo Harris, former director of athletics, and his wife and is given to an alumni letterman on the basis of 20 years of achievement and service since graduation.

Becky L. Sisley Award

Named after the University's first director of women's intercollegiate athletics, it is awarded to a former women's athlete commemorating community involvement, career development and support of University ideals.

NOTABLE OREGON STANDOUTS

Kenjon Barner (2009-12) — Took advantage of his lone season as Oregon's featured running back his senior season, earning consensus All-America acclaim and finishing as a finalist for the Doak Walker Award and Walter Camp Player-of-the-Year accolades. . .Completed collegiate career rushing for 3,623 yards and 41 touchdowns as well as 5,848 all-purpose yards and 50 scores. . .The first-team Pac-12 all-conference choice became the first player in at least 47 years to score touchdowns via the run, as a receiver, returning kickoffs and running back punts in a career in 2010. . .Graduated ranking second on the school's all-time rushing chart, 21 yards shy of the Ducks' career all-purpose yards record and third on their career scoring ledger (300). . .Set the Ducks' single-game rushing record with 321 yards in the win at USC, where he also equalled his modern-day record by scoring five touchdowns in the L.A. Coliseum. . .Also finished second on Oregon's single-season rushing list with 1,767 yards his senior season while ranking fourth in the country (135.9) in average yards per game. . .Ranked second on the school's one-season scoring table (138) and fourth in all-purpose yards (2,023), while tying for eighth in the nation in scoring (10.6 avg.) in 2012. . .Loomed as one of five Oregon standouts to rush for 200 yards or more in a single game on more than one occasions as a collegian. . .The 14th pick in the sixth round of the 2013 NFL Draft (Carolina) accumulated 47 all-purpose yards in eight games his rookie year before traded to Philadelphia prior to the 2014 season.

Steve Barnett (1960-62) — Oregon's two-time All-American and three-time All-Coast lineman was one of the primary benefactors for Mel Renfro and Bob Berry, helping the Ducks establish a school record for total offense in 1960 (3,671 yards)...Looms as one of the program's only two standouts (along with Joey Harrington) ever to receive All-America honors on the field as well as in the classroom, and equally adept on both offense and defense...Drafted in the second round by Chicago in 1963, concluded two-year professional career in 1964 with Washington.

J.W. Beckett (1913-16) — The exceptional halfback and defensive tackle co-captained Oregon team that beat Pennsylvania for the school's lone Rose Bowl victory as a senior, before proceeding to do the same the following year for the Mare Island Marines...The 185-pound Portland (Washington High School) standout was enshrined into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame before inducted into the inaugural class of Oregon's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1992...The retired brigadier general was assigned to the football coaching staff at Naval Academy in the late 1920s and named to Rutgers' football hall of fame as a player-coach in 1972.

Bob Berry (1962-64) — Guided Oregon to three-straight winning seasons for the first time in more than 25 years as well as its first post-season triumph (Sun Bowl) in 46 seasons...The school's first quarterback ever to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons passing completed collegiate career accumulating 4,543 yards total offense as well as 4,297 yards and 39 touchdowns passing...The 1964 first-team All-American endured a nine-year NFL career with Minnesota and Atlanta after being drafted in the 11th round by Philadelphia, throwing for 9,197 yards and 64 touchdowns ...Inducted into the state of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1987, was a member of the university's Athletic Hall of Fame inaugural class of 1992.

Mario Clark (1972-75) — Oregon's first true freshman defensive back ever to make his collegiate debut in the starting lineup also became the Pac-8's first freshman to earn conference defensive player of the week accolades...Accumulated 13 interceptions for 64 yards during a collegiate career highlighted by earning first-team all-conference honors (1975) as well as Senior Bowl defensive player-of-the-game acclaim...The 18th player chosen in the 1976 NFL draft started eight seasons in Buffalo, earning a spot on the league's all-rookie team before completing pro career with a Super Bowl championship in San Francisco in 1985...NFL tenure punctuated by totalling 26 interceptions.

Dennis Dixon (2004-07) — Oregon's dual-threat quarterback put together one of the best senior seasons in school history...Arguably the top performer among all college signal callers in 2007 before a knee injury prematurely curtailed his Heisman Trophy campaign and ultimately ended the Ducks' BCS title game hopes...The Pacific-10 Conference's unanimous Offensive Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American finished ninth on the school's single-season total offense chart

(2,719 yards) despite playing in only 10 games...Completing his requirements for his major in sociology in less than four years, his accolades combining his academic (3.33 gpa) and athletic talents were unprecedented in the football program's history...Finishing fourth in the balloting for Associated Press Player-of-the-Year, he was one of three finalists for the Maxwell Award (College Player of the Year) and the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award as well as one of five finalists for the Walter Camp Player-of-the-Year award...His academic achievements were even more impressive as the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District quarterback was one of five student-athletes in school history (and Oregon's first football player ever) to be bestowed with the NCAA Top VIII Award...Completed his collegiate career as the single-season and all-time school record-holder in passing completion percentage (67.7% and 63.9%, respectively)...Also established the school's standard for most career rushing yards (1,208) by an Oregon quarterback, while his 583 yards on the ground in 2007 finished second only to Reggie Ogburn's 644 yards from 1979 among the school's signal callers...A major league baseball prospect in the Atlanta Braves organization, he was drafted in the fifth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh and won a Super Bowl ring during his rookie season...Made is first pro start in 2009 and started two games in 2010 - both victories - before suffering a season-ending injury ... Won another Super Bowl ring with Baltimore as a member of the practice squad in 2013...Has posted 35 completions in 59 attempts for 402 yards and one TD throughout his five-year NFL career.

Tom Drougas (1969-71) — Earned first-team All-American honors his senior year while blocking for the likes of Dan Fouts and Bobby Moore (Ahmad Rashad), helping pave the way for Pac-8's individual rushing leader...Also named to conference's all-academic team ...The five-year NFL veteran made professional stops in Baltimore, Denver, Kansas City and Miami after being the 22nd player chosen in the 1972 NFL draft.

Dan Fouts (1970-72)

Dan Fouts (1970-72) — Oregon's 1972 MVP, became school's first quarterback to eclipse the 2,000 single-season passing yards barrier...Set no fewer than 19 school records, including total offense (5,871), passing yards (5,995) and touchdown passes (37)...Drafted in the third round by San Diego in 1973, enjoyed a stellar 14-year professional career, passing for 43,040 yards and 254 touchdowns...Established NFL records for most 300-yard games (51) and 3,000-yard seasons (6)...One of only three pro quarterbacks to throw for more than 40,000 yards during a career, set eight NFL records and 42 team marks before retiring in 1987... The 1982 NFL MVP played in six Pro Bowls before being inducted into NFL Hall of Fame in July 1993...Named to state of Oregon's Sports Hall of Fame as well as university's Athletic Hall of Fame.

2015 CFP CHAMPIONSHIP

Ohio State 42, Oregon 20
Jan. 12, 2015
Arlington, Texas
Attendance: 85,689

ARLINGTON, Texas — Oregon's second trip to the national championship game in five years ended in similarly frustrating fashion, as the No. 2-ranked Ducks fell to fourth-ranked Ohio State, 42-20, in the inaugural College Football Playoff championships before 85,689 Monday night at AT&T Stadium.

Oregon bounced back from an 11-point halftime deficit to pull within a 21-20 disadvantage with just over 6 minutes remaining in the third quarter, but it was unable to contain the Buckeyes' sophomore running back Ezekiel Elliott. Running for better than 200 yards in each of his two previous outings against Wisconsin and Alabama, Elliott tallied 148 of his 246 rushing yards in the second half while scoring three of his four touchdowns in just over the final 15 minutes of the game.

Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Marcus Mariota did his best to keep the Ducks within striking distance, taking his team 75-yards downfield on the opening drive to give Oregon a 7-0 advantage. Completing all four pass attempts while mixing in a quartet of Thomas Tyner runs, two of his own, and one by Royce Freeman, Mariota capped the drive with a 7-yard touchdown pass to Keanon Lowe.

The opportunity existed for the Ducks to do further damage by forcing Ohio State to punt on its first series but a pair of dropped passes on third down on the next two possessions allowed the Big Ten Conference representative to get its offense untracked.

Elliott's 33-yard TD run, a short scoring pass from quarterback Cardale Jones to Nick Vannett, and a 1-yard touchdown plunge by Jones provide the Bucks with a 21-7 cushion.

The first of two Aidan Schneider field goals cut the halftime deficit to 21-10 before a 70-yard scoring toss from Mariota to Byron Marshall gave the Ducks life early in the third quarter. An Arik Armstead fumble recovery led to Schneider's second three-pointer and suddenly Oregon felt it's first football national championship could be within its grasp.

But Oregon's inability to convert two other Buckeyes' turnovers into points and Ohio State successfully keeping the football away from the Ducks' high-powered offense in the second half proved to be the formula for victory. The winners were able to possess the football more than 16 minutes longer than Oregon over the course of the game's final 30 minutes.

Making his final appearance in an Oregon uniform, Mariota came within a trio of completions from equalling his collegiate high, finishing the night 24-37 for 333 yards and two touchdowns.

However Ohio State's plan to limit Mariota's effectiveness on the ground also proved to be a factor in its success. The program's second-leading rusher was held to a per-carry average of only 3.9 yards-per-attempt as well as a long run of only 8 yards.

A beneficiary of Mariota's passing prowess was Marshall. In the process of equalling his single-game personal-best eight catches for an all-time high 169 yards, Marshall not only became the 10th player to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in school history, he became the first in the conference record books to ever grab 1,000 receiving yards and run for 1,000 yards (2013).

ROSE BOWL

Oregon 59, Florida State 20
Jan. 1, 2015
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 91,322

PASADENA, Calif — Oregon Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Mariota completed 26 of 36 passes for 338 yards and two touchdowns while accounting for an additional 62 yards and a third score on the ground to lead the second-ranked Ducks to a 59-20 win over defending national champion Florida State to advance to the College Football Playoff championship game.

The Ducks converted four consecutive second-half turnovers into touchdowns to expand a 25-20 third-quarter edge into a 39-point rout in a span of 12 minutes, 54 seconds. Oregon's total points represented a Rose Bowl game record for most points scored by one team.

The No. 3 Seminoles carried a string of 29-straight wins into the game in search of a second national championship in as many years, and remained within striking distance of Oregon's high-powered offense through the first half. They threatened to regain the lead early in the second quarter after moving the ball down to the Ducks' 7-yard line. But three tries from 1 yard out could net the Atlantic Coast Conference champions no closer to the end zone as Oregon answered with an 88-yard scoring drive and an Aidan Schneider 28-yard field goal with just over 10 minutes remaining before halftime.

The Ducks' much-celebrated quick-strike offense took advantage of the opportunities presented by their defense in the final 30 minutes.

Freshman running back Royce Freeman scored his second of two touchdowns of the day early in the third quarter, capping a 69-yard drive in only 1:32 following a Derrick Malone fumble recovery. After FSU quarterback Jameis Winston's lone TD pass of the day, Oregon put the game away with five unanswered touchdowns.

Redshirt freshman Darren Carrington hauled in scoring passes of 56 and 30 yards from Mariota before the defense struck the defining blow late in the third quarter. An overwhelming pass rush spun Winston around backwards before the football slipped out of his hands into the arms of the Ducks' outside linebacker Tony Washington, who raced 58 yards for the defensive touchdown.

Mariota and sophomore running back Thomas Tyner ended the scoring with TD runs of 23 and 21 yards in the first 5 minutes of the fourth quarter to provide Oregon with a single-season school record 13th win.

Oregon's offense racked up a Rose Bowl game record 639 yards of total offense while turning over the football only once.

Additional Rose Bowl records eclipsed by the Ducks included most points scored in the third quarter (27) and second half (41), as well as the biggest winning margin in a non-shutout (39 points).

An opportunistic defense forced seven Florida State fumbles while benefitting from five turnovers. Defensive backs Troy Hill and Reggie Daniels each accounted for nine tackles while Hill was responsible for a pair of passes broken up.

The victory in the inaugural CFP semifinal assured the Ducks of their second national championship appearance in five seasons. They advance to the BCS title game in Glendale, Ariz., to conclude their 2010 season.

2013 ALAMO BOWL

Oregon 30, Texas 7
Dec. 30, 2013
San Antonio, Texas
Attendance: 65,918

SAN ANTONIO, Texas – It was an opportunistic defense which stole some of the thunder from the nationally-acclaimed Oregon offense as the 10th-ranked Ducks put Texas away in the fourth quarter in Mack Brown's final game as the Longhorns' head coach.

Reminiscent of its bowl win from the previous year against Kansas State, Oregon struck early. Senior safety Avery Patterson jumped on an errant Case McCoy pass and returned the interception 37 yards for a touchdown only 68 seconds into the game before linebacker Derrick Malone capped the night with a 38-yard interception return that ended in the end zone to key the Ducks' third post-season triumph in as many years.

The defenders' performance marked the fewest points the Green and Yellow had allowed in a bowl game since they dropped a 7-6 decision to Harvard in the 1920 Rose Bowl. It also fueled an 11th win for Head Coach Mark Helfrich, which not only represented a school record for most victories by a first-year head coach but also tied a conference record for most triumphs by a coaching newcomer with three others.

The victory not only was satisfying to the Oregon faithful but was of particular delight to defensive coordinator Nick Aliotti with the way the win unfolded. Even though his departure was certainly overshadowed by that of Brown's, Aliotti had announced his retirement the week of bowl preparations following 24 years in Eugene as a graduate assistant, outside linebackers coach and defensive coordinator.

"That's the first person I thought about when I caught the ball," Patterson said of his interception on the Longhorns' first possession. "I wanted to score for him," said the game's defensive MVP who added nine tackles.

The Ducks held Texas to only 236 yards of total offense, with 79 of that coming on its lone touchdown drive of the evening midway through the opening quarter. McCoy capped the 7-minute drive with a 1-yard scoring plunge to cut the deficit to 10-7. But the remainder of the game was all Oregon as it limited the home-state opponent to only 80 yards of total offense in the second half.

Buoyed by their teammates on the other side of the football, the Ducks' offense displayed touches of efficiency as well as a quick-strike firepower that has been its trademark when operating on all cylinders. Behind a quarterback at close to full strength for the first time in almost two months, sophomore Marcus Mariota dazzled the second-largest crowd in Alamo Bowl history by accounting for 386 total yards to earn the game's offensive MVP honors. Included was a game-high 133 yards rushing as he set the bowl game's record for most rushing yards by a quarterback.

The two-time first-team all-conference signal caller put Texas on notice early as he eluded the rush on Oregon's second play from scrimmage to convert a potential loss into a 4-yard gain and a first down. He followed that by tallying 23 yards on the ground over his next two snaps as he ran for all but 1 yard of his final total in the first half.

Perhaps the Ducks' only disappointment was not reaching the end zone more often despite being in control the majority of the game. They capped their first drive with a 25-yard field goal from freshman Matt Wogan to grab a 10-0 advantage prior to the Longhorns mounting their lone scoring drive of the night. But Oregon responded in typical fashion by answering the challenge with a 10-play, 60-yard scoring drive of its own that ended with Wogan's second of three field goals.

Just when it appeared the Ducks would be content taking a 6-point advantage going into the halftime locker room, their up-tempo attack kicked into high gear, beginning with Mariota's 33-yard run from his team's own 12-yard line. Six plays and 55 yards later, the 84-second drive ended with Mariota's 16-yard touchdown pass to Josh Huff as the game suddenly took on an entirely different complexion.

Texas' switch of quarterbacks made little difference against an UO defense that looked to be on a mission. They held their counterparts to a season-low 56 yards through the air and not even a 130-yard rushing effort from Malcolm Brown would manage to mount much of a threat.

Senior defensive lineman Taylor Hart concluded a workman-like career with 11 tackles and senior safety Brian Jackson added nine stops as the Ducks finished the year with 11 wins for only the fifth time in school history.

2013 FIESTA BOWL

Oregon 35, Kansas State 17
Jan. 3, 2013
Glendale, Ariz.
Attendance: 70,242

GLENDAL, Ariz. - It was Oregon's trademarked high-octane attack that grabbed most of the headlines yet it was a persistent defense which slowed a Heisman Trophy finalist that made the difference as the No. 5 Ducks pulled away from seventh-ranked Kansas State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The win marked Oregon's second BCS bowl triumph in as many years and provided a third-consecutive 12-win season for a program which finished the year ranked No. 2 in the country in the final polls.

The defining moments of the game's outcome were not difficult to pinpoint. The Ducks (12-1) wasted little time putting points on the scoreboard as sophomore De'Anthony Thomas returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown. Before the Wildcats could recover, they were hit with a two-point conversion run from Dion Jordan, to supply the Pac-12 Conference representatives an 8-0 cushion they would never relinquish less than a minute into the game.

Then came the Ducks' warp-speed scoring drive near the end of the first half that slowed any thoughts of a Kansas State comeback that provided Oregon with a 22-10 margin at the intermission.

Everything else consisted of counter punches between the two heavyweights.

Thomas added his second score of the game 11 minutes after his first on a pass from quarterback Marcus Mariota to extend the Ducks' advantage to 15 points.

Following a 6-yard scoring run from quarterback Collin Klein early in the second quarter, the Wildcats (11-2) cut the deficit to five points in the final 5 minutes of the first half. Anthony Cantele's 25-yard field goal pulled K-State within a 15-10 deficit before Oregon regained the momentum with a 46-second, 77-yard touchdown drive with 14 seconds remaining before the break.

Kenjon Barner capped the drive with a 24-yard scoring catch from Mariota to revive the Ducks' momentum but it was tight end Colt Lyerla who accounted for 40 yards on the drive with a pair of receptions.

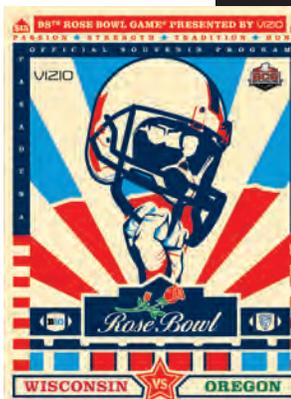

Barner ended the game with 143 rushing yards to complement his lone reception of the evening as he completed his career with 5,848 all-purpose yards - 21 shy of LaMichael James' school record.

But it was Mariota who again proved masterful in dissecting Kansas State's defense. He finished his redshirt freshman season completing only 12 of 24 passes for 166 yards but passed for two touchdowns, did not throw any interceptions for the eighth game of the year and added 62 yards and one TD on the ground. For his efforts, he was recognized as the game's offensive player of the game.

Yet it was a defensive effort that slowed the Big 12 opponent's attack that came into the game averaging 40.7 points per game and had not accounted for fewer than 23 points all year.

Klein was instrumental in the regular-season success of the Wildcats' offense as a dual-threat signal-caller. Despite throwing for 151 yards, Oregon's defenders contained his opportunities to run with the football. Entering the game averaging 74.2 yards per game on the ground, the Ducks limited Klein to only 30 yards rushing. Five of his 13 carries resulted in either no gain or a loss of yards.

Linebacker Michael Clay concluded his collegiate career with nine tackles, including a quarterback sack for a loss of 9 yards, to be named the game's defensive player of the game. Safety Erick Dargan was the beneficiary of both of Klein's interceptions.

2012 ROSE BOWL

Oregon 45, Wisconsin 38
Jan. 2, 2012
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 91,245

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- Oregon's incredible offense busted up Wisconsin and the record books on the way to the Ducks' first Rose Bowl victory in 95 years.

Darron Thomas passed for three touchdowns, De'Anthony Thomas scored on runs of 91 and 64 yards, and the No. 6 Ducks earned their first bowl victory under coach Chip Kelly, holding off Wisconsin 45-38 Monday night in the highest-scoring Rose Bowl ever played.

And it wasn't over until a video review confirmed the Badgers (11-3) ran out of time at the Oregon 25, out of timeouts and unable to spike the ball in time to stop the clock for a last-gasp fling.

Lavasier Tuinei caught eight passes for 158 yards and two TDs for the Ducks (12-2), who had no postseason success to show for Kelly's otherwise wildly successful three-year tenure until this landmark offensive performance in the 98th Rose Bowl. Oregon hadn't won the West Coast's biggest game since 1917.

"It's been 95 years since you could say: Oregon Ducks, Rose Bowl champions," Kelly said after the Ducks held Wisconsin scoreless in the fourth quarter.

The Granddaddy of Them All had never seen this many points, beating the record 80 scored by Washington and Iowa in 1991.

With the Ducks wearing mirrored helmets and playing at their usual frantic pace, Oregon racked up 621 total yards, just shy of the Rose Bowl record.

Montee Ball rushed for 122 of his 164 yards in the first half for the Badgers (11-3), who lost the Rose Bowl for the second straight year despite managing 508 yards of their own. Ball tied Barry Sanders' FBS record with his 39th touchdown of the season, while Russell Wilson passed for 296 yards and two scores.

Wisconsin had two drives to tie it after Oregon kicked a field goal with 6:50 to play, but Jared Abbrederis fumbled near the Oregon sideline after making a long catch. The ball plopped onto the turf without even bouncing, and Oregon's Michael Clay jumped on it with 4:06 left.

The Badgers had burned two timeouts early in the second half, so Oregon was able to run the clock down to 23 seconds before punting.

Wilson connected on two long passes, but the officials went to video review after the clock went to zeros as Wilson rushed his team to the Oregon 25 with 2 seconds left, waited for the ball to be set, then took the snap and spiked the ball.

But the Badgers took too long. The officials ruled time had indeed expired, and the Ducks sprinted onto the field to the frenzied cheers of their outnumbered fans.

The Ducks and Badgers produced the highest-scoring first quarter (14-14) and first half (28-28) in Rose Bowl history, eventually surpassing the 80 scored in Washington's 46-34 win over Iowa in 1991. Oregon's yardage fell just short of USC's 633 yards against Illinois in 2008.

Tuinei was named the offensive player of the game, but their flashiest star in those futuristic helmets was De'Anthony Thomas, the freshman from Los Angeles who showed off his electrifying athleticism on the longest scoring run in Rose Bowl history in the second quarter, going 91 yards up the middle. He added a mere 64-yard scoring run in the opening minute of the second half as Oregon won the matchup of the last two losers of the Rose Bowl.

LaMichael James rushed for 159 yards and an early TD in his college finale for the Ducks, while De'Anthony Thomas finished with 155 yards.

Kenjon Barner also caught a TD pass from Darron Thomas.

Abbrederis and Nick Toon caught TD passes for Wisconsin, and defensive end Louis Nzegwu returned a fumble 33 yards for a score in the second quarter.

In the second half, the Ducks even slowed Ball. The Heisman Trophy finalist started strong in what's likely his final college game, even hurdling Oregon safety John Boyett in what's sure to be a big YouTube hit, but he had just three carries for no yards in the fourth quarter.

2011 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

Auburn 22, Oregon 19
Jan. 10, 2011
Glendale, Ariz.
Attendance: 78,603

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Three points, a few timely plays and mere ticks on the scoreboard clock were all that stood between Oregon and its first national championship as a 19-yard Auburn field goal with no time remaining sealed its fate with a 22-19 setback.

After the Ducks had pulled within a 19-19 tie with 2:23 remaining in regulation, the Tigers mounted a 73-yard drive keyed by a Michael Dyer 37-yard run that appeared to be stopped following a short 5-yard gain at the Auburn 45-yard line. However the freshman running back alertly kept his knee from touching the turf after rolling over Oregon defensive back Eddie Pleasant and continued downfield before he was finally brought him down 23 yards shy of the end zone.

The Southeastern Conference champions proceeded to the milk the remaining seconds off the clock before Wes Byrum drilled the football through the up-rings from 19 yards out as time expired for the win.

For his effort, Dyer was voted Offensive Player of the Game after rushing for 143 yards.

After LaMichael James' first of two touchdowns gave the Ducks an 11-7 advantage with 10:58 left in the first half, Auburn ran off 12 unanswered points and held Oregon scoreless in the third quarter to appear to be in command in the waning moments of the game. But senior linebacker Casey Matthews punched the ball out of the arms of Tigers' quarterback Cam Newton from behind and the Cliff Harris fumble recovery provided the Ducks with a final shot.

Oregon wasted little time taking advantage of the opportunity, marching 55 yards in eight plays, as quarterback Darron Thomas capped the scoring drive with a 2-yard TD pass to James.

Thomas' pass to Jeff Maehl in the end zone was good for the two-point conversion as the sophomore signal caller connected on four of his career-high 27 completions during the crucial scoring drive. Included was a clutch 29-yard strike to D.J. Davis on fourth down to keep the game-tying drive alive.

Oregon's first-year starting quarterback also set a personal best with 363 passing yards and finished the year second on the school's single-season charts in total offense (3,367) and touchdown passes (30), as well as fifth in passing yards (2,881) with the Ducks' best output in 10 years.

Following a scoreless opening quarter in which Auburn could muster only 21 yards of total offense, Oregon got onto the scoreboard first with a 26-yard field goal by Rob Beard. However in the game of near-misses, it was unable to make a bigger statement after forcing Auburn to punt two of the first three times it had the football and failing to capitalize on a 22-yard interception return by Harris.

Starting the drive from its own 29-yard line, Oregon methodically drove downfield in the closing minutes of the first quarter before a 12-yard completion to Davis spotted the football 3 yards shy of the end zone. But Thomas was trapped for a 6-yard loss by Auburn's Nick Fairley on third down as the Ducks settled for three points instead of seven.

The Tigers' ensuing drive appeared to be halted before Harris' apparent second interception of the night was ruled to be out of bounds. On the very next play, Newton connected with Kodi Burns for a 35-yard scoring strike to pull the eventual winners in front, 7-3.

That lead lasted for only 62 seconds as Oregon responded four plays later with an 8-yard scoring toss from Thomas to James. The drive was fueled by an 81-yard completion to Maehl - the longest pass/catch in BCS Championship history.

As was the case all year, Oregon was unwilling to settle for the conventional point-after-touchdown as Beard scored his second two-point conversion of the year to provide the Ducks with a four-point margin.

Oregon looked to have a chance to take control of the game on the next series with its defense denying Auburn to penetrate the goal line on three plays inside the 3-yard line, including fourth-and-goal from the 1. But after a 9-yard completion to Kenjon Barner was nullified by a motion penalty, James was unable to break free of the end zone on the next play for a safety.

Following the free kick, Auburn was able to take advantage of a trio of carries by Dyer for 19 yards and three Newton completions - the last to Emory Blake for a 30-yard score - for a 16-11 halftime lead.

Newton almost single-handedly got his team on the scoreboard to open the third period, personally accounting for 55 (16 rush, 39 pass) of the 60 yards on the scoring drive, but again the Oregon defense held their opponents to a field goal after the Tigers maneuvered a first down inside the red zone.

But again the Oregon offense, which was held to a season-low 75 yards rushing, was unable to take full advantage of the opportunity after Auburn grabbed its largest lead of the night.

The Ducks were forced to punt on their ensuing series after moving the football as close as the opponent's 37-yard line. The next time they had the ball, Barner was denied on fourth down from 1-yard out after Oregon earned a first down from the 3.

Despite being held to a season-low 49 yards on the ground, James completed the year with the school's single-season rushing record (1,731 yards) in addition to moving into third on Oregon's career scoring list (228 points).

For the second BCS game in as many years, Boyett led his teammates in tackles (11) as the Ducks completed 2010 with their most wins ever in one year (12).

2010 ROSE BOWL

Ohio State 26, Oregon 17
Jan. 1, 2010
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 93,963

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- Ohio State's bowl woes are over, thanks to a sturdy defense and a quarterback who finally played up to his enormous potential.

Terrelle Pryor passed for a season-high 266 yards and two touchdowns, rushed for 72 more and threw a 17-yard scoring pass to DeVier Posey with 7:02 to play, ending the No. 8 Buckeyes' three-game BCS skid with a 26-17 victory over No. 7 Oregon in the Rose Bowl on Friday.

Posey had eight catches for 101 yards, and Brandon Saine caught an early TD pass for the Buckeyes (11-2), who put together a remarkably fluid offensive performance in their first trip to Pasadena since 1997.

That offense relied on Pryor, the sophomore quarterback who has had a hard time matching his enormous hype. With a Rose Bowl effort that evoked memories of Vince Young's breakout performance in the same stadium four years ago, Pryor shook off his early mistakes and led the Buckeyes confidently through a tense fourth quarter.

"I just wanted to lead the team as best I can," Pryor said. "The defense helped out a lot."

Indeed, Ohio State's defense did much of the work, largely reducing the Ducks' high-flying, no-huddle offense to ineffectiveness. Jeremiah Masoli passed for just 81 yards, while LaMichael James rushed for 70 - but a series of big plays and kick returns by Kenjon Barner kept the 96th Rose Bowl close until Pryor took control of the final minutes.

"We have an up-tempo defense and they run, they hit and they prepare," coach Jim Tressel said. "Terrelle did a heck of a job."

Oregon (10-3) made a remarkable comeback from its season-opening loss to Boise State to win its first Pac-10 title since 2001, but the Ducks haven't won the Rose Bowl since the game's third edition in 1917, back when the Granddaddy of Them All was a toddler.

Masoli's 1-yard TD run put Oregon up 17-16 early in the third quarter, but the Ducks' powerful offense never scored again. Oregon ran for 179 yards, the second-most allowed by Ohio State this season, but the Ducks were one-dimensional. Oregon, in its first Rose Bowl since 1995, had scored at least 37 points in its previous six games.

Pryor's career at Ohio State has been about his inadequacies as much as his strengths, and he has been hammered by critics in the Big Ten and elsewhere for numerous flaws in his game. Yet with Ohio State nursing a two-point lead in the fourth quarter, he took charge during a 13-play, 81-yard drive eating up more than six minutes - part of the Buckeyes' 41:37 total time-of-possession advantage.

Pryor converted a third-and-13 play near midfield with about nine minutes to play on a remarkable 26-yard catch by tight end Jake Ballard, who leaped high to snatch it. After another third-down conversion, Posey made an impressive TD catch, turning both directions and snagging Pryor's pass away from his body before tumbling over the goal line.

After Oregon's Morgan Flint missed a 44-yard field goal, Pryor drove the Buckeyes one more time, finishing with emphasis by gaining a first down with a 12-yard run right after Oregon called its final timeout.

"We knew everything they were going to do, with their blitzes," Pryor said. "I just wanted to come out and show I can be a complete quarterback."

LeGarrette Blount scored an early touchdown for the Ducks, but the once-suspended tailback also fumbled out of the end zone in the third quarter, ending a potential scoring drive.

Blount made an impressive 3-yard scoring run on his first play in the second quarter, clambering over three defenders and knocking off Buckeyes captain Doug Worthington's helmet before stretching the ball over the goal line.

The cheers Blount received on the way on and off the field highlighted a tumultuous season for the bruising tailback, who was suspended for eight games after punching a Boise State player in frustration after the Ducks' season-opening loss.

Ohio State marched 19 plays for a short field goal 1:05 before halftime, and Ross Homan's 20-yard interception return moments later put the Buckeyes in position for long-injured kicker Aaron Pettrey's 45-yard field goal at the gun, putting the Buckeyes up 16-10.

Barner's big kickoff return to open the second half set up a 38-yard scoring drive finished by Masoli's keeper. Ohio State went back ahead with its fourth field goal before Blount and Pryor traded turnovers.

The crowd appeared to be an even split between scarlet-clad Buckeyes faithful and yellow-and-green Oregon fans who reveled in the postcard-perfect weather in Arroyo Seco well before kickoff. When dusk fell early in the fourth quarter, the nearby mountains lit up with a surreal red-orange glow, setting off hundreds of camera flashes in the crowd.

2008 HOLIDAY BOWL

Oregon 42, Oklahoma State 31
Dec. 30, 2008
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 59,106

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- Jeremiah Masoli and Oregon were a perfect fit for the high-scoring Holiday Bowl.

Masoli ran through and over Oklahoma State's defense for three touchdowns and threw for another to lead the No. 17 Ducks to a 42-31 win over the No. 13 Cowboys in a wild, record-setting Holiday Bowl.

Masoli, a junior college transfer, quickly moved up from No. 3 on the depth chart this season due to injuries. He was recruited because coach Mike Bellotti thought he'd be a great passer, then proved to be quite the runner.

"He's a tough son of a gun," Bellotti said. "He's faster than most people think and he's stronger and more difficult to take down. And he ran over and around and through people today."

Masoli scored on option keepers of 1, 41 and 17 yards in the third quarter, then threw a 20-yard scoring pass to Jaison Williams in the fourth quarter. Masoli ran over OSU free safety Quinton Moore on his 41-yard jaunt.

There were big runs, big passes and big hits in a game showcasing two of the nation's most prolific offenses, both of which feature the spread option led by running QBs. Oregon gained 565 yards and OSU had 469.

Oregon finished 10-3, the fourth time it's had double-digit wins in Bellotti's 14 seasons as coach. Oklahoma State finished 9-4 under Mike Gundy, the winning quarterback for Oklahoma State in the 1988 Holiday Bowl.

The Holiday Bowl has a history of wild finishes, and this one had five lead changes in the second half.

Oregon's LeGarrette Blount put an exclamation point on the victory with a 29-yard touchdown run during which he hurdled Moore and stiff-armed cornerback Perrish Cox with 3 minutes to play.

With the Ducks trailing 17-7, Walter Thurmond returned the second-half kickoff off 91 yards to the 3. Masoli scored his first TD two plays later.

"It gave us a lot of juice and momentum," Masoli said. "We made our adjustments and came back on fire."

Masoli said the Ducks adjusted to the Cowboys' coverage, changed their blocking assignments "and that's what opened it up."

Masoli gained 106 yards on 16 carries. He completed 18 of 32 passes for 258 yards. Oregon's Jeremiah Johnson ran 12 times for 119 yards, including a 76-yard TD that eclipsed one of Barry Sanders' Holiday Bowl records.

Blount's 74 yards on seven carries gave him 1,002 yards for the season. He and Johnson became the second duo in school history to each have 1,000 or more yards. Johnson finished with 1,201 yards.

"They were much more physical than us in the second half," Gundy said. "We were not able to overcome that."

Oregon and Oklahoma State each erased records from that Holiday Bowl 20 years ago, when Sanders, the Heisman Trophy winner, ran for 222 yards and five TDs in a 62-14 romp over Wyoming.

Johnson's 76-yard touchdown run in the first quarter eclipsed Sanders' 67-yard TD in 1988 as the longest run from scrimmage in the Holiday Bowl. Johnson took an inside handoff and seemed bottled up, but worked his way to the left sideline, where he picked up three blocks on his way to the end zone.

Oklahoma State wide receiver Dez Bryant set Holiday Bowl records with 13 catches for 167 yards, among them a 33-yard TD that gave the Cowboys a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. The 13 catches were a career high for Bryant, who twice was forced out of the game with a knee injury.

The old Holiday Bowl records were 11 catches by BYU's David Mills in 1984 and Texas' Roy Williams in 2001, and 163 yards by Oklahoma State's Hart Lee Dykes in 1988.

"We lose some when Dez is not in there," Gundy said. "But we have some players who we expect to step up and make plays. ... We just weren't effective enough running the ball in the second half. They were more physical than us."

Bryant said the outcome "probably would have been different" if he hadn't been injured.

329 yards, completing 27 of 50 passes, and ran 16 times for 54 yards and a score. Oregon trailed 17-7 at halftime but came back on Masoli's first two scoring runs to go ahead 21-17 by midway through the third quarter.

Oklahoma State's Kendall Hunter answered with his second TD of the game, from 4 yards, before Masoli scored again. The Cowboys took their last lead, 31-28, when Robinson scored on a 1-yard run early in the fourth quarter. Masoli's TD pass to Williams gave the Ducks the lead for good, 35-31.

The Ducks dedicated the win to Todd Doxey, a redshirt freshman from San Diego who drowned last summer in Oregon's McKenzie River.

"We talked about being here to start the season with a funeral and being here at the end to honor his memory the best way we could, which was to play well and win the football game," Bellotti said. "I think Todd is with us here today."

2007 SUN BOWL

Oregon 56, South Florida 21
Dec. 31, 2007
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 49,867

EL PASO, Texas (AP) -- Jonathan Stewart set a Sun Bowl record with a career-high 253 yards rushing and Justin Roper threw four touchdown passes in his first start as Oregon beat South Florida 56-21.

The Ducks (9-4) scored 28 straight points in the third quarter to snap a four-game postseason losing streak, their first bowl win since beating Colorado 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl after the 2001 season.

Oregon made it look easy against the Bulls (9-4), who boasted one of the nation's better defenses. Credit the steady play by Roper, a redshirt freshman, and Stewart, as smooth a runner as you'll find.

The Ducks won for the first time since losing quarterback Dennis Dixon to a knee injury in November, snapping a three-game losing streak that killed their national title hopes. How easy was it for the Ducks? They won a matchup of teams that'd been ranked No. 2 in the nation earlier this season handily, despite setting a Sun Bowl record with 138 penalty yards.

Roper started the scoring avalanche with a 14-yard TD strike to Jaison Williams and added a 15-yard scoring pass to Ed Dickson.

On the next play from scrimmage, Walter Thurmond stepped in front of a pass by South Florida's Matt Grothe and returned it 25 yards for another TD, giving the Ducks a 39-14 lead midway through the third.

But these hard-hitting Quackers weren't finished. Grothe had another interception on the ensuing possession, the first of two for Oregon's Jairus Byrd, setting up Roper's 8-yard TD pass to Stewart.

On that drive, Stewart got free on a 16-yard gain, breaking the previous Sun Bowl record of 197 yards rushing set in 1977 by LSU's Charles Alexander in a 24-14 loss to Stanford.

Just like that, Oregon's 18-14 halftime lead had swelled to 46-14.

For good measure, Matt Evensen added a 30-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter and defensive end Michael DiVincenzo returned an interception for a touchdown with 3:23 remaining.

Roper opened the season fifth on the depth chart and ran the scout team until a series of quarterback injuries - none more devastating than the loss of Dixon, a Heisman Trophy hopeful - reshaped the Oregon roster.

Coach Mike Bellotti gave Roper the start over Cody Kempt, another redshirt freshman. Roper responded by tying a Sun Bowl record with four TD passes and finished 17-of-30 for 180 yards passing with no interceptions.

Stewart was just as impressive. He broke a 71-yard TD run late in the second quarter, greeted by an enormous hole off left tackle as he raced untouched to the end zone to give the Ducks an 18-11 lead.

Stewart kept the momentum going after the break. His 41-yard run on Oregon's first drive of the second half set up Roper's second TD pass for a 25-14 lead, and he logged the ninth-best rushing effort in a bowl game.

There was no sign of the turf toe injury that slowed Stewart earlier this season, when Oregon dropped from the national title chase.

South Florida, which reached No. 2 in the country in just its 11th season playing football, missed a chance to win 10 games for the first time.

Grothe left late in the third after being tackled while scrambling.

The 49,867 fans were treated to lots of penalty flags. The teams combined to break the Sun Bowl record for total penalty yardage - 202 penalty yards - and it wasn't even halftime when the old mark fell.

2006 LAS VEGAS BOWL

BYU 38, Oregon 8
Dec. 21, 2006
Las Vegas, Nev.
Attendance: 42,075

John Beck passed for 375 yards and two touchdowns and Curtis Brown ran for 120 yards and two TDs, leading No. 19 BYU to its 10th straight win to end the year. Jonny Harline, voted MVP after the game, caught nine passes for 181 yards and Justin Robinson intercepted two passes for BYU (11-2), which shut out the Ducks (7-6) through three quarters.

Oregon lost its fourth in a row and was never close after BYU scored 17 points in the second quarter. The Ducks had just 120 yards of offense through three quarters and didn't score until Brian Paysinger caught a 47-yard pass from Dennis Dixon with 10:27 left in the game. The Ducks added a two-point conversion, but that still only cut the lead to 31-8.

BYU recovered the ensuing outside kick and scored 1:13 later on a 17-yard pass from Beck to Manase Tonga. Beck also ran for a 13-yard score that put BYU ahead 31-0 early in the fourth quarter.

The Ducks allowed two sacks on their first series and Brady Leaf and Dixon combined to throw for 166 yards. Both threw an interception and Oregon finished with 260 yards of offense and lost its fourth straight bowl game.

The teams played in front of the largest crowd in stadium history, breaking the previous high of 42,075 fans for UNLV's game against Wisconsin in 2002.

Beck opened the game slowly, but had four passes in the hands of his receivers that were dropped. Beck started focusing more on Harline and it paid off with a field goal and two touchdowns in the second quarter.

They connected on a 41-yard pass in the second quarter that put BYU ahead 17-0, then Brown scored on a 4-yard run just before halftime and BYU led 24-0.

After getting stuck at their own 2 on a punt, Beck completed a 17-yard pass to Harline on first down to get the Cougars out of trouble quickly. BYU drove for Jared McLaughlin's 24-yard field goal that put the Cougars up 3-0, then BYU drove 71 yards on its next possession for another score.

2005 HOLIDAY BOWL

Oklahoma 17, Oregon 14
Dec. 29, 2005
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 65,416

An Oklahoma interception deep in its own territory with just over 30 seconds left to play put an end to an Oregon comeback and preserved the Sooners' Holiday Bowl win. Sophomore quarterback Brady Leaf came off the bench midway through the fourth quarter to rally the Ducks from a 17-7 deficit, completing a 3-yard touchdown pass to tight end Tim Day with 3:30 remaining in the game to pull Oregon within striking distance.

Trailing by only three points, the Ducks' defense held the Big 12 Conference South Division runners-up to three plays and a punt while taking over control of the football on its own 22-yard line with 3:04 left on the clock. Completions of six and 37 yards to running back Terrence Whitehead and a 19-yard pass to freshman running back Jeremiah Johnson positioned Oregon with a chance for its first win over the Sooners in six tries. But rather than play for a game-tying field goal, Leaf's pass to Demetrius Williams inside the Oklahoma 10-yard line couldn't elude linebacker Clint Ingram's leap as Oregon fell short in the post-season for the third straight time.

After struggling in two first-half drives and a third to start the second half, Leaf rebounded to complete 11 of 18 passes for 118 yards in the final 7:13 of the game. In addition, the Oregon defense, led by senior linebacker Anthony Trucks, held the Sooners to only 42 yards of total offense in the final quarter. Trucks completed his career with a game-high 14 tackles, along with one fumble recovery as well as a forced fumble, to be awarded the bowl's defensive player of the game.

But it was a sluggish third quarter that put the Ducks in a bind as Oklahoma controlled the football for just over 10 minutes of the period and capped two of its four drives with touchdowns.

Oregon opened the game strong as starting quarterback Dennis Dixon accounted for 72 of its 116 total yards from the game's first two drives, yet the Ducks could convert the prosperity into only seven points en route to a 7-3 half-time advantage. Dixon completed eight of 12 passes for 89 yards in the opening 15 minutes.

2002 FIESTA BOWL

Oregon 38, Colorado 16
Jan. 1, 2002
Tempe, Ariz.
Attendance: 74,118

Joey Harrington threw for four touchdowns and Steve Smith intercepted a bowl-record three passes as No. 2 Oregon pounded No. 3 Colorado in the 31st Fiesta Bowl.

Heisman Trophy finalist Harrington became the first Pac-10 quarterback to lead his team to three bowl wins, and ended his career third at Oregon in passing yards (6,911) and touchdowns (59).

After a first-quarter Buffalo touchdown, the Ducks scored 38 consecutive points. The game's offensive MVP led the charge with a 28-yard scoring strike to Keenan Howry and a season-long 79-yard TD pass to Samie Parker on subsequent drives. The latter marked Oregon's longest scoring play in bowl history and tied for the longest pass in Fiesta Bowl history. On the ground, Maurice Morris brought the crowd to its feet in the second half with a dazzling 49-yard touchdown scamper though a half-dozen would-be tacklers, as he rolled off the back of another. His 89 rushing yards at game's end also made him the first back in Oregon history to run for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons (1,049). Freshman kicker Jared Siegel also booted a career-long 47-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter.

Colorado tried its luck in the air in the second half, and salvaged a couple of late scores to avoid the biggest defeat in Fiesta Bowl history. The Duck defense held the Buffalo rushers to a combined 49 yards — far below their previous 228.5 avg. that ranked eighth nationally. Wesly Mallard and Dave Moretti led the Duck defenders with 13 and 11 tackles, respectively, while Smith earned the game's top defensive award.

2000 HOLIDAY BOWL

Oregon 35, Texas 30
Dec. 29, 2000
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 63,278

The Oregon defense limited Texas to only 88 yards total offense in the second half while denying the 12th-ranked Longhorns access to the end zone on their final three possessions of the game to cap the Ducks' first 10-win season in school history.

Quarterback Joey Harrington became only the third player in Holiday Bowl history to run, pass and be on the receiving end of a touchdown toss in the same game as he helped ignite Oregon's fourth-quarter comeback for the fifth time of the season. For his efforts, he was named offensive player of the game.

The Pac-10 co-champions relied on big plays to grab a 14-0 advantage in the opening 13 minutes, but were fortunate to trail by only 21-14 after a blocked punt with 1:11 remaining before the half. However defensive back Ryan Mitchell initiated the momentum swing with his team's second of four interceptions.

Tailback Maurice Morris knotted the score at 21-21 with his longest scoring reception of the season while Allan Amundson came off the bench to set up a go-ahead score with his longest run of his career (36 yards) to provide a brief edge.

After Texas returned the ensuing kickoff into the end zone, Oregon put together an eight-play, 68-yard drive for the winning tally but couldn't rest easy until the final pass fell incomplete in the end zone.

Cornerback Rashad Bauman halted one drive with an interception at the Ducks' 16-yard line with just over a minute remaining to play to go along with his six tackles to earn defensive player-of-the-game honors. Outside linebacker Garrett Sabol led all tacklers with 12 stops.

1999 SUN BOWL

Oregon 24, Minnesota 20
Dec. 31, 1999
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 48,757

Joey Harrington completed a 10-yard scoring pass to Keenan Howry with only 1:32 remaining to play to lead Oregon to the Pac-10's lone postseason triumph in five tries.

No. 12 Minnesota grabbed a 20-17 advantage on the first play of the final period with its third touchdown pass of the afternoon before the Ducks came from behind in the closing minutes for the fourth time this season. Harrington, who remained unbeaten in his fourth career start, waited until 7:28 remained on the clock before engineering Oregon's longest scoring drive of the season, capping a 12-play, 87-yard drive in 5:56 with his lone touchdown toss of the day. The Portland sophomore, who had previously run for a pair of scores, connected on four of five aerials on the decisive series, including a fourth-down strike for 23 yards to Tony Hartley to keep the drive alive.

Yet it wasn't until a Dietrich Moore quarterback sack and Saul Patu fumble recovery that the Ducks could breathe easier. The Ducks' defense limited the nation's 11th-ranked rushing offense to only 96 yards, while the Oregon offense wore down an opposition that tied for eighth in the country in scoring defense. Peter Sirmon led all Oregon defenders with 16 tackles while Moore and Matt Smith each took part in two quarterback sacks.

Michael Fletcher picked off one of two interceptions and added a 16-yard punt return to set up Oregon's 37-yard field goal.

1998 ALOHA BOWL

Colorado 51, Oregon 43
Dec. 25, 1998
Honolulu, Hawaii
Attendance: 38,803

Oregon's 22-point fourth-quarter rally was not enough to overcome a season-high six turnovers and opponent's big plays as it dropped its second postseason bid to the Buffaloes in four years.

Colorado returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a score to pace a 17-point first-quarter outburst in a game that established a Pac-10 post-season record for most total points by two teams.

Trailing 44-14 midway through the third quarter, the Ducks converted four of their next five drives into touchdowns before a fourth-down pass from Akili Smith to Bobby Nero fell incomplete with only 2:19 remaining in the game. Smith capped a brilliant senior season by throwing for the fourth-highest single-game total in school history, earning the game's co-MVP honors. Tailback Derien Latimer, making only his fourth start of the year, tied an Aloha Bowl record by running for three scores as Oregon accumulated 308 yards total offense in the second half against a squad which ended the year ranked 13th in the country in total defense (296.0 avg.).

Smith struggled to complete only eight of 21 passes in the first half before returning to form to pinpoint 16 of 25 aerials for 290 yards in the final 30 minutes. Wide receivers Damon Griffin and Donald Haynes became the school's first tandem in two years to each accumulate better than 100 yards receiving.

The Ducks' defense played deceptively well, led by senior linebacker Chris Vandiver's 15 tackles. Colorado was limited to 130 yards of offense in the second half.

1997 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Oregon 41, Air Force 13
Dec. 20, 1997
Las Vegas, Nev.
Attendance: 21,514

An explosive Oregon offense put together its most potent display of the year while a maligned defense stuffed the nation's ninth-best rushing attack to pace its first post-season triumph in eight years over 23rd-ranked Air Force.

The Ducks tallied touchdowns on their first two plays from scrimmage and ate up less than a minute off the clock on each of their five offensive touchdowns. Pat Johnson accounted for his first of two scores on a bomb from Akili Smith to open the barrage and Saladin McCullough rambled for his longest run as a collegian to help seize the early momentum.

Meanwhile, an inspired defense which came into the game yielding over 440 yards per game, dismantled the Falcons' option attack and limited them to a season-low 211 yards total offense. The Ducks' defenders were so dominating that they refused to allow the cadets to cross midfield until the second quarter and thwarted a second attempt into Oregon territory with a Jaiya Figueras interception.

Adding to the team victory was a blocked punt by true freshman Garrett Sabol midway through the second period, resulting in a Kevin Parker recovery in the end zone and a 19-0 Oregon lead. The victors accumulated 313 of their season-high 583 yards total offense during the game's first 30 minutes against a contingent ranked third in the country in scoring defense (12.4 avg.) and 10th in total defense (289.3 avg.)

Jason Maas came off the bench to throw for three touchdowns and scrambled for 28 yards that kept a drive alive before concluding with Tony Hartley's score 28 seconds before halftime.

Yet it was Johnson who was named the games most valuable player after accumulating 272 all-purpose yards.

Peter Sirmon ended the day with 11 tackles and Michael Fletcher added nine as the defenders limited Air Force to only three first downs and 92 yards total offense in the second half.

1996 COTTON BOWL

Colorado 38, Oregon 6
Jan. 1, 1996
Dallas, Texas
Attendance: 58,214

Oregon's inability to capitalize on some early scoring opportunities proved costly and the seventh-ranked Buffaloes were able to break the game open with a few big plays of their own in the third quarter as the Ducks again returned home empty from their second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance.

At times it appeared the Ducks almost had as much trouble navigating the unfavorable weather conditions as it did the Colorado defense, which held Oregon to 139 yards under its total offensive average, but that couldn't account for the five turnovers which directly led to a trio of Colorado touchdowns. No one miscue had a bigger effect on the game's outcome as a 95-yard interception return for a second-quarter score after junior quarterback Tony Graziani had driven the Ducks to the nine-yard line.

Pacific-10 Conference all-purpose running leader Ricky Whittle returned the opening kickoff 63 yards to the Colorado 26-yard line but the Ducks were unable to advance beyond the eight-yard line and were forced to settle for a Joshua Smith field goal. Moments later, linebacker Rich Ruhl picked off a John Hessler pass to present Oregon with another golden opportunity but another stalled drive resulted in the Ducks' 33-yard three-pointer.

Little was it known that 12th-ranked Oregon would be able to penetrate the 20-yard line only once more prior to the closing seconds of the contest.

The Ducks' defense proved to be up to the task against the nation's sixth-best offense, providing the offense with field position inside the midfield stripe two more times after taking a 6-0 lead and kept Oregon within striking distance at halftime. But a 19-point explosion in the third quarter in less than eight minutes proved to be too much to overcome.

Oregon's defenders were victimized by a 62-yard pass play and another 55-yard run to set up a pair of scores and account for almost half of Colorado's 313 offensive yards. Sophomore Kenny Wheaton added his fifth interception of the year and cornerback Ronnie Gipson recovered one fumble for a unit paced by Troy Bailey's and Brian Collins' seven tackles.

1995 ROSE BOWL

Penn State 38, Oregon 20
Jan. 2, 1995
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 102,247

Oregon wasn't satisfied with just advancing to the Rose Bowl, not intimidated by facing an unbeaten opponent supposedly armed with the best offense in history nor awed by the largest crowd ever to watch the Ducks play football. And, when it was over,

Oregon proved it truly belonged in Pasadena.

The Ducks represented its league for the first time in 37 years in the post-season game reserved for the champion and no Pacific-10 Conference sympathizer was embarrassed to have Oregon as its emissary. The Ducks' offense pushed second-ranked Penn State around for 501 yards and its defense lived up to its advance billing.

It was Oregon's resolve that was tested when All-America tailback Ki-Jana Carter streaked 83 yards on Penn State's first offensive play to saddle the Ducks with an early 7-0 deficit. It didn't take Oregon long to knot the score and senior quarterback Danny O'Neil's second touchdown pass of the day brought the Ducks back to a 14-14 stalemate following linebacker Reggie Jordan's interception of Penn State quarterback Kerry Collins.

Oregon's offense was not appreciably scuttled throughout the game. O'Neil contributed in some form to 13 Rose Bowl records, including individual marks for passes attempted and completed and yardage through the air.

Penn State led the nation in offense with a 520-yard average, but was held below that figure by Gang Green, the acronym for Oregon's aggressive defense. The Big Ten Conference champion scored all three second-half touchdowns after taking possession in Oregon territory.

O'Neil's record day resulted in tight end Josh Wilcox catching 11 passes and flanker Cristin McLemore 10 more.

1992 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Wake Forest 39, Oregon 35
Dec. 31, 1992
Shreveport, La.
Attendance: 31,337

Oregon's third consecutive post-season game went down to the wire, but Wake Forest wound up in the winner's photo on the strength of a fourth-quarter stretch run in the first-ever meeting between the intersectional rivals.

The Ducks appeared to be clicking on all cylinders for the game's first 35 minutes, sprinting to a 29-10 advantage after Oregon's defense scored for the second time during the warm afternoon. The Demon Deacons had been victimized by five turnovers and the Ducks had taken full benefit.

Even though Wake Forest needed less than three minutes to post a 7-0 lead, Oregon scored 29 of the game's next 32 points, taking the lead when cornerback Herman O'Berry picked the pocket of tailback Ned Moultrie and dashed 24 yards for the score.

Oregon appeared to be cruising early in the second half. The Ducks realized no points from still another defensive gem by O'Berry, his seventh interception of the year, but cornerback Alex Molden duplicated it moments later and literally walked the eight yards to the end zone.

However, the shift in momentum after that was dramatic. Oregon's offense went dry and Wake Forest cruised to scores on four straight possessions to take control.

Quarterback Danny O'Neil hit 24 of 40 passes for 227 yards, but the Ducks managed just 112 yards rushing and not many after Sean Burwell's 40-yard scamper early in the game.

O'Berry was honored as the game's outstanding defensive player after two fumble recoveries and an interception. End Romeo Bandison also enjoyed an outstanding performance with two quarterback sacks and two other tackles for minus yardage among his six total tackles.

1990 FREEDOM BOWL

Colorado State 32, Oregon 31
Dec. 29, 1990
Anaheim, Calif.
Attendance: 41,450

Oregon's two-point conversion attempt with just over one minute left in the game fell inches short to prevent consecutive rallies to postseason victories in the Ducks' first-ever consecutive bowl trips.

Mistakes haunted the Ducks throughout, exemplified by Colorado State's five points to take the lead while limited to five yards and no first downs in the third quarter. Despite that, Oregon remained in position to win the game in the closing minutes behind the arm of quarterback Bill Musgrave, Oregon's bowl MVP for the second straight year.

Musgrave directed a 79-yard drive with the help of third-down completions of 31 and 21 yards to Joe Reitzug, culminating when freshman tailback Sean Burwell plunged for the score with 61 seconds left. But, Musgrave's completed conversion pass to senior flanker Michael McClellan was stopped short of the end zone.

Musgrave threw for the second-highest total in the Freedom Bowl's seven-year history and his record-tying 29 completions were one of the game's 15 records set or tied by Oregon, which also included McClellan's receptions and 46-yard kickoff return.

However, the Ducks' offense mustered only seven yards rushing and three fumbles, a muffed punt attempt and a costly penalty for roughing the passer led to 25 of the Rams' 32 points. Oregon's chance to win was made possible by Marcus Woods' block of a Colorado State extra point with just under five minutes to play in front of a bowl-record 17,500 Oregon partisans.

Sophomore inside linebacker Joe Farwell led the defense, accumulating 12 unassisted tackles among his game-high 15 stops.

1989 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Oregon 27, Tulsa 24
Dec. 16, 1989
Shreveport, La.
Attendance: 30,333

Junior quarterback Bill Musgrave directed Oregon to 17 points in the final 18 minutes and sophomore kicker Gregg McCallum provided the clincher with a 20-yard field goal with 3:07 remaining to rally the Ducks to victory in their first bowl appearance in 26 years.

Trailing by 24-10 late in the third quarter, Musgrave capped a 54-yard scoring drive with his second touchdown pass of the night, a nine-yard strike to junior wide receiver Joe Reitzug. The bowl's offensive player of the game completed five of six passes for 53 yards during the key drive. Musgrave then put the finishing touches on the Ducks' next possession with the first rushing touchdown of his career to forge a 24-24 tie.

Oregon's defense played a major role in the comeback, limiting the golden Hurricane to 102 yards total offense in the second half and holding Tulsa on fourth down to set up McCallum's winning field goal.

Senior cornerback Chris Oldham picked off a pair of interceptions to earn defensive player of the game honors and linebacker Mark Kearns added 11 tackles to his one fumble recovery. Sophomore defensive end Matt LaBounty secured the 14th annual Independence Bowl victory with a 26-yard quarterback sack with 2:12 remaining.

The error-prone Ducks dug themselves a 17-10 halftime deficit after Tulsa returned a blocked punt for a touchdown 22 seconds before the intermission. The Hurricane, who earlier had capitalized on a first-quarter Oregon interception, then scored on its second drive of the second half before Oregon was able to mount its resurgence in cold and windy conditions that dropped to 29 degrees at kickoff.

1963 SUN BOWL

Oregon 21, SMU 14
Dec. 31, 1963
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 18,646

Oregon rode the arm of quarterback Bob Berry in the first half and then relied on its defense in the final two quarters to preserve the Ducks' first bowl victory in 47 years in the 29th Sun Bowl contest.

Playing without two-time All-American Mel Renfro due to a wrist injury, the nation's fourth-ranked offense vaulted Oregon out to a 21-0 halftime advantage, thanks in part to a pair of H.D. Murphy interceptions. But it was the SMU offense which seized the limelight after the intermission, completing 17 of 28 passes in the final 30 minutes while the Mustangs' defense limited the Ducks to only four first downs during that same span.

Murphy set up Oregon's first score with a 49-yard interception return in the first quarter, capped by Dennis Keller's nine-yard run. Murphy's second theft thwarted a potential SMU scoring drive on the Ducks' three-yard line.

Berry's pinpoint spirals earned him the game's most valuable player honors as he connected with Dick Imwalle and Paul Bursleson for second-quarter scoring passes of 23 and 20 yards, respectively.

Defensive back Ron Martin played a major role in the final touchdown, recovering a Mustang fumble at Oregon's 36 before the Ducks' junior signal-caller led his team into the end zone with less than a minute remaining before the half.

Oregon's defense was up to the task of slowing SMU's comeback in the third quarter, halting drives at the two and 21-yard line. However, the Mustangs' John Roderick caught a pair of touchdown passes in the final 10 minutes to keep his team's hopes alive. The Ducks' victory was finally secured when a SMU onside kick rolled out of bounds with 24 seconds to play.

Penn State 41, Oregon 12
Dec. 17, 1960
Philadelphia, Pa.
Attendance: 16,624

Penn State's scoring barrages in the second and fourth quarter proved to be too much for the Ducks to overcome as the Nittany Lions successfully defended their Liberty Bowl title in the second-annual contest.

Quarterback Dick Hoak didn't appear to let the 30-degree temperatures and three-foot snowbanks along the sidelines bother him, running for two Penn State touchdowns and passing for a third to account for Oregon's most decisive setback in five seasons. In addition, Hoak picked off a pair of errant Duck passes which led to the winner's final two scores.

Despite his heroics, it was Oregon's Dave Grayson who came away with back of the game honors, rushing for 93 yards and adding 43 yards in receptions. Grayson accounted for 35 of the 88 yards on the Ducks' opening scoring drive before completing the team's third-quarter march with a 10-yard scoring run.

Defensively, Grayson recovered a Nittany Lion fumble in the end zone to prevent a second consecutive Penn State score in the second quarter, but Penn State took advantage of an Oregon fumble to accumulate 14 points in the final 2:25 before the half.

The Ducks threatened to make a game of it on Grayson's scoring run to conclude the team's second series after the intermission. However, Penn State mounted scoring drives the first three times it had the ball in the final period.

1958 ROSE BOWL

Ohio State 10, Oregon 7
Jan. 1, 1958
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 98,202

Oregon quarterback Jack Crabtree's fourth-down pass to Ron Stover fell incomplete with 47 seconds remaining to allow Ohio State to avert one of the biggest upsets in the 44-year history of the New Year's Day classic.

The Ducks began their last-gasp effort against the nation's No. 1-ranked Buckeyes from their own 17-yard line with 4:29 to play. A pass interference call, a 17-yard Crabtree pass to Stover and the Oregon field general's six-yard run advanced the ball to the Ohio State 43 before the team's final two attempts failed to move the ball closer to victory.

Ohio State, which had captured the Big Ten Conference crown for the third time in four years, opened the game in convincing fashion, climaxing its 79-yard drive with a one-yard run by quarterback Frank Kremblas. The Buckeyes' lone touchdown drive was kept alive by a pair of key third-down conversions.

The Ducks knotted the score at 7-7 early in the second quarter, Jim Shanley's five-yard run capping an 80-yard march in 10 plays.

Crabtree completed 10 to 17 passes for 135 yards to receive player of the game honors, becoming only the third player in the bowl's history to earn that distinction playing for the losing team. In addition, Stover established a Rose Bowl record for most yards receiving by a Pacific Coast Conference participant.

Despite the Buckeyes' 34-yard field goal with 14:02 left, Oregon had its chances to pull off the upset. But, Jack Morris' three-point try from the same spot hooked to the left at the 5:20 mark in the third quarter and the Ducks coughed up the ball on the winner's 24-yard line following Crabtree's 23-yard completion to Stover.

1949 COTTON BOWL

SMU 21, Oregon 13
Jan. 1, 1949
Dallas, Texas
Attendance: 69,000

Oregon's fourth-quarter rally fell short, despite quarterback Norm Van Brocklin completing six of 10 passes for 109 yards in the second half, as the Pacific Coast Conference co-champions were unable to defeat the winners of the Southwest Conference in the first meeting ever between the two schools.

The combined running, passing and kicking exploits of SMU's Kyle Rote and 1948 Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker were too much to overcome. Rote ran for 93 yards and caught four passes for 55 yards while Walker completed six of 10 aerials for 79 yards and rushed for another 66.

But it was the duo's kicking exploits that inflicted the most first-half damage. The two-time All-America Walker pulled off a 79-yard quick kick to the Ducks' one-foot line and Rote successfully duplicated the effort with an 84-yard boot rolling dead at the 12 in the second quarter.

The Mustangs jumped on top from the outset, capping the game's initial 73-yard drive with Walker's one-yard run. George Bell's interception later in the opening period and Dewayne Johnson's second-quarter theft prevented further SMU damage. By the time Oregon was able to regroup around its veteran signal-caller, who became the school's first player to pass for more than 1,000 yards in a single season, the Ducks faced a 14-0 deficit.

Oregon scored its first touchdown early in the fourth quarter on a 24-yard pass to Dick Wilkins before SMU countered with its third score with 8:45 remaining. Van Brocklin's 41-yard pass to Darrell Robinson set up the game's final score by Bob Sanders two minutes later.

ROSE BOWL

Harvard 7, Oregon 6
Jan. 1, 1920
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 35,000

Skeet Manerud's fourth-quarter 25-yard drop kick was ruled no good, allowing unbeaten Harvard to hang on to a 7-6 victory in the sixth-annual Tournament of Roses classic.

1917
ROSE BOWL

Oregon 14, Pennsylvania 0
Jan. 1, 1917
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 27,000

Oregon All-American Shy Huntington turned in one of the more remarkable individual efforts in Rose Bowl history to lead the Ducks to victory over heavily favored Pennsylvania in the third-annual contest.

Accounts of the game described the kick being so close that the scoreboard had already given Oregon credit for the successful attempt as Harvard players banged their helmets to the ground over the impending setback.

The Ducks, coached by the school's 1917 Rose Bowl hero Shy Huntington, lived and died by the toes of Manerud and second-team All-American Bill Steers as four other kicks either sailed wide of their mark or were blocked.

After both teams had first-quarter drop kicks blocked, Steers got Oregon on the scoreboard early in the second quarter on a three-pointer from the 25-yard line. But the Crimson came roaring back behind quarterback Billie Murray, who first returned an Oregon punt 25 yards before completing a pair of passes to the Bowl's player of the game, Eddie Casey, to set up a Fred Church's 13-yard touchdown run.

A 15-yard Harvard penalty later in the second period played a major role in the Ducks' second three-pointer, Manerud's successful 30-yard kick completing the day's scoring.

The Ducks' third-quarter field goal attempt fell short before both teams had attempts blocked in the final 15 minutes. Oregon still possessed a golden opportunity to take the lead when it started its final drive on Harvard's 18-yard line. The lack of a passing threat enabled Harvard to keep the offense out of the end zone en route to Oregon's final ill-fated drop kick.

The Crimson, which accumulated only nine first downs all afternoon, was then able to run out the clock before the final gun. The team amassed 272 yards on the ground, Hollis Huntington rushing for 122 yards in his third Rose Bowl in four years (he played for Mare Island in the 1918 contest).

The win marked a significant turning point in the laurels of American football as it was finally conceded that western football had achieved parity with the East Coast powers.

The Quakers mustered the game's first legitimate scoring threat midway into the second quarter. After recovering their own blocked kick, Penn utilized a series of power runs up the middle to move the ball to the three-yard line.

Instead of continuing that successful pattern, the Ivy League champions chose to test the ends which resulted in a 10-yard loss by Oregon's Bricks Mitchell. The ensuing 29-yard field goal was not only unsuccessful, but provided the Ducks with the momentum needed to win the game.

Huntington's first of three interceptions late in the third quarter set up the Ducks' first score. The team moved from its own 30-yard line on a combination of passes to R.L. Tegert and Shy Huntington and Hollis Huntington and Orville Monteith runs. Shy capped the drive on the final play of the period with a 18-yard touchdown pass to Tegert.

Oregon's clinching score in the fourth quarter was also keyed by a Huntington pass theft as Johnny Parsons broke loose for a 45-yard run on the next play from scrimmage to the one-yard line. Huntington sprinted to the corner of the end zone on the following play and added his second extra point to put the game out of reach.

The contest came to a fitting conclusion when Huntington thwarted Pennsylvania's final 79-yard drive by picking off his third pass of the afternoon (he had a fourth interception nullified because of a penalty) and the Ducks then ran out the clock four plays later.

The elder Huntington was awarded back-of-the-game honors while team captain John Beckett was selected player of the game. In one of the few individual statistics available from the game, Huntington rushed 17 times for 69 yards.

AUTZEN STADIUM - HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Oregon's Autzen Stadium may have undergone a series of renovations over the course of the last six decades but the 48-year-old venue remains one of the loudest college football facilities in the country.

Consistently ranked among the nation's top 10 stadiums to watch a college football game, Autzen provides a distinct setting unlike any other collegiate facility in the country by accentuating the unique characteristics of the Pacific Northwest with an upgraded fan-friendly functionality.

The latest major project improved circulation and safety by reconfiguring the north side of the stadium's exterior berm and designing a regionally-inspired landscape aimed to reduce congestion. Amongst the approximate 350 conifer trees, Oregon grape, vine maples, and other native plant materials, new universally accessible pathways now lead fans from street level to the concourse.

Adding to the stunning brilliance of the athletic arena are a pair of 30-foot cascading water features on the east and west ends of the stadium next to 22-foot wide staircases designed to ease the pedestrian traffic flow in and out of the venue.

With per-game attendance figures averaging above 57,000 for an 12th straight season, the improved accessibility and an aesthetically pleasing landscape will ensure an enjoyable experience for a structure that was originally designed to accommodate 41,698 patrons.

The 2013 reconstruction was not the first facelift for Autzen Stadium, which was originally completed for approximately $2.5 million in 1967. Prior to the 2002 season, the facility underwent a $90 million improvement that added 12,000 seats and 32 luxury boxes to the stadium's south-side skyline. To accommodate the capacity that increased to 54,000 spectators, restoration encompassed much-needed restroom and concession facilities, a 10,000-square foot entertainment center (Club at Autzen), widened walkway and concourse areas, as well as new ticket distribution centers and guest services windows.

The result of the upgrade was a record number of fans flocking to the arena, which has witnessed more than 6.8 million fans walking through the turnstiles to watch Oregon football over the past 24 seasons. Included was a single-season record 474,753 faithful onlookers who entered the stadium during the 2011 campaign.

The Ducks will enter 2015 boasting of a school-record 103 consecutive sellouts.

Autzen Stadium has a rich history that extends back to before Oregon football became a national powerhouse. Former Athletics Director Leo Harris spearheaded the drive to construct a modern and economical football theater to replace historic Hayward Field. Named in honor of Portland lumberman, sportsman and philanthropist Thomas J. Autzen, the stadium is situated on a 90-acre site adjacent to Eugene's Alton Baker Park.

One of the most significant improvements in the history of UO Athletics was completed prior to the 1988 season, in which the press box along the north rim of the stadium was relocated to the south side to make room for the $2.3 million three-story luxury suite complex. The project added 11 individual skyboxes and a 460-seat master sky suite, with the revenue generated from the leases serving as the cornerstone for funding the construction of the adjacent Len Casanova Athletic Center.

Following Oregon's first outright Pacific-10 Conference championship in 1994, the school named the playing surface of Autzen Stadium after its winningest football coach at that time, Rich Brooks. Currently the field is a blend of polyethylene and polypropylene fibers designed to resist extreme temperature and weather conditions called Field-Turf.

Since its opening in 1967, Autzen Stadium has seen numbers increase for the Ducks. In the first game played at Autzen, nationally ranked Colorado defeated Oregon, 17-13, on Sept. 23 before a television audience. The Ducks have proceeded to accrue a home-field record of 90-16 (.849) since the turn of the century.

Oregon established a new stadium record for consecutive victories with its 11th straight triumph coming by way of a thrilling triple-overtime win over USC in 1999. UO extended that streak to a nation best 23 consecutive wins. Stanford eventually ended what became the second-longest streak in conference history with a 49-42 win on Oct. 20, 2001. As for Oregon, the 16 straight Pac-12 home wins from 2008 to 2011 is second only to USC's 23 between 2001 and 2007.

The Ducks went undefeated at Autzen Stadium for the first time ever with their 7-0 record in 1990 and since have duplicated the unbeaten feat in 1998, 1999, 2000, 2009, 2010 and 2013.

Rob Mullens
 director of athletics
 West Virginia University, 1991, '93

Rob Mullens has presided over one of the most successful eras in the University of Oregon's history with Duck student-athletes setting milestone records both on the field and in the classroom. He has guided Oregon to its best finish ever in the Directors' Cup, a national assessment of an athletic department's overall achievements. At the same time, Mullens has improved the Ducks' academic standards to where the University now averages more than 100 academic all-conference selections annually.

And just as important as the athletic and academic success, Oregon's philosophy of fiscal efficiency during Mullens' tenure has been recognized nationwide. The University is one of only a handful of institutions across the country that is self-sufficient as the Oregon brand continues to grow.

Those three pillars – student-athlete experience, academic excellence and broad-based competitive excellence – comprise the foundation of Mullens' core beliefs as he oversees nearly 500 student-athletes and a budget of close to $98 million. Yet Mullens himself would tell you that it is the talented student-athletes, coaches and staff at the University of Oregon that are the department's most valuable assets.

Mullens was named the University's 12th director of intercollegiate athletics on July 15, 2010, after arriving from the University of Kentucky, where he served as deputy director of athletics and managed day-to-day operations for Kentucky's 22-sport athletics department, with an annual operating budget of $79 million.

Since Mullens' arrival in Eugene, the Duck football team has claimed three conference championships in five seasons and played in the inaugural College Football Playoff Championship Game. The 2015 season saw the coronation of the University's first-ever Heisman Trophy winner, Marcus Mariota, as the Ducks won the Pac-12 title and then defeated undefeated Florida State in the Rose Bowl semifinal game.

Spurred by national championships in men's indoor and outdoor track and field, and women's indoor track and field, as well as top 10 national finishes by softball, football, men's and women's cross country and women's indoor track and field, the Ducks placed 13th in the 2014-15 Directors' Cup final standings, an all-time high for Oregon.

In the history of the Directors' Cup, Oregon is the only program with 18 or fewer NCAA sports to place among the top 15 nationally, a feat the Ducks have done four times. Oregon also ranked among the top 25 for a sixth time in seven years. Ten of the University's 27 all-time national championships have been won in the last five years.

Off the field, Mullens saw three-quarters of UO student-athletes earn degrees, and three garner Capitol One Academic All-America awards. All told, more than 100 student-athletes won academic all-conference awards. Since the opening of the John E. Jaqua Academic Center for Student Athletes in 2010, 29 UO student-athletes have earned Academic All-America honors.

Other highlights of Mullens' tenure include three Women's College World Series appearances for the softball team, a trip to the NCAA championship game in volleyball, three consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament for men's basketball and a combined total of 10 national championships won by the Duck track and field and cross country squads.

Mullens arrived in Eugene as the Ducks opened their spectacular Matthew Knight Arena, which plays host to the school's men's and women's basketball teams, women's volleyball and acrobatics and tumbling, in addition to benefitting the entire Eugene-Springfield communities as a state-of-the-art venue for concerts, cultural forums and world-class entertainment. Other recent facilities include the Jaqua Center, the Hatfield-Dowling Football Complex and Pape' Field. In 2016, the softball team will open the brand new Jane Sanders Stadium.

Mullens' background is in accounting and auditing, and he promoted sound fiscal management and self-sufficiency at the University of Kentucky. During his total of eight years at Kentucky, the athletic department's operating budget expanded by nearly 70 percent. Fundraising for the department hit record levels each of the past seven years prior to his departure.

Prior to being named deputy director of athletics at Kentucky in 2006, Mullens began as the university's executive associate director of athletics in 2002. He served at the University of Maryland from 1996 to 2002, starting as assistant director of athletics for business and ultimately as executive senior associate director of athletics and chief of staff.

The West Virginia native was senior athletics business manager at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1994 to 1996, and prior to that he was an accountant/auditor at Ernst & Young in Raleigh, N.C.

The 46-year-old Mullens earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's in sport management from West Virginia University in 1991 and 1993, respectively. He and his wife, Jane, have two sons – Cooper and Tanner.

Michael Schill
 university president
 first year
 Princeton, 1980
 Yale, 1984

Michael H. Schill is the 18th president of the University of Oregon. He began his tenure on July 1, 2015. He previously served as the dean and Harry N. Wyatt Professor of Law at the University of Chicago Law School.

Prior to joining the University of Chicago in 2010, Schill served as the dean of the University of California, Los Angeles School of Law from 2004 to 2009. His other faculty appointments include tenured positions as professor of law and urban planning at New York University and professor of law and real estate at the University of Pennsylvania.

A nationally recognized expert in property, real estate, and housing law and policy, Schill is the author or co-author of three books and more than 40 scholarly articles. His work includes studies of the determinants of value in condominium and cooperative housing, the impacts of housing programs on property values, the enforcement of Fair Housing laws, mortgage securitization, and the deregulation of housing markets. His casebook, Property, co-authored with James Krier, Greg Alexander, and Lior Strahilevitz is one of the best-selling casebooks used in American law schools.

In 2004, Schill founded the Furman Center for Real Estate and Urban Policy at New York University. Under his and subsequent leadership, the Furman Center has become one of the nation's leading research centers on housing and the built environment.

In addition to serving as the president of the University of Oregon, Schill is a member of the Board of Governors of Argonne National Laboratory, a member of the Board of Trustees of Ithaca, the nonprofit organization that owns JSTOR, and is a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Schill graduated with an AB in public policy from Princeton University in 1980 and a JD from the Yale Law School in 1984.

Schill also holds a tenured faculty appointment in the University of Oregon School of Law.

PAC-12 BOWL INFORMATION

The Pac-12 is in the second year of a six-year agreement with seven bowl partners that should provide the Conference with a competitive post-season bowl experience.

The lineup is led by the Rose Bowl Game presented by Northwestern Mutual, which is the destination for the Pac-12 champion. In addition to the Rose Bowl, Pac-12 bowl partners include the Valero Alamo Bowl in San Antonio, the National University Holiday Bowl in San Diego, the Foster Farms Bowl in Santa Clara, Calif., the Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso, the Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl, and the Cactus Bowl in Tempe.

If a Pac-12 team is in the top four of the College Football Playoff poll following the 2015 season it would not necessarily have a team in the Rose Bowl. The displaced Pac-12 Champion and any other Pac-12 team ranked high enough would fill a berth in one of two CFP semifinals - the Good-year Cotton Bowl Classic in Arlington, Texas or the Capital One Orange Bowl in Miami Gardens, Fla.

When the Rose Bowl does not host a semifinal game, the Pac-12 champion would play in the Rose Bowl unless it was ranked in the top four and would play in one of the semifinal games.
